

PRITCHARD FIRES A PARTING SHOT

At the Authorities of State of North Carolina in Southern Railway Case.

PARTIES REACH AGREEMENT.

Judge Says it is Unjust to Say That Question of State Rights Involved in Controversy.

Asheville, N. C., July 29.—A parting shot at the state authorities in the railroad controversy was fired through petitions which the Southern railway and the Atlantic Coast line filed before Judge Pritchard today, asking that his interlocutory injunction be modified in accordance with the "peace" agreement reached Saturday at Raleigh between Gov. Glenn and the railroads. Both the roads filed petitions very similar in tenor, which explained a conference here today between attorneys representing the two roads. The petition of the Southern railway recites the entire history of the railroad cases, and includes a protest against what the road regards as the "unjust" treatment, the protest and racial facts being designed for the purpose of the superior court of the United States, as well as the superior court of the public. The railroads declare, in effect, that they were clubbed into becoming parties to the agreement of July 1st, 1906, because of threats of an extra session of the legislature, when the expectation was held out that some things would happen to the roads. The Southern Railway was confronted with a question as to whether a proper sense of its duty to the peace and good order of the state, and a proper consideration of its obligations to perform its duties as a common carrier in the state and interstate business, and its obligation to its subjects, its employees, and its passengers, would justify it in claiming its constitutional rights to the protection of the interstate order authorizing of the interstate order authorizing of the interstate order authorizing of the interstate order.

dead letter, as there would be no means of enforcing them. "As the defendants failed to appeal from the order of this court, awarding the interlocutory injunction," continued Judge Pritchard, "nothing remained except for this court only to pursue the consideration of the cases and meanwhile to protect its jurisdiction and its processes when action on its part was lawfully invoked, but as the complainants, for the protection of whose rights the interlocutory decree was entered, now move the court's permission to surrender the protection of said order to the extent indicated in their respective petitions, there is nothing for the court to do except to grant the permission prayed."

OFFICER HAWSE VIOLENT.

Comments on His Actions at Time of Columbia Wreck Drive Him Insane. San Francisco, July 30.—Brooding over the controversy that has arisen among the survivors of the Columbia shipwreck regarding his actions at that time and the newspaper comments thereon, Robert Hawse, third officer of the ill-fated steamer, is at the detention ward of the Central Emergency hospital, pending an investigation into his mental condition. Last evening he became so violent and acted so strangely that Second Officer Richard Agarup of the Columbia, when Hawse had been staying, sent for the police and had the unfortunate man taken to the detention ward of the emergency hospital. Hawse was very excited when first taken to the station, crying and acting as though he was in fear of others.

JACOB A. RILEY MARRIED.

Boston, July 29.—A special dispatch from Ipswich, Mass., today told of the marriage in that town yesterday of Jacob A. Riley, the author of the "News" editorial, to Miss Mary A. Phillips, who for some time has served as Mr. Riley's secretary. Only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. Every precaution had been taken to avoid publicity, and the wedding was held in a private home.

BURGULARY AT PROVO.

Smooth Thief Steals $5 Under Eyes of Watchman and Escapes.

(Special to the "News.") Provo, July 30.—The Brunswick bar saloon was entered by a burglar this morning about 4 o'clock, the burglar entering from the skylight at the rear. He was seen by Night-watchman Wilkin, who entered the saloon from the front, but he was not quick enough for the prowler, who had left the back door open and that the police were notified and in spite of all efforts to locate him, the burglar is still at large. Only about $5 was taken from the saloon.

IN JUDGE DIEHL'S COURT.

Looks Like Trouble Ahead for One Frank Royland.

There were not many cases before Judge Diehl when his court was opened at 9 o'clock this morning. John Evans and George Buckley, charged with vagrancy, pleaded guilty and were given a "float." They will leave town before tomorrow morning or be subject to a sentence of 90 days. Frank Royland, charged with indecent conduct, pleaded guilty, but Judge Diehl decided to take testimony in the case before imposing sentence, and set the case for tomorrow morning. Royland wanted to make a statement and said: "I can give reference to the state of mind that I am in. I am an honest man."

WALTER FORSYTH, THE YOUNG MAN

caught robbing Margetta's store on Main street, pleaded guilty to burglary but the case was continued until tomorrow morning when, it is probable, the charge will be reduced to petit larceny.

FORAKER DEFERS CUBAN REPUTATION SHELF

Under Present Conditions it is Impossible for Him to Favor Taft for President.

