Showing Against a Man Arrested and Bound Over in Arizona.

Safford Arizonian: W. H. Saulebury, an account of whose arrest was given in last week's paper, had a preliminary examination before duage T. T. Hunter last Monday. He was represented in court by Morrison & Bidek, and W. K. Dial appeared for the Territory. After hearing the evidence offered and listening to arguments of coursel on both sides, Judge Hunter consjuded that the showing was sufficient to warrant him in holding Saulsbury to await the action of the next graph jury, and to in-sure his attendance when wanted, put the amount of the bond at $300. This was promptly furnished, and the mat-ter will be investigated by the grand jury at the coming torm of the dis-

This is a queer ches. It has been worked up so far entirely by Will Blair, brother of the young lady whom Saulsbury matried were some months ago. Blair produced correspondence in solution of the produced correspondence in court showing that Sadabury had a wife living in Utah. The defendant, himself, denies any knowledge of the Utah woman, and declares her to be a myth. He also stolid asserts that he never was married to any person ex-centing Miss Dub. On the ather cepting Miss Birly. On the other hand, the prosecution promises that when the proper time comes he will be confronted with "the other woman."

rich was accompanied by her ten-year-old son. The lady states that there has been a great influex of women at Dawson, until their number now exceeds that of the men. At the outbreak of Cape Nome, Dawson was almost deobulated, but the gold seekers soor came back. While away Mrs. Woolrich met many Sait Lakers, among them John Bechtol, Capt. Donovan and Mike

Mrs. Woolrich says that the trip to Dawson is not so heavily fraught with danger and hardship as it has been rep-resented to be, her return trip being as pleasant as a summer outing. She ember, when she will be joined by her hushand. They will then make a tour through the coast, and return to Daw-son City in the spring.

BATTERY BAND TO PLAY. Will Give Cooncerts at Libeety Park Every Afternoon,

It is quite probable that the Utah battery band, which played for the boys at Calumpit, and Malate and Caloocan, will be stationed in Liberty park to play for people in more peaceful pursuits. This movement has been made for the purpose of keeping the boys together as a band organization. A sub-scription list is being prepared for the purpose of compensating the boys, and Governor Wells is going to assist in the matter. It is also expected that the City Council will aid the good work. It is proposed to have a con-cert every afternoon from 4 to 7 with

BISHOP LEWIS DEAD.

Demise Occurred at His Home in Provo - Long Been Expected.

[SPECIAL TO THE "NEWS."] Provo, July 20.-William John Lewis, Bishop of the Third ward of this city, died bere late yesterday afternoon after a protracted illness from stomach troubles, and from which death had long been expected. He was a highly respected citizen and had resided here since 1858 and had held numerous responsible positions both civil and ecclesinstical.

The deceased was born at Swanser South Wales, September 10, 1831; joined the Church in 1848; married Jane Davies in 1856 and came to Utah that year, both he and his young wife pushing handcarts across the plains in Cap-tain Edward Binker's company. The tam Edward Diaker's compact. In first two years after their arrival in Utah they resided in Ogden and from there removed to Provo which was their home for the remainder of their days. The Bishop leaves a wife, three sons, seven daughters, seventeen grand children and three brothers. His funeral will be held from the Provo Tabernacle tomorrow. AT WALKERS.

trial, wired Goy. Wells from Fort Duchesne yesterday afternoon, offering to recruit a company of colored soldiers to go to China and whip the pigtalls. The message read as follows:

"Tender my services to war depart-ment to recruit company colored volunteers for foreign service, to avenge death of gallant Liscum, Answer."

The war department as Washington is the only authority that can deal with these matters. Goy, Wells, therefore, today transmitted McPherson's tender to the secretary of war.

Chinaman.

Once more a gang of colored ruffians from Fort Douglas have created trouble in the city by unlawful acts. Five of them came down last night and the victim of their bratality was a poor inoffensive Chinaman. His name is Fong Lee of No. 5 Flum Alley, and he is a cook. He was on his way home last night when his cowardly assallants came upon him, knocked him down and beat him nearly to death. Before an officer could be secured the vandals ran away.

FIRE ON B. STREET.

Residence Almost Destroyed by the Fire Fiend.

About 5 o'clock yesterday afternon the residence of J. T. Hudson, No. 335 B street, was about destroyed by the fire fiend.

The flames were confined mostly to the roof but the loss was about $650 to the house and contents. It is another case of a defective flue, The fire was first discovered by little George Sloan who at once informed the inmates of the house. An alarm was sent in to No. 4 and the fire laddies quickly responded. The flames had a good start and it was with difficulty that they were extinguished. TO THE PUBLIC.
