Tozer Shot the Benders for This Town's Team and Beat Slagle Of Spokane.

Local Batteries Hammered Two Pitchers for a Total of Eighteen Hits -Teams Fielded Well.

Salt Lake's ball tossers took on a batting streak at Spokane yesterday aftersoon and pounded out 18 hits off Slagle's and Durrett's delivery, winning the game by a score of eight to two. In spite of the score, the contest was a pretty one and was almost errorless only one blunder being tallied up against each team.

It took the Salt Lakers only four innings of good willow work to hammer Single out of the box. Durrett took his place and was given a dose of the same reatment. In the seventh inning, when three singles put three men on bases, Anderson smashed out a triple, clearing the Tozer pitched for Salt Lake and kept the seven hits off him pretty well scattered. The summary follows:

This morning Bishop was heard from. He is ready to make the match and bet his money, but he stipulates that the weight shall be 128 pounds ringside, which may be beyond Turner to make. Bishop writes as follows to the sporting editor:

poinds ringside, which may be beyond Turner to make. Bishop writes as follows to the sporting editor: "Dear Friend-With reference to the challenge Rufe Turner has just issued to box eitner Britt or Herrera, I wish to state that if Britt does not care to ac-cept the match I guess it will revert to Herrera, and I will be pleased to arrange same and will make the side bet of $500 with Turner, the fight to take place be-fore the club that offers the best terms, the winner to receive 80 per cent of the gate money, straight rules to govern, weight to be 128 pounds ringside. I will want three weeks' time to prepare Her-rera and any date will suit me. If this meets with Turner's approval you can have his check cashed at once, and as you have $1,000 of my money on deposit, you can take $500 of it and cover Turner's money, and we will sign articles at once. I want to take Herera and Woods east this fall, and the sooner the fight comes of the better it will suit me. I believe you will agree with me that Turner is one of the toughest pulfilistic propositions in the business, and my consenting to the match is proof of the unbounded confi-dence I have in Herrera. We are having a nice time of it here and I enjoyed the trip up very much. Herrera started to work this morning, and before he went out on the road I put him on the scales to see how much he weighed after a two months' lay off, and he pulled the bar up at exactly 132 pounds. He looks fat and beefy, too, and can easily reduce six pounds. BIDDY BISHOP. A club will have to look a long time be-fore it could get a better card than Her-rera and Turner.

No would a bout between the Mexican and Turner would prove interesting to the fight fans in the city where the bout takes place. If it does take place. Turner has been after the Mexican for many months, but Bishop has shown no eager-ness to allow Herrera to meet the hard hitting Stockton lad. It seems now that all parties concerned are willing to make the match, but it is very doubtful if the two little fellows will ever meet as long as Herrera is under Hishop's manage-ment. M. E. Mulvey of this city has to be reckoned with, and he declares emphati-cally that he will stop Bishop's game no matter where he is. If this proposed fight is clinched, Mulvey will be on hand to do all in his power to stop it.

Alaskan Boundary Commission Listens to Oral Argument by Atty.-Gen. Finlay.

MUCH INTEREST IN PROCEEDINGS

Because it Was Asserted Some of the Canadians Would Seriously Resent An Adverse Decision.

London, Sept. 15.-The Alaskan boundary commission re-assembled at the foreign office today and the oral arguments began. Additional interest was lent to the proceedings by the statements attributed to some of the Canadians that their country would seriously resent on adverse decision. Nevertheless, only a few spectators, intrip. terested in the attorney-ger al's state-ment. Having considered the docu-ments already presented the commis-sioners felt that they were as familiar with these facts as any of the counsel. The arguments were more for the pur-pose of removing any doubts which counsel feel may exist in the minds of the members of the tribunal. The agents of the governments, however, sitting on their side of the blue covered table, behind which the commis-sioners sat and counsel occupying the desk in the center of the chamber, folowed the attorney-general's address with the closest attention.

While Atty.-Gen. Finlay was speak-ing. Chief Justice Fuller, accompanied by Ambassador Choate, entered the chamber. They were conducted to a table directly facing the commissioners. The attorney-general briefly de-scribed the historical aspect of the question and took up the treaty under which the commission was appointed. He then presented the Canadian con-tention, each point of which has al-ready been stated in the argument of Clifford Sifton, the Canadian minister of the interior, and urged the commis-sioners to strictly confine themselves, in considering the questions, to the terms of the controversy between Great Britain and Russia of 1825, and not to Britain and Russia of 1825, and not to

Britain and Russia of 1825, and not to depart therefrom. The interest of the commissioners grew as Atty.-Gen. Finlay proceeded with his analytic study of the question. Speaking of the location of the line along the coast from the head of Port-land channel as fixed by the treaty, the attenues reversal pointed out that the attorney-general pointed out that the report of the United States coast survey in 1893 showed that the Washsurvey in 1893 showed that the Wash-ington government had adopted the view that the line should follow the "general trend of the coast," which supports the Canadian contention. Senator Turner at this point inter-rupted the speaker, saying that the re-port referred to the "trend of the gen-eral coast."

port referred to the "trend of the gen-eral coast." Atty-Gen. Finlay remarked that this was a "subtle distinction," and Chief Justice Alverstone ended the discus-sion with saying that it made little difference, as it was "merely the di-rection of the surveyors."

YOUNG PEOPLE'S C. U. Will Hold Rally in Local Churches in

Near Future - Noted Speakers.

The Christian Union held its regular monthly meeting last evening in the First Methodist church. Horace H. Smith, president of the state union of Christian Endeavor, occupied the chair in the absence of the president of the union, Rev. P. A. Simpkin, and there was a good attendance. W. E. Stim-son, for the committee on the proposed son, for the committee on the proposed gospel rally, reported that a big tent could not be secured, so the fally would have to be held in the local churches. It was therefore decided to have an evangelical rally of all the evangelical younge people's societies in the city on the evenings of the first Sunday and first Monday in October, the first Sunday and first Monday in October, the first to be held in the First Methodist church at 6 p. m., and the second in the First Presbyterian church at 7:45 p. m. A suitable program will be prepared, and an interesting time is promised. It was announced that one of the most prominent divines and evangelical prison workers in the west would visit

He was quoted at 4 to 1 and Fuller rode a good race. Half a length back came the favorite. Leonidas, with Ormondes Right taking third money. Aristocracy and Leonidas jumped away in front, with High Ball in third position. Rounding into the stretch there was a general closing up, but Aristocracy dropped back, beaten. In the drive through the stretch, High Ball came through and won. cluding the wives of the commissioners and of counsel, were present when Atty.-Gen.
