

ASSASSIN CZOLGOSZ
UTTERLY COLLAPSES

President's Murderer Breaks Down on Reaching Auburn—Had to be Dragged
—Cried and Yelled.

Auburn, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Czolgosz, President McKinley's murderer, in the custody of Sheriff Caldwell, of Erie county, and twenty-one deputies, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 a. m. The prisoner is only about fifty yards from the depot. Awaiting the arrival of the train there was a crowd of about 200 people. Either for fear of the crowd, which was not very demonstrative, or from sight of the prison, Czolgosz's legs gave out and two deputy sheriffs were compelled to practically carry the man into the prison. Inside the gates his condition became worse and he was dragged up the stairs and into the main hall. He was placed in a sitting posture on the bench while the handcuffs were removed, but he fell over and moaned and groaned, evincing the most abject terror. As soon as the handcuffs were unclipped the man was dragged into the principal keeper's office. As in the case of all prisoners the officers immediately proceeded to strip him and put on a new suit of clothes. During this operation Czolgosz cried and yelled, making the prison corridors echo with evidence of his terror. The prison physician,

Dr. John Gherin, examined the man and ordered his removal to the cell in the custody of Sheriff Caldwell, of Erie county, and twenty-one deputies, arrived in Auburn at 3:15 a. m. Jabour should say so while in Salt Lake and the reporter smiled. "I mean it," he said, "my best day here so far has been $3,400. Previous to this Tacoma was the best place, but the heaviest day there only brought in $3,000. Louisville, Ky., came next with $2,400; Brooklyn, N. Y., $2,200; Portland, Ore., $1,700, and Chicago, $1,500, but I never like to talk about Chicago, because I lost $3,000 there. Yes, sir, the Elks are all right and I am going to stay with them and next year put on a show which will be the biggest on the road. From here I go to Dallas, Texas, to attend the carnival there. Salt Lake City is one of the best show towns I have struck, and when it comes to the ladies—here words failed him. Continuing Mr. Jabour stated that he had 120 people in his show and that the daily expenses were nearly $300, out of which sum he paid the Austin sisters $500 a week. He said he thought America was the finest country on the globe and he proposed to stay here and end his days. "I came from Syria at the time of the World's Fair in 1893 at Chicago, where I had a car and a horse, traveling all over the world and I know what I am talking about when I say that the Americans beat the world in intelligence and everything else."

EDWARD RECEIVES MR. CHATEAU
His Majesty Thanked for His Deep
Sympathy with Mrs. McKinley.

London, Sept. 27.—King Edward received the United States ambassador, Mr. Choate in audience at Marlborough house today, and personally renewed to him his expressions of deep sympathy and condolence with Mrs. McKinley and the American people, already expressed in his telegrams at the time of President McKinley's assassination. Mr. Choate left with the king a letter as follows:

"I desire to express in person my sincere appreciation of your majesty's constant sympathy with Mrs. McKinley and the American people in their distress and bereavement and of profound thanks of my countrymen for this unflinching interest."

To audience was strictly private. No one else was present in the India room, where it was held.

A representative of the Associated Press learns that the king was most cordial in his remarks, expressing warm regard for America and Americans. His majesty received the news of the attack on President McKinley at the second station from Kiel, and was deeply affected, members of the king's entourage say, and personally wrote a message to Mrs. McKinley.

LIPTON IS VERY HOPEFUL.
He Cables Friends that Shamrock II Has a
Good Chance of Winning.

London, Sept. 27.—Sir Thomas Lipton has cabled to his friends here "am very hopeful," but the feeling is not reflected by public opinion, which foresees defeat for Shamrock II in the races with Columbia for the America's cup. The afternoon newspapers derive scant comfort from the accounts of yesterday's contest. The St. James Gazette points out that in spite of all suggestions that the conditions prevent accurate judgment of the comparative merits of the two yachts, "the plain fact stands out that under a condition of weather which was the same to both the American boat got a good bit nearer the winning line than our own."

The Pall Mall Gazette is practically alone in thinking that the American yachts are finally satisfied. They already are convinced that the Columbia is the better boat. The paper's comment is probably based on the conclusion of its own correspondent's long account of the races which commenced. "The Columbia did much to shatter the Lipton hope, yesterday," and concludes: "The day's sailing did nothing to suggest that the Shamrock will win in a good breeze. I think she will." In an editorial today the Times says it is very gratifying to know that the course during the first of the series of races for the America's cup was admirably kept by the patrol boats and that there is no suggestion that the crowd of yachts and steamers which went out to view the race interfered with the way with the movements of either boat.

BOATS AT THEIR MOORINGS.
New York, Sept. 27.—The defender Columbia and the challenger Shamrock II are lying quietly at their moorings in the bay at Sandy Hook this morning. The former New Stars and Stripes, but the Shamrock had no flag at either her masthead or taff rail. There was no intention on the part of the American boat to send her out for a spin today. Capt. Barr had his crew at work overhauling some of the light sails. He said he thought the Columbia was going as fast as she ever did, and that when a breeze comes she will give a good account of herself.

From an authentic source it was learned today that there is a very strong protest on the part of Capt. Sycamore and those in charge of Shamrock at what they term crowding of Shamrock at the start yesterday by Capt. Barr. "If he is going to continue those tactics there will be serious trouble," said the person quoted. "What he did yesterday was not to be tolerated for an instant in a race in British waters. He must not expect us to stand it, and we won't. Our relations with the New York Yacht club and with the principals in the event have been so extremely pleasant that it is to be hoped one man's action shall not be permitted to mar them."

Hays Will Not Talk.
San Francisco, Sept. 27.—President Hays, of the Southern Pacific company through his secretary, Mr. Ingraham, refused to discuss the possibility of his assuming the management of the Boston & Maine road. Mr. Ingraham intimated, however, that President Hays would probably discuss a statement of his plans in the near future.AUDITOR HILLS
UNDER FIRE.

Strongly Cross-Examined by Judge Powers in Van Kuran Case.

HELD HIS TEMPER WELL.
He Admits Having Had Detectives
Shadow Defendant Before His Arrest—Alleged Promise of Help.

The entire forenoon today in the Van Kuran trial was consumed in the examination of ex-Auditor Hills, of the Oregon Short Line. When Judge Powers got at the witness in cross-examination he assumed his usual aggressive tactics. Mr. Hills' resentment at Judge Powers' course was shown in the flush of his cheeks although he never at any time during his rigorous and trying examination exhibited any signs of ill-temper. In fact he controlled his feelings in a most praiseworthy manner. Mr. Hills was still on the stand when the noon recess was taken.

HILLS' TESTIMONY.
Auditor F. W. Hills took the stand when the trial was resumed this morning. The bank balance book was placed in evidence and Mr. Hills was asked by Judge Powers to turn to pages 71 to 75, and asked if he saw recorded there checks Nos. 6570, 6571, 6572, 6573, 6574, 6575, 6576,
