

DESERET EVENING NEWS.
October 29, 1898.
LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
CORRESPONDENTS writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must in every instance accompany their communications, and are not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.
THEATRICAL.—This evening the "Sea of Cortez," with its great spectacular and sensational effects, will be reproduced. The exciting scenes on board the Urania, in the first act; the "sea of ice," with its grand and thrilling tableaux, in the second act; and the changing scenes as the Mexican adventurer endeavors to complete the full plan of his purpose, make the drama a most effective one. Although the weather seems as if it would be unfavorable, we shall look for a good house.
WEATHER.—The following has been received by the Deseret Telegraph line:
Brigham City, 9 a.m.—It has snowed about two-thirds of the way down the mountains. It rained here last night; it is stormy now.
Nephi.—It is very cloudy and cold, and has been raining most of the night; looks like forming again.
Payson.—Very cloudy; it has been raining all the morning.
St. George, 10 a.m.—Clear and pleasant, thermometer 80.
Panguitch.—Cloudy and cold; there is the appearance of a storm.
Heber.—Cloudy; there was a slight fall of snow this morning.
Moroni.—Stormy; it has been raining nearly all night; it is cold and muddy.
Provo.—Cloudy and stormy; snowing on the mountains.
COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT.—The copyright to play Augustin Daly's sensation drama of "Under the Gaslight" on the Pacific coast is vested in Charles Wheatleigh. The management of Salt Lake Theatre, wishing to produce the play, telegraphed to the author for permission, and were referred by him to Mr. Wheatleigh. This gentleman was accordingly applied to, but before any arrangement could be made the play was brought out without any of his permission. A lawsuit has been advised by law to institute suit for infringement of copyright, but a suit would involve so many difficulties and expense, that the Salt Lake management will probably be allowed to escape from their piracy "scot free."
Mr. Editor.—The above, extracted from the San Francisco Dramatic Review of Oct. 17, is false in almost every particular. The copyright to play Augustin Daly's sensation play of "Under the Gaslight" on the Pacific coast may be vested in Mr. Charles Wheatleigh, but Salt Lake City is not on the Pacific coast, neither is Mr. Charles Wheatleigh any right to produce Mr. Augustin Daly's plays in this city, nor in the Territory of Utah.
The management of the Salt Lake Theatre telegraphed the author for permission to produce "Under the Gaslight"; neither did they apply to Mr. Wheatleigh for that privilege; nor was the play brought out without any of his permission. The facts are—J. Guido Metelna, Esq., husband of Madame Metelna Scheller, has the exclusive right for the production of "Under the Gaslight" in the right that "Under the Gaslight" was produced at the Salt Lake Theatre, during the engagement of Madame Scheller and by virtue of this right we shall continue to play it, just as often as we deem it profitable so to do, without asking permission of Mr. Charles Wheatleigh, or anybody else on the Pacific coast.
If any one feels aggrieved because he could not come here and obtain exorbitant terms for the production of Mr. Augustin Daly's pieces, and imagines that any rights of his have been infringed upon, he knows his remedy, let him go ahead, but he ought first to be sure that he is right, and has a case that will stand the law's ordeal.
As regards Mr. Wheatleigh being advised by Mr. Daly to institute a suit against us for infringement of copyright, we don't believe a word of it; Mr. Daly has never said "pirate" or "right fees" from Mr. Metelna, and we deem him too much of a gentleman to indulge in any such scabious dealing.
The Salt Lake management will do without copyrighted plays; if they cannot procure them without being called "pirates," they will leave that to their more "honorable" brethren on the Pacific Coast; such practices do not obtain in Salt Lake.
Respectfully,
CLAWSON & CAINE,
Lessees and Managers,
Salt Lake Theatre.
Oct. 29, 1898.
THE STORM.—The fine weather of the last few weeks was regularly broken into last night, by a heavy rain fall which saturated the valley, on the mountains the storm appeared of a snowy complexion. Between nine and ten o'clock this morning it seemed as if winter had fairly set in, since then we have had snow, rain and hail. Stoves in doors and rubbers and overcoats of doors, have been in demand.
It is probable that tomorrow the line of the U. P. R. R. may be considerably impeded by this rain and snow fall.
POLICE.—Samuel Tyne, not satisfied with his experience of a few days ago, indulged in "forty rod" last night, till the police had to bestow their attentions on him. This morning he was called upon to pay $30 for city purposes.
DEED.—In this city, last night, 25th inst., Brigham Willard, son of Heber P. and Phoebe T. Kimball, of inflammation of the bowels and head, aged 1 year, 5 months and 3 days.
Funeral will take place to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock, from residence, in 17th Ward.
PROFESSOR BOSCO.—This gentleman gave another entertainment last night, and was very liberally patronized. His tricks were loudly applauded, and his expose of a couple bearing the designation of "Parlor Magic" was well received. But the great feature of the evening was the comic Shadow Pantomime, which towards the close kept the audience roaring with laughter.
BOARD OF REGENTS.—The members of the Board of Regents are requested to meet to-morrow evening at President Young's office at 7 o'clock.
COMMITTED.—Yesterday afternoon John W. Kimball, a "transient traveller," whose face was not very familiar to the "Doctor," was charged with forging two orders, one on Auerbach Bro's, and the other on Siegel Bro's, purporting to be drawn by Wm. H. Kimball. He said he had got the orders from a man, who, he declared, was indebted to him, but his memory being somewhat treacherous, he could not remember exactly the individual's name. His Honor, Justice Clinton, on hearing the evidence, concluded the case was a paper one for the Probate Court, and bound him over in $500 to appear at the next regular term. Security not being forthcoming he was locked up.
SECOND GROWTH.—To-day a small, well-formed apple was laid on our table, being the second growth this year on the tree which bore it. When the grasshoppers stripped the foliage off the greater part of the trees so entirely in this city, and they commenced to leave out again, in many instances fruit buds developed into blossoms, and in a number of cases the fruit formed and gained the color of ripeness. The tree from which this second growth was taken is in the 19th Ward, and has at least a bushel of them upon it. They are not one-fourth the size of the apple when it is fully grown, and have the appearance of Siberian crabs.
TAXE WORK.—We were yesterday shown a tape worm some fifty feet long, of which Mrs. Lewis, of the 20th Ward, had been relieved by Dr. Crookwell. The lady had been three times previously under the care of the best medical skill, but failed to obtain relief. The disgusting-looking thing is a most unpleasant and painful guest to harbor in the human system, and to be relieved from it is a blessing which those who enjoy it can best appreciate.
