No Money Is Wanted

I Only Ask the Name of Some Sick One; Let Me Send My Book.

I ask from you this, as an act of humanity: Simply write me a postal. Give me the name of a sick one. Tell me which book he needs. I will do this in return:

I will furnish that sick one a treatment which I spent a lifetime in learning. I will give all the advice he needs. And I promise that if any method fails, he shall not have a penny to pay.

I will even do this:

With the book I will send an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I will authorize him to let you take it for a month. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay your druggist myself. I will leave the decision with you.

That seems an impossible offer, and with any other treatment it would be. It would bankrupt the physician who made It.

But I have made a prescription that strengthens the inside nerves. I have learned how to bring back the nerve power which alone operates the vital organs. When an organ is weak, I give it the power to act.

Usually that is all that is needed. And in most chronic diseases there is no other way to get well. My book will prove that I am right.

Sometimes, even this method falls, but not often. There are causes, like cancer, which no man can cure; but those condiditions are rare.

My success is so general that in every case, no matter how difficult, 1 take the entire risk.

In five years I have done this in over half a million cases; and my records show that 39 in each 40 paid for the medicine That means that only one in each forty has been distaken. appointed.

It means that there are 39 chances in 40 that I can cure you. No sick person can afferd to neglect an offer like this. If the treatment succeeds, you are well. If it falls, it is free. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose by it. Won't you write a postal to learn about a remedy like that?

Pook No. 1 on Dyspepsia. Rock No. 2 on the Heart. Rock No. 3 on the 1 daeys. Rock No. 4 for Women. Rock No. 5 for Men (scaled). Book No. 6 on isheumatism. Simply state which book you want, and addi ess Dr. Shoop, Box 713, Racine, Wis.

Mild cases, not chronic, are often cured by one or two bottles. At 'all druggists.

Morrison-Snow Case.

In the case of C. D. Morrison vs A. E. Snow and the Morrison Mining company, the plaintiff has filed a motion to strike out certain parts of defendants answer because "the said portions are scandalous, impertinent, irrelevant and nmaterial to any part of the issues in his case. The parts sought to be eliminated reflect somewhat upon Justice Barch's connection with the case and are the grounds upon which he was made a party defendant to the counter claim several days ago.

Probate Petition.

Charles S. Burton today petitioned the court to be appointed administrator of the estate of Dirk Bockholt, de-ceased, who died testate Jan. 1, 1887. The petition recites that William Fuller acted as administrator under the terms of the will until his death which oc-curred April 27, 1893, and that all the estate was disposed of except some real property described as the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 27, township 3 south, range 1 west. The deceased, before his death, conveyed to William Eddington a certain portion of this property but it was incorrectly described in the deed and it is for the purpose of correcting that error that petitioner asks for letters of administration.

Lower Court Reversed.

The supreme court has reversed the decision of the lower court in the case of Melvina Coleman vs E. G. Hines, appellant. The sult was originally brought to quiet title to a strip of land 1.46 feet by 110.5 feet in dimensions. The re-spondent claims the property by continued peaceful possession and the ap-pellant by legal title.

The lower court decided the case in favor of the plaintiff.

The decision of the supreme court holds that the possession of respondent was for less than 20 years and hence was not of a sufficient length of time to establish a title to the property.

FEDERAL COURT.

The following named were today dis-tharged from bankruptcy in the United States court: James Knox of Salt Lake, A. W. James Knox of Salt Lake, A. W. Schultz of Salt Lake, Warren Boley of American Fork, Alonzo Young of Salt Lake, Michael Inman of Salt Lake, and Arthur Peterson of Ogden. Thomas H. Findley of Layton, and W. G. HE WANTED TO GO BACK HOME.

There is something fascinating about the Swede. His honor and candor can-not fail to appeal to those who study him and see in him a lineal descendant of Hengist and Horsa. The breezy breath of the brine clings to him. His generic name is Ole. One of these typi-cal sons of the north came into New York harbor a few days ago on boar a bark. After secur-ing all the plunder they could the two holdups forced their victims to jump from the car, the train then being in motion. Brown and Dalberg then then made their way back to Ogden and pre-sented themselves at the police headquarters where they related the story that has just been told. One of the men wore a handkerchief over his mouth, while the other wore nothing, thus displaying a stubby mustache. Both men were rather short and heavy set and wore dark clothes. The man who wore the handkerchief seemed to be clean shaven.

The band made a raid on George Shorten's coop, also that of Joseph Starrs, securing 25 chickens from the former and thirty from the latter, every fow that was in the coop.
