FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

A Soldier's Fortune to-night at the Theatre.

Evan Stephens' fourth class will not meet to-morrow.

"Young Mrs. Winthrop," at the Opera House, to-night.

"Pop," by Rice's Surprise Party, at the Theatre, to-morrow night.

"The Money Spinner," at the Opera House, to-morrow night, by the Home Club.

The meetings preliminary to the General Conference will open at ten o'clock to-morrow, at the Tabernacle.

Heavy trains have been arriving to-day from north and south, carrying large numbers of visitors to Conference.

Evan Stephens' Concert for the benefit of the S. S. Union and the music classes, at the Assembly Hall to-morrow night. Admission 50 cents, children half price.

The Box office opened this morning with a brisk sale for money, sugar and Long Strike tickets. Seats can be reserved at any time to-morrow for any part of the house, without extra charge.

Last night Brother Evan Stephens' adult music class gave him a genuine surprise and presented him with a large and handsomely bound Bible. He is exceedingly popular with his pupils and deservedly so.

The Home Dramatic Club make their first appearance in Haverly's Opera House to-morrow night with the money spinner. The Long strike with its handsome scenery, its 15 young factory girls, its 40 workmen on strike, its 12 journeymen and all other grand arrangements and effects will be ready on Saturday night.

A gigantic pine tree was recently cut down in Michigan. It measured 164 feet long, being 100 feet to the ground to the first limb, and the trunk perfectly round in shape. When sawed up it made eight logs, containing 350 feet of lumber, besides a portion that was broken badly, enough to have made two other logs.

The Denver Tribune has just issued a large special edition of its daily commemorative of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad between that city and Salt Lake. It contains a very comprehensive and illustrated description of the road, its scenery, etc. J. H. Parry has telegraphed for a large supply to be here on Friday.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

General Seventies' Meeting.—The Seventies will hold their regular meeting this evening at 7 o'clock at the Council House.

ROBT. CAMPBELL,
 Clerk of First Council of Seventies.
 Salt Lake City, April 4, 1883.

Relieved of His Luggage.—On Monday L. C. Falley, of Terrace, put up at the Chamberlain House, Ogden. He left his trunk in the hallway while he ascended the staircase to his room. In the meantime thieves carried it away, opened it and relieved it of the entire contents, which the Ogden Herald states were valued at $150. The empty trunk was found near the C. P. freight office, yesterday morning.

Another Big Gun.—Mr. Marrens Cannon, 1 to 2 American pioneer photographer of Utah, whose symbol of war (loaded one of the first advertisements ever published in the News), and who has repeatedly photographed the oldest inhabitant, is with us once again, and with the exception of a slight lameness apparently as well and hearty as ever. We wish him a pleasant sojourn amid the old familiar scenes and faces.

Hitting Joseph Cook.—Rev. Joseph Cook, the "Mormon-eater," is constantly getting journalistic kicks from every quarter. The Philadelphia News says:

"Rev. Joseph Cook prefers English newspapers to the American because the English journals are printed on such good paper that you can carry them around the world, while the American papers 'won't last three days.' Here would seem to be a chance for some enterprising American to publish a paper on block tin or boiler iron for the benefit of Joe Cook and other people who prefer old-time to fresh."

For Passenger Traffic.—To-day we present the advertisement of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, which is to be opened for passenger traffic along the entire system, in Utah, Colorado and New Mexico, on the 8th of April. On that day a through express train, composed of palace sleepers and elegant first-class coaches will leave this city for Pueblo and Denver. The hour of departure will be announced in due time. The scenery along a large portion of the route is conspicuously grand, and the line is bound to be one of special favor with tourists.

A Useful Hint.—The Fremont's Journal is authority for the following remedy for cold feet, from which numbers of persons are constant sufferers, besides those ordinarily exposed to cold: "All that is necessary is to stand erect and very gradually to lift one's self up upon the tips of the toes, so as to put all the tendons of the foot at full strain. The slower this is done the better, and remain standing on the point of the toes as long as possible, then gradually coming to the natural position. Repeat this several times and by the effort a sufficient and lively circulation is set up."

An Opera Comique.—This morning we were called upon by Mr. E. B. Brown, business representative of J. H. Haverly's enterprises. He comes in advance of the McCall Opera Comique Company, who will perform in Salt Lake City four nights, commencing April 10th, and a Saturday matinee, on their way to the Coast. They will appear in "The Queen's Lace Handkerchief," performed by them 150 nights in New York. The company is very large, including 60 people, nearly all of whom are excellent and consequently high salaried artists. The orchestra is large, and the costumes gorgeous.