OPPOSES HIS ENDORSEMENT.

Republican Voters Should Be Given a Chance to Be Heard Before Committee Takes Action.

Cincinnati, O., July 29.—That it is impossible for him under present conditions to favor the presidential candidacy of Secy. of War Taft is the statement of United States Senator Foraker in a letter given out here today. The letter is addressed to C. K. McCoy of Coshocton, a member of the Republican state committee, and is intended as the expression of the senator's views to be presented when the committee meets at Columbus tomorrow. The interview of Gov. Harris, in which he favored the endorsement of Foraker for senator and Taft for president and encouraged the endorsement of Taft for president, is another term for governor, and various recent publications are taken as the text for the letter, which is as follows:

FORAKER'S LETTER.

"I learn from the newspapers and otherwise, that resolution is likely to be offered at the next meeting of the state central committee to be held in Columbus tomorrow, July 30, endorsing Secy. Taft as Ohio's candidate for the presidency, and I have seen it stated that a resolution is likely to be offered endorsing me as a candidate to be my own successor in the United States, and in today's papers is published what purports to be an authorized interview with Gov. Harris favoring this proposed endorsement of Secy. Taft and myself as candidates for the presidency and good will for myself with respect to a continuation of my public services, but disclaiming a desire to be endorsed as his successor as governor."

"In this interview he announces, as he has heretofore announced that he is in favor of a revision of the tariff. Now, Secy. Taft is a candidate for the presidency would not, therefore, as Gov. Harris well says, be binding upon anybody, not even themselves, but it would be wholly outside of their jurisdiction and unauthorized. It would be only the same as the individual opinions of so many citizens of the state. In fact, there would be no more than a committee of 21 members not chosen with reference to presidential preferences, to settle a question of that character than there would be for the endorsement of Secy. Taft and myself as candidates for the presidency, and such action by the committee would be entitled to correspondingly less credit and responsibility."

GIVE VOTERS A CHANCE.

"On a number of occasions heretofore, I have stated that, so far as I have been individually concerned, as a citizen of Ohio and a member of the Republican party, I did not think this question should be determined except only in accordance with the expressed wish of the Republican voters of Ohio, and that in view of the controversies that have arisen the Republican voters of Ohio should be given an opportunity to be heard before any action is taken by the committee, and anybody not chosen by the people to represent them in regard to this matter."

"In view of what Gov. Harris has said, and what it is not out of place for me to call attention to my former expressions to this view and to report that I do not think the state central committee has the authority to take any action on this subject and I do not think it would promote party harmony for it to undertake to anticipate the Republican voters of the state in speaking in advance of their action by me."

"I do not think anybody, as Gov. Harris well says, would regard such action as binding. I am sure I would not and I do not think it could in any way promote party good in our state or advance the cause of Republicanism either in Ohio or elsewhere."

"In addition to these considerations I think it is premature and bad policy to undertake in this way to inject the presidential question and national politics into Ohio politics at a time when the state is in the midst of a harmonious and successful Republican effort."

"When we are through with the elections of this year we can take up in an orderly way and with no prejudice the question of the next business to be transacted, the settlement of our presidential preferences."

AS TO STATE CONVENTIONS. "I shall at that time, as I have heretofore announced, request the state central committee to order, in accordance with the spirit and intention of the platform adopted by the convention that assembled at Dayton last year, that delegates for the next convention shall be selected to be duly held under the law as it now stands or such law as may be then in force, if there should be in the meantime any change in the statutes of Ohio applicable thereto. In this way we may free ourselves entirely from the oft-repeated charges that have been made, with very careful examination of the records of our state conventions in recent years who are supposed to be represented by the delegates, but by committee members and others, who have been so stubbornly disregarding these warnings."

"I learn also from the newspapers and otherwise that it is claimed, as a reason for the proposed action, that Secy. Taft is the only candidate Ohio has for the presidency, and that on such account, from sentiments of pride, we should not refuse to support him for this reason the committee should take the proposed action at this time so that the whole country may be advised what Ohio intends to do next year."

