CITY, Jan. 23, 1875. Dr. C. W. Higgins:

Dear Sir-Permit me to add my testimonial to the many others that have been published, all testi fying to your skill. I have suffered five years with a bad cough, and my friends began to think I had the consumption. In vain I tried every remedy, until father prevailed on me to try your Cough Drops and other remedies, and I am now happy tosay I am well, having taken your medicines only four weeks. Your friend, GEORGE WILDING.