THE "CONTRIBUTOR."—The April number of the Contributor contains some exceedingly interesting features. Among them might be named the first chapter of the "Biography of President J. F. Johnson," with a beautiful steel engraving, "An Adventure in Sonora," by Apostle Moses Thatch, "The funeral sermon of Elder King Follett," by Joseph Smith the Prophet. This celebrated sermon was delivered before 20,000 people and is published in this number of the Contributor complete as reported by Dr. Richards, W. Woodruff, Thomas Bullock and Wm. Clayton.

The next important feature of this superior number is from the pen of the celebrated war correspondent Mr. Phil. Robinson, entitled "In the Egyptian War." It is the first of a series of contributions which the editor has arranged for. Besides these the usual interesting variety of matter is retained. In consequence of the desire of a great many to procure the sermon, and to read Mr. Robinson's sketch a special edition has been printed and will be for sale in the bookstores, at the DESERET NEWS and the Contributor offices. Price 25 cents per copy.

Solving the Water Problem.—This morning we received a pleasant call from Brother David Candland, who resides at Chester, Sanpete County. It is a settlement of limited population, but the people have an enterprising genius. There has been in the past some difficulty with other towns in reference to water and water rights. Instead of engaging in and spending money for legal controversies they wisely commenced the construction of reservoirs, two of which are already built and a third in contemplation. One summer watering in ordinary seasons is sufficient for most of the land, and the means of reservation already completed has a capacity to supply between 750 and 1,000 acres. The reservoirs are a complete success, and other places would do well to follow Chester's example in solving the water problem where it is a perplexing question.

In the enterprise of construction of reservoirs, and other improvements, Bishop R. N. Alfred has taken a foremost part.

Attempted Robbery.—Last night Neil Harvey, a workman from the Denver & Rio Grande R. R. was attacked by several men on West Temple Street, a short distance north of the California stables. The evident intention of the assaulting parties was robbery. The police learning of the affair went to the locality, and on searching around the spot they found the place covered with blood and a small sum of money was picked up from the ground. Further north Harvey was found badly intoxicated and battered hanging on to the fence. He first stated that he had been robbed of $200, subsequently he reduced the amount, and it was finally found that he had not been robbed at all, as his money was found secured about his person, where the intending robbers failed to find it.

Floating Whisky.—The large number of workmen who came in during the past two or three days from the Denver & Rio Grande R.R. have thus far created little or no disturbance, notwithstanding that many of them have been drinking heavily. The effects of their advent were visible in the police court this morning, when nineteen cases of drunkenness were disposed of by Justice Spiers. The unprecedented spectacle of fifteen being marched into the court room at one time was witnessed.

Opera House.—Another big house witnessed the charming play of "Young Mrs. Winthrop," last evening. It was played as before with a fidelity and naturalness which left nothing to be desired. Few could resist the emotional influence of the touching scenes and deep pathos of the play, and in one or two instances the effect upon the spectators was hysterical. It will be repeated for the last time this evening. It affords a real treat to those who can appreciate a genuine American society play.

A Soldier's Fortune.—To-night that very stirring and interesting play "A Soldier's Fortune," will be repeated at the Theatre, by Mr. John S. Lindsey supported by a good company. It is one of the most attractive plays that has been presented here for a long time. It was one in which Mr. Charles Fechter used to perform for years.

The piece, which is a translation from the French, was presented to Mr. Lindsey by Mrs. F. M. Bates.

Unprofitable.—We hear of Elder's engaging in public discussion with representatives of what is known as the Josephite Church. We venture a well considered opinion that, as a rule, there are many spheres in which the brethren could be more profitably employed. Discussions of this kind give the opposite side an appearance of importance that does not really belong to it. Figuratively speaking, shooting at a dead duck is a clear waste of ammunition.

"Pop."—Rice's New Surprise Party appear to-morrow evening in their melodramatic mélange entitled "Pop." The piece is attractive and too well known to our play-goers to need criticism. They have just returned from the Pacific Coast, where they achieved the most success of any company for years. They are without a superior in the United States. Everybody should see them.

A Large One.—This morning we were shown one of the largest specimens of "then fruit" we ever saw. It measured 6½ inches in circumference one way and 8½ the other, and weighed 8½ pounds. It was from the San-west of Silver Ball, of the Seventeenth Ward, and was the product of a Black Java bean.

Our dispatches state that Peter Cooper, the world famed philanthropist, of New York, is dead.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

DIRECT FROM LONDON.—While visiting on the Continent Mr. S. S. Walker purchased from Her Majesty's Coach Manufacturers, one of their novel Dog Carts or Jaunting Cars; this unique carriage has just arrived, and was re-ordered and set up by the Studebaker House, where it can now be seen. As this is the only English Dog Cart in this country it is well worth a visit, and while in the Repository examine over three hundred other carriages, wagons, etc., carried by the Studebakers. d112 4t