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

"I see it stated almost every day in the newspapers as a reason for the claim that Ohio has only one candidate for the presidency, that I have not at any time announced my candidacy for that office, and that I have never made any such announcement. A candidate for the presidency must assume, first, the great and serious responsibility of leading his party in the national campaign, and if successful, as we hope and expect to be, he must then assume the grave and serious responsibilities of administering the executive office of the United States. These are so grave and so serious that any man might well feel highly compelled and greatly honored to have his fellow citizens name him in such a connection, but at the same time they are so grave and so serious that any ordinary man might well hesitate to proclaim himself qualified for such a position, or prefer at least to wait until invited by his party associates to take upon himself such responsibilities. Such a position is at least more in keeping with the high dignity of the office. Besides, it gives his party associates an opportunity to discuss their objections, unbiased and unembarrassed judgment, which he should be willing to both wait for and abide by. HIS OWN CANDIDACY.

"It is because I entertain opinions of this kind that I have not made any announcement of my candidacy for any office, and in view of what may be inferred from these expressions, I do not deem it necessary that I should state that it is a matter to be settled by sentiments of state pride, commendable as they are. If there were not any differences of opinion among Republicans, state pride would probably have great weight, but today there is a wide difference among Republicans on a question of the most vital character."

It is not to refer to the regulation of railroads and trusts and corporations engaged in interstate commerce and large aggregations of capital, for on that point there is no substantial difference of opinion among Republicans, except as to the methods that should be resorted to for such regulation. I believe in such regulation and was one of the advocates of it, but I have always advocated methods that are consistent with the Constitution and the spirit of our institutions. In this connection I am happy to be able to state that I have been helped, as one of the sub-committee of three, to frame and put into its present form the Elkins law, which is now universally conceded to be the most effective and expeditious statute that has ever been enacted on that subject, worth, measured by practical results, more than all other such statutes that have been enacted since the Civil War."

THE TARIFF QUESTION.

"The question I refer to is not, therefore, regulation of trusts, railroad and interstate commerce, about which, as I have said, we are all united, but the tariff question. Every Republican has a right to espouse any view he may entertain, and inasmuch as Gov. Harris represents that such is his view, I do not wonder that he should prefer Secy. Taft as his candidate for the presidency, for on a number of occasions Secy. Taft has taken pains to announce that he is in favor of an immediate revision of the tariff. I observe also that most of the leading supporters of Secy. Taft in our state entertain similar views, according to the expressions I have seen in the newspapers and in the papers, notably among them Ex-Gov. Herrick and the Hon. Theodore E. Burton."

"When, therefore, we are asked to commit ourselves to the candidacy of Secy. Taft we must do it with the fact in mind that he entertains the views he has expressed on this subject and that he is in favor of an immediate revision of the tariff. I do not think it is necessary to be a campaign for a revision downward of the tariff schedules under which the country has been brought not only to an unprecedented but to a universal prosperity. There may be some duties too high and there may be some too low, and there may come a time when we will have to change some of them, but in view of the results we are enjoying I do not think we should enter upon such work at this time, and I do not believe that we should disregard what the Republican party has done for this country under the policies represented by the Dingley tariff by making our campaign of revision on an issue that is so well known to the people and that are to be changed, with the reasons that are to be offered in support of such changes."

"If we postpone the matter of settling our preference as to a candidate until we can go before the people and discuss this question, as we will have an opportunity to do if we leave the delegates to the national convention at primaries, our respective views can be presented and the people can judge between us and thus act intelligently. This is a matter that concerns the workers and wage workers, as well as to the manufacturers and other business men of our state, who will necessarily be immediately and seriously affected by any kind of tariff revision."

"If we can give time to discuss this subject, as I propose, I may change my views about it, but without further delay I am in favor of the action now being taken by the committee, and I do not think it is out of place for me to call attention to my former expressions to this view and to report that I do not think the state central committee has the authority to take any action on this subject and I do not think it would promote party harmony for it to undertake to anticipate the Republican voters of the state in speaking in advance of their action by me."

TAFT'S SECRETARY TALKS.

Columbus, O., July 29.—A. I. Vorys, manager of Taft's presidential candidacy, was informed tonight of the nature of the letter addressed by Senator Foraker to the state central committee of the Republican party of Ohio, and he said that he had no statement to make regarding it. "Every effort has been made to induce the state committee to postpone action on a resolution endorsing Taft for president. All efforts have been fruitless, and the letter of Senator Foraker seems the last effort when all others have failed. The Republican party of Ohio are overwhelmingly for Taft for president and that the members of the state committee know it. There is not the slightest impropriety in their saying so, and I believe they will so declare."

ANOTHER NAVAL STATION FOR THE PACIFIC COAST.

