

"There will be a meeting of the Tanners, Boot and Shoe Makers, Saddle and Harness Makers, at the City Hall, at 6 o'clock this evening. All interested are respectfully invited."

Military Guard.—Last night a military guard of four mounted men patrolled portions of the city, looking out for drunken or peace-disturbing soldiers from Camp Douglas. It is to be hoped this measure will be continued, if the military are to be freed from the restraints of civil law. It will save the police a great deal of trouble.

Supreme Court.—The Supreme Court of the Territory met this morning, at the U. S. Marshal's Office, Chief Justice James B. McKean and Associate Justice P. H. Emerson on the bench. There was a fair representation of members of the bar, the room being nearly full. After hearing some arguments on motions the Court took a recess till four o'clock this afternoon.

American Newspaper Directory for 1874.—Geo. P. Rowell & Co., New York. This is a work of 900 large octavo pages altogether, illustrated, being, as its title indicates, a directory of American newspapers. It is an exceedingly useful volume to advertisers and many other business men.

From this work we learn that the total number of newspapers and periodicals published in the United States is 7,203, besides 126 in the Territories; in the British dominions of America the total number is 455.

Pine Valley.—We learn from Brother W. Cowley, of Pine Valley, Washington County, who was in town yesterday, that the United Order at that place is progressing very favorably. Since its inauguration the people have become more united in their feelings than previously, and the more experience they have in the new order of things the better they like it. The farming work for the settlement is done, by systematization, by about two-thirds the amount of the labor, &c., which was before required for it, which is a great saving.

Remains at Beaver.—Associate Justice Jacob S. Boreman will not appear on the bench of the Supreme Court during its present sitting. This was understood the last time the court adjourned. His concurrence or non-concurrence in the opinions of Judge McKean, on matters before the Court are to be rendered in writing. Meanwhile Judge Boreman intimates that he supinely awaits the passage of the Poland spoliation measure, when he expects to "pitch in" and get his name up as a first-class crusader. That iniquitous bill is not yet passed however.

Discharged.—The case of Private Geiger, who was so severely cut about the head, in Metz's saloon, on Saturday night, was before Justice Clinton yesterday afternoon. Metz and Grant, the accused, produced five witnesses, who testified that they did not do the cutting, but no one seemed to know who did it, excepting one party who gave evidence, and who asked the court whether, in testifying, he was obliged to criminate himself, to which he received a negative answer. The soldier, however, stoutly maintained that it was the saloon proprietors who struck him. Messrs. Metz and Grant were discharged.

Commencing Operations.—The ladies of the Fifteenth Ward are making a move towards commencing the straw-braiding business, summer hat-making, the manufacture of coarse and fine shirts, overalls, ladies' and children's clothing. Persons who are the most thoroughly acquainted with the various branches of business are being selected to take the oversight of the different departments, and it is expected that home industries, so far as the ladies are concerned, will soon be operating in that part of the city, so far as present circumstances will permit. We cannot do other than wish them, and all others who follow in the same direction, the most abundant success.

A Furious Wind.—Shortly after one o'clock this afternoon a furious wind blew up. It lasted but a few minutes, but during that time it made things tear around and rattle, and filled the air with such dense clouds of dust that people could not see across the street in some places.

The gale was most severe in the northern part of the city. In the 20th Ward the frame work of a house in course of erection, belonging to Brother William Caldwell, was blown down, and the timber carried off quite a distance. A large number of outhouses in the same locality were also blown down, and some shanties unroofed. Boards and various other articles were flying around for a few moments in abundant confusion.

Oatmeal.—A gentleman who is a lover of oatmeal, and is desirous that it should constitute one of the home manufactured articles, hands us the following—

"Americans are gradually waking up to the fact that oatmeal is by no means an unimportant article of diet. As a food, the merits of which have stood the test of centuries, and which is designed to promote the sanitary condition of the nation by laying the foundation for more hardy and vigorous frames for the coming generation, let us regard its general adoption as an article of diet as nothing short of a national good. Its phosphorescent qualities act as a gentle and healthful impulse to the brain, and on no other food can one endure so great or so prolonged mental labor as on oatmeal porridge. Properly cooked it is not only a most healthful and nutritious food, but is decidedly palatable, and is fully attested by its wonderfully rapid adoption as a popular diet by the very fastidious palates of our American people."

That Article.—The 33rd Article of War, upon which Judge Advocate Holt placed such an extraordinary construction, evidently means that when a soldier commits an offense against the civil laws on a military reservation, or if he does so anywhere else and gets upon the reservation or grounds before he can be arrested, the civic authorities can then only obtain the custody of the offender by making a formal demand for him upon the post commander, from the fact that the criminal is upon United States premises. When a soldier commits an offense against the civil laws off the reservation and is arrested before he gets upon U. S. premises it is a very different thing. There is then no necessity for making a demand for him that he may be dealt with in accordance with the law he has broken, because he is already in the custody of the officers of the offended law.

Any other construction of the article in question is a manifest misconception, the opinion of Judge Advocate Holt to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Provo Jubilee.—We learn, from Brother Geo. Goddard, that the grand Utah County children's jubilee, held at Provo, yesterday, was a splendid success. Besides the leading men of the county, there were present from this City, Presidents B. Young, Geo. A. Smith and D. H. Wells, Elders E. Snow, A. M. Musser, D. McKenzie, Geo. Goddard, and J. B. Maiben, and others.

About five thousand children participated in the singing exercises, which were executed excellently, notwithstanding that the songs had only been rehearsed by the children in the settlements to which they belong, there having been no general or county rehearsal.

Besides the sweet singing by the gentle voices of the children, a few recitations were rendered, and instrumental music was supplied by the band.

Presidents Young and Smith and Elders E. Snow, Geo. Goddard and J. B. Maiben delivered brief addresses, suited to the occasion and circumstances, and altogether it was a most pleasant and enjoyable affair, everything passing off agreeably.

"Educational Bureau."—It will be observed by a notice, published in another part of to-day's NEWS, that Dr. J. R. Parke, principal of the University of Deseret, has established an "Educational Bureau," or agency for the diffusion of educational intelligence. The notice referred to is sufficiently explicit, and therefore need not be elaborately commented upon. A properly conducted institution of this nature, however, cannot fail to be a valuable aid in enhancing the educational interests of the Territory, and Dr. Park, being a gentleman of experience and mature judgment in educational matters is just the proper person to supply the information which it is aimed to disseminate through this channel.

With regard to the matter of "furniture and apparatus," "either of eastern or home manufacture," we perfectly agree with a recently expressed opinion of President Geo. A. Smith, that there is not the slightest necessity to import anything in that line, as both the skill and material are sufficiently abundant at home to produce all that is wanted in the Territory. Dr. Park himself says that the furniture, etc., in the University of Deseret, home manufactured, is very well adapted to all necessary purposes, and, with some slight modifications and improvements, would be as good as need be desired anywhere. Would it not be a good thing for Dr. Park and others get up some good designs for furniture, etc., suitable for use in the school rooms of Utah?

Parties who wish to obtain information concerning the nature and objects of the "Educational Bureau," should place themselves in communication with Dr. Park.
