

teams, $1716 per year, or $33 per week; six days; men on mains, $4810 per year, or $92.50 per week, one at six days, five at seven days; one clerk, $1040 per year, or $20 per week; total, 21 men, $18,427 per year, or $1535 per month; foremen get $3 per day and laborers $2 per day.

City Attorney's Department—One city attorney, $2500 per year; one assistant, $1500 per year; total, two men, $4000 per year, or $333.33½ per month.

Police Justice—One judge, $1500 per year; one clerk, $1200 per year; total, two men, $2700 per year, or $225 per month.

Board of Public Works—One chairman, $1500 per year; members, $1000 per year; one clerk, $900 per year; total six men, $3372.25 per year, or $281.02 per month.

Board of Health—One health commissioner, $1500 per year; one sanitary inspector, $1500 per year; one city physician, $600 per year; one clerk, $900 per year; three members, $100 per year each; total, seven men, $4500 per year, or $400 per month.

Watermaster Department—One watermaster, $2000 per year; five deputies, $4500 per year, or $900 per year each; total, six men, $6500 per year, or $541.66½ per month; feed furnished for one horse for each deputy.

We further recommend a reconsideration of the action taken by this Council to reduce the salaries of the five deputy watermasters to $1000 and they furnish horsefeed, so that they be allowed $75 per month each and horsefeed for one horse.

Fire Department—One chief, $2000 per year, five men, $5100 per year, or $90 per month each; twenty-two men, $19,800 per year, or $775 per month each; twenty men at call, $1000 per year, or $50 per year each; total, forty-eight men, $28,000 per year, or $2350 per month.

Assessor and Collector—One assessor and collector, one assistant, $1800 per year; two assistants, $2400 per year, total $4200 per year.

Recommendations—Your committee respectfully recommend that the following retrenchments be made, as suggested by heads of departments:

First—That the city assessor and collector be required to report at as early date as possible any retrenchment to be made in his department, and your committee further respectfully recommends that the city sexton's office be made a salaried one at $1200 per year, his house rent being furnished him free of charge as now. Also, commissions on sale of lots.

Second—That the duties of the engineer of construction of sewers at $5 per day, and his assistant at $2.50 per day, be performed by the employees in the city engineer's department.

Third—That the office of city sanitary inspector be made a salaried office, salary to be fixed by this Council, and that the recorder be instructed to have prepared a book of receipts, perforated in three sections, the stub to remain in the recorder's office, the second section to be left with the citizen, signed by the inspector, and the third section, signed by the citizen and returned to the recorder by the inspector, to correspond with the stub as to number, each section showing transaction as to character of and cost of load moved by sanitary inspector. That the City Council fix the cost to the citizen for removing each dead animal, each load of garbage and for cleaning each closet and cess-pool.

We further recommend that this report be referred to the city attorney, who will draft and submit to this Council an ordinance to supersede "An ordinance fixing the salaries of city officers and employees," passed April 1, 1890.

Hardy moved that the report be laid upon the table, until other reports bearing upon the same matter came in.

Bell objected. The longer action was deferred the greater danger there was that no reduction would be made. Laid on the table.

SMOKE CONSUMERS.

Simondi offered a resolution suspending the operation of the smoke consumer ordinance until it was definitely learned whether or not natural gas would be a success in this city.

Wantland opposed it, saying that life was being made a burden by the smoke that was belched out by these great chimneys. The ordinance should be enforced, but in some cases it might be suspended, where good reason was shown.

Simondi backed up his resolution by saying the smoke consumers were a failure, any how; no guarantee would be given with them.

Wantland referred to the power house of the Salt Lake City Railroad company as an object of dislike, and did not want the nuisance continued any longer.

Ewing thought the ordinance was an outrage, anyhow. The alleged smoke consumers were only an experiment.

The resolution was adopted.

THE SALE OF CITY BONDS.

The mayor and city treasurer were authorized to sell the 150 $1000 city bonds to the highest bidder.

It was ordered that the Salt Lake Power, Light and Heating company be instructed to report to the Council upon what terms it would put in 200 electric street lights, as needed by the city.

TO ASCERTAIN THE RATE OF TAX.

Wantland offered a resolution instructing the city recorder to investigate the tax rate of twenty-five of the western cities. He said there would be a howl from the minority when the taxes for 1892 were levied, and he wanted to prepare for it to cast an anchor to the windward.

Adopted.

An ordinance introduced by Ewing making a new sprinkling district was referred to the special street sprinkling committee.

HAULING GARBAGE TO BINGHAM.

A contract with the Rio Grande Western for the hauling of the garbage of the city at the rate of $40 a car for the first daily and $20 for each additional car was read. The contract provided that the company should be paid $40 per day whether anything was handled or not. The mayor was authorized to sign the contract, to exist for a period of ninety days, providing that the company did not charge for Mondays when no cars would be sent out.

TO COME UP IN THEIR ORDER.

Hardy offered a resolution providing that all petitions shall be numbered and then come up in their order. He said too many had been pigeon-holed. adopted.

SUNDAY BARBERING.

Wantland offered the following which was adopted:

Resolved, That it be the sense of this Council that the barber shops in this city shall be allowed to be open on Sundays and that the city attorney be requested to prepare an ordinance amending the present ordinance accordingly.

KING ALCOHOL CONQUERS.

The following was introduced by Folland:

Whereas, The law prohibiting the sale of liquor by saloons on the Sabbath day has been for some time past a nullity at the present being flagrantly and openly violated in all parts of the city; and,

Whereas, The ribaldry and laughter of drunken men and lewd women burst forth from these grog shops on a day that should be regarded as sacred, and assail the ears and outrage the modesty and delicate feelings of our wives, mothers, daughters and pedestrians generally, as they pass along the streets; and,

Whereas, This condition of affairs is a menace to the peace, morality and good name of our most fair and prosperous city; and,

Whereas, The integrity, manhood and independence of this body has been brought into ill repute in consequence of the total lack of the necessary legal restraint in the matter herein referred to; therefore he it

Resolved, That the city marshal be instructed to proceed at once to take steps tending to the remedying of this disgraceful and glaring evil which has already become a blot upon the present administration; and be it further

Resolved, That if the ordinance, herein mentioned, continues to be violated that the guilty parties be arrested and punished according to law.

Wantland—I move to lay the resolution on the table.

Lawson—I second the motion.

Mayor Baskin—I have no knowledge of any such violation and it seems to me that the matter is over drawn.

Folland—I have investigated the question thoroughly and know as a matter of fact that the evil exists. I know, too, that music of various kinds can be heard both in saloons and houses of prostitution on the Sabbath day and that no attempt is made to prevent it.

Wantland—Oh, well, this is a musical center. We have the name of being fond of the "divine art."

Mayor Baskin—You should have reported the matter, Mr. Folland.

Folland (promptly)—I have done so repeatedly to the police, and was always met with the statement that as soon as certain appointments had been confirmed in that department that the saloons would be closed.

Wantland—I believe that the whole thing is an "effect" resolution and I propose to "spot" all "effect" propositions that come before this Council.

Every "Liberal" member voted a hearty "aye" in favor of Wantland's motion and of course the resolution was tabled.
