UTAH'S

CENTENNIAL ART UNION.

THE annual Art Union of the Pioneer Art Gallery will take place on Tuesday, December 21st, at 2 o'clock p. m.

The collection comprises 200 pictures of the highest order of merit, including 10 original, by G. M. Ottinger, and are of different values, from $5.00 upwards, the retail value of the whole lot being $1,300.00, and will be sold to shareholders for $1,000.00, thus giving cash person the value of his money, and two-thirds of the number a picture of greater value than $5.00. As an extra inducement, these hard times, I will agree to give any person whose picture at $5.00 does not suit them, a dozen fine photographs of themselves or friends, in our best style, instead.

Sunday school Superintendents requiring a fine line of pictures as presents for Christmas, can select from an immense collection at the Lowest Prices.

The photographs we are now taking excite the admiration of art lovers—and now is a good time to give a fine surprise portrait of yourself to those you love best as a Christmas Box.

The largest collection of Frames and Mouldings in Utah kept in stock and marked down to living rates.

Good, durable Albums from $1.00 to $20.00, warranted of best quality.

Opera Glasses, Reading Glasses, Water Colors in boxes, Crayons, Fancy Silk Goods, elegant Chromos, and lots of other notions all at very low figures.

It will pay you to visit the Art Gallery.

C. R. SAVAGE, Proprietor.

Railway Freight Rates Reduced.

NEW YORK, 21.—This afternoon a dispatch was received by Vice President Blanchard, of the Erie Railroad, announcing that the Grand Trunk Railroad declined to entertain the proposition for an increase of their freight rates from Boston to Chicago, in order to correspond with the present rates from this city; in consequence of this refusal the Erie Railroad Company have resolved to put their rates for freight to Chicago at the following figures — first class, 30c per 100 pounds; second class, 25c, third class 20c, fourth class 20c, and special classes, including sugars, coffee, &c., 15c. These rates are much lower than those which have been in operation from Boston. Mr. Blanchard said he had not heard, to-day, from the managers of the New York Central and Pennsylvania roads, but their action would be joint, and all the New York schedules would be reduced together.

The Providence Tool Company.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., 21.—The committee to examine the affairs of the Providence Tool Company were engaged in that work to-day, and adjourned until to-morrow, when a report is expected. It is understood that the company showed about $1,400,000 assets in excess of liabilities. The president of the company, to-day, received a communication from nearly all the 1,700 employees, expressing sympathy and good will for the company, and voluntarily proposing to relinquish all claim to wages for Dec., amounting in the aggregate to about $90,000.

Will Call an Ex Parte Council.

NEW YORK, 22.—Mrs. Emma C. Moulton has decided to call an ex parte council in her case, unless Plymouth Church consents to the holding of a mutual council, based on the questions proposed by her in her last letter, as well as those set forth by the church. The council will comprise such persons as she is informed are the best members of the Congregational church in the U.S.

Refused to Issue Commissions.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 21.—Governor Chamberlain has refused to issue the commission of Whipper and ex-Governor Moses, the obnoxious judges elect; he says that as the terms of the present incumbents of the office to which the above named persons claim to have been elected will not expire until after another general election of the members of the general assembly, the present general assembly has not the right to elect their successors.

FOREIGN.

ITALY.

Italian Centennial Commissioner.

ROME, 21.—Signor Blanc, Italian minister to Washington, has been nominated Centennial Commissioner.

FRANCE.

More Senators Elected.

PARIS, 21.—The following were elected members of the French Senate to-day—Admiral De Montaignac, the minister of marine, and M. Leon Maleville, member for Tarn-et-Garonne, of the Left Centre. This completes the list of senators so far as the National Assembly is concerned, 75 members having been elected by that body; other members, 225 in number, are to be elected indirectly by the people of the several departments.

The "Louisiana" Disaster.

BORDEAUX, 21. — The steamer Louisiana sank in ten minutes after she was struck; the steamer Gironde rescued 100 of her passengers and crew. All the persons drowned were passengers except the captain.

SPAIN.

Jovellar's Successor.

MADRID, 21.—The statement that General Caballos will go to Cuba, proves to be untrue; he will succeed General Jovellar as minister of war.

Dead.

General Caballos de Rodas, formerly Captain General of Cuba, is dead.

Correspondence.

Indifference to Religion — Disestablishment — Casualties.

SUNDERLAND, England,
Nov. 28, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

Eleven days ago I came into this northern region for the purpose of visiting some relations of my wife. I have also availed myself of the opportunity to look up some of the Saints, and become acquainted with their condition and prospects. I met with the Saints in Newcastle last Sunday and had the privilege of addressing them twice. I expect to meet with the Saints here this evening. I find very small congregations, from the fact that a great many of our people have emigrated to Utah. Bro. Galloway, the President of this Conference, is doing a good work with the few who are left, travelling among the branches and stirring up the Saints to their duties. A great deal of out door preaching was done here during the recent summer months by Bro. Galloway and other elders, so that I have no doubt but the people have been pretty thoroughly warned. Very little interest, however, seems to be taken in the matter by outsiders. "Mormonism" has got to be as much of an old story with this generation as it was in Noah's day. The Lord has been so patient and long-suffering with the people, that they have about come to the conclusion that he don't mean what he says; and when he shall come out of his hiding place and begin to chastise them for rejecting his gospel no doubt many of them will be very greatly astonished. The fact is the people are lulled to sleep and many of them will awake only when it is too late.