Washington, July 30.—It is probable that another naval station will be created upon the Pacific coast as the result of the forthcoming visit there of Admiral Capps, chief naval construction officer of the navy. The admiral is expected to leave today for New York, where he will be joined by Admiral Mahan, chief of the bureau of naval construction. The admiral is expected to make a thorough inspection of the yards and stations on that coast, and report upon the future needs of the navy in that quarter. Admiral Mahan's visit to the Pacific coast will follow these two officers to San Francisco on a similar errand. This will involve a very careful examination of the Mare Island navy yard and that at Bremerton. The resources of the two navy yards, which are the only ones on a large scale on the Pacific coast, are scarcely sufficient to make even temporary repairs and dockings that will be required by Admiral Evans' battleship fleet if it makes only a short visit to the coast. Hence the inspection of these yards will probably result in recommendations to Congress at its approaching session for a considerable enlargement of the plans of both places.

St. Paul, July 30.—A settlement of the difficulties has been effected between the Northern Pacific company and the Caimen people, thereby avoiding the threatened strike of the 5,000 carriers.

TWO TITANS FOUND.

London, July 30.—According to the Milan correspondent of the Tribune, Pandoras, the painter of Trieste, has found the two long-lost pictures by Titian in a church in the village of Tracia, Dalmatia. One represents the Magdalen and the other the Descent from the Cross. The pictures, it is stated, are of great value.

Striking Linemen Apparently Have Irish Blood in Their Veins.

That the people ought to cease hoping for any settlement of the linemen's strike is the conclusion of a Salt Lake citizen who saw a group of strikers on Main street today. He sized up the group, and they were Irishmen one and all, from the large fat man with a jolly face who led them, to the little thin man with red hair who brought up the rear. He reached his conclusion on the general premise of reasoning from cause to effect.

At the Bell telephone offices the stenographer girl who sat in the next room to that in which the recent series of conferences was held, declares that she could easily tell when a company officer was a strike representative. She was talking by the variation from the Irish brogue to commonplace English. All the strike leaders are Irish from President P. J. McNulty, who is one of the jolliest of that persuasion, to District Chairman Currie, who is chief in influence among the members of the local union. Of the same origin are Vice President Sullivan and Louis Lynn, who is deposed from power by his associates after he had ordered the strike which has refused to settle despite all efforts to bring it to a conclusion, since May 21.

At the electrical workers' hall today it is very apparent that the Irish members of the union are in a peaceful mood just because the telephone company has offered higher wages, coupled with a refusal to recognize the union. A group of seven Irishmen are assembled there playing cards to pass the time away, and they have styled the game "freeze-out," declaring that they will keep on playing until the company grants the terms of their original request. No cards are reported of workmen going back to accept the company's offer of higher wages in return for the abandonment of the union idea.

CANNON QUITS TRIBUNE.

Frank J. Cannon has returned to Salt Lake after an extended absence in Wisconsin.

Frank J. Cannon has returned to Salt Lake after an extended absence in Wisconsin and was in evidence upon the streets this morning. Mr. Cannon left this city a couple of months ago, after having been named as the Salt Lake Tribune. He returns, so say his friends and relatives, shorn of that dubious distinction and Col. William Nelson reigns in his stead.

SAWS IN CELL.

This morning, while making a tour of the cells in the city jail, Jailer Wilkinson was surprised to find in one of the upper cells a steel saw, the kind used by desperate criminals to saw out of the wall their means of escape. A session of the saw and making a further search of the jail. None of the prisoners admitted any knowledge of how the saw had got into the jail and it is known none of the bars have been tampered with.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—Requests were made for another revival of Edward Peple's comedy, "The Prince Chap," in New York, but last season's patrons in the other cities visited, influenced so many of the managers to book the play for another tour, which means that New York will have to wait for "The Prince Chap" until next season. The comedy, which is now being played at the Salt Lake Theater, for three nights, beginning Thursday.

Orpheum—The members of the Orpheum stock company must have felt decidedly gratified at the demonstration of their popularity in the city last night on the part of the big audience that packed the hall. Each individual as he or she appeared was greeted with spontaneous applause and throughout the evening both players and the audience were in a most happy frame of mind. The feature of the evening was the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet," presented by Miss Moore and Mr. O'Meara, the latter playing the part of Romeo. The scene was a masterpiece of acting, and in fact Mr. O'Meara, demonstrated that he has not been given any real opportunities during the season. Zelby Roach also was in the cast, and the play was a most successful one. The company is expected to go east in a few days.
