THE DIVORCE MANIA.

A California paper, the San Francisco Chronicle, recently discussed the question whether "we were a Christian nation," and rather thought, "we were, or that we were either Christian or nothing."

The same paper now furnishes, but not ostensibly, another argument in favor of the answer that "we" are a Christian nation, and that answer is a statement of the divorce business of San Francisco for the last year, which statements by the by, it considers is a sad commentary on the morality of our people, and strongly suggests defects in the once sacred institution of marriage.

The speaker then called the States for their resolutions.

Executive Communications presented, &c.

The House re-assembled to-day. There was but few members absent. The bulk of the day was administered to the Railroad Committee, who, having filled the unoccupied term of the late Senator, had a large amount of executive communications, accumulated during recess, were presented and referred.

The speaker then called on the committees for report, but no committee was ready.

On motion of Morrison the House went into committee on the State of the Union. Wheeler in the chair, and the usual resolutions distributing the President's address to the appropriate committees, were adopted.

The speaker then called on the committees on ways and means.

The speaker then called on the committees on foreign relations, and the committee on foreign affairs.

In San Francisco the divorces are one to three and a half of the marriages. In 1874, licenses for the marriage of 2,292 couples were issued in that city, 650 divorces cases instituted, and 354 dissolutions of marriage obtained.

This divorce mania is said to pervade all classes, all races, and all ages matrimonial, in some instances the parties being two or thirty score and ten years old. Women were applicants in the ratio of four to one of the men. The principal causes alleged are adultery and intemperance. The divorce business decuples more than one-third of the time of the courts. Lawyers make a specialty of it, and grow rich upon it. There are hired witnesses in order for any case, sharp practice and trickery of various kinds are common, and much of the proceeding is conducted in secrecy.

Considering that the author of Christianity allowed divorce only for fornication or adultery, this fornicating, adulterous, and divorce loving nation must be truly "Christian!"

More Financial Legislation, &c.

Morrill, of Vt., introduced a bill to further provide for the redemption of U. S. legal tender notes in gold.

Morrill said he introduced this bill to give him responsibility. He presumed no senator from him desired to repeat the act of last session to provide for specific redemption; his purpose is to introduce a bill to make the extension of the law. He gave reasons that his resolution had been defeated, and that he could not obtain a majority of his colleagues to support it after the expiration of the morning hour to-morrow.

The chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of War, stating that the committee on commerce had voted to provide for specific redemption; his purpose is to introduce a bill to make the extension of the law.