Here, as in America, religion, so called, is at a discount. Very few people trouble themselves with thoughts of a future state of existence. It is true they have costly churches and pay their ministers enormous salaries to preach to them once or twice a week, but it is all for show and fashion. To accumulate riches and enjoy the good things of this life is the highest ambition of a great majority of the people. Whatever pays the best, whether it be religion or politics, is the thing they are after. "Mormonism" would be as attractive to them as any other system, if they could see money in it. Lacking, however, in this, they see no beauty in it.

The most interesting subject in the religious world here is the prospect of the disestablishment of the Church of England. And even this subject derives its interest more from its political aspect than from its religious importance. All religious denominations here, excepting, of course, the dominant church, are crying aloud for a separation of church and state; and I have no doubt but that the day is near at hand when that object will be accomplished. Catholics and Baptists, Wesleyans, and in fact all dissenters who are not ashamed of their name, and do not blush for the faith of their fathers, are arraying themselves openly with the Liberationists, and their success is in my opinion assured. We can see the hand of the Lord in this as in every other great political movement. It is simply a breaking of the priestly shackles that bind the souls of men, in order to secure a free introduction of the gospel among the nations.

In the mean time, the Saints in this land are bound down by the iron hand of poverty, longing to gather to Zion, but unable, for want of a few shillings, to do so. May we not hope that the inauguration of the United Order in the land of Zion will eventually secure, among a thousand other grand results, that of the complete ingathering of the Saints from among all the nations of the earth?

The last six or eight weeks has been a period of disasters in British waters almost, if not altogether, unparalleled in the history of the nation. Shipwrecks are almost a daily occurrence, and are nearly always accompanied by terrible loss of life. With all the improvements of modern times in ship building and in the science of navigation, it seems that man's dominion must still stop on the shores of old ocean. Her merciless waves are still unconquered and untamed and seem to bid defiance to the skill of man ever to subdue them. I see it stated in a leading paper that the total number of wrecks, casualties and collisions on and near the coasts of the United Kingdom, during the year ending June 1874 was 1,803; and the writer believed that the casualities of this year would exceed those of last year by several hundred. This picture is a fearful one to contemplate, and when we add to this the number of lives lost and the value of property destroyed by the overflowing of rivers, by the upheaving of the ocean beyond its bounds in the shape of tidal waves, &c., it is simply appalling. All this, when taken in connection with all the other judgments that the Lord is pouring out upon this and other nations for their rejection of his gospel, points plainly to the fact that the end is near at hand.

Day after to-morrow I go to London, my appointed field of labor for the winter.

I remain yours in the gospel,
ISAIAH M. COOMBS.

Fatal Accident.

IANTI, Min., Dec. 10, 1875.

Editor Deseret News:

A very bad accident occurred here a week ago last Monday. Two young men were in the wood splitting cord wood, two Swedish boys, very good friends, well acquainted, from the Old World, named Olof Gustave and Herman Erikson. The eldest of the former slipped and he fell to the ground and Herman Erikson accidentally cut his axe in his head over Gustav's left eye and he died last Tuesday, about two o'clock. Poor Herman is very sorry for his friend. This happened in Rush Lake, Chicago County.

Please inform my many friends that I am well, and that many people will hear the gospel. I remain respectfully your brother in the gospel. B. P. WULFFENSBJN.

TRUSTEES' SALE.

WHEREAS, Parley P. Pratt, by his certain deed of trust, dated October twenty-sixth, 1874, conveyed to Lewis S. Hills and James P. Freeze, the following described real estate, situated in Salt Lake City and County, Territory of Utah, and particularly described as follows, to wit: Part of Lot five (5) in Block fifty-one (51), Plot B, Salt Lake City Survey, beginning at the south-west corner of said lot and running thence north six (6) rods, thence east ten (10) rods, thence south six (6) rods, thence west ten (10) rods to the place of beginning.

In trust, however, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note, fully set out in said deed of trust, bearing date of Oct. 26, 1874, for the sum of $200, with interest at the rate of one and one half per cent. per month; and whereas said principal sum and the accrued interest thereon is wholly due and unpaid.

And whereas it is provided in said deed of trust that should default be made in the payment of the said note or the interest thereon, according to the term thereof, then the said trustees might, upon the request of the holder of said note, proceed to sell said land for the payment of said note and interest and the expenses accruing by making such sale; and,

Whereas, Nicholas Groesbeck, the holder and owner of said note, has requested the undersigned trustees to proceed to make sale upon said deed of trust according to the provision thereof.

Now therefore we the undersigned, as trustees as aforesaid, at the request of the said owner and holder of the said note, and pursuant to the terms and conditions of said trust deed, do hereby give notice that we will sell, on Monday, the 3rd day of January, A.D. 1876, at 11 o'clock a.m. of that day, at the south door of the County Court House, Salt Lake City, in said Territory, the said land or premises above described at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy the principal and interest of said promissory note and the cost and expenses of executing this trust and making this sale.

LEWIS S. HILLS,
JAMES P. FREEZE,
Trustees.

Dated December 13, 1875.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, Parley P. Pratt, by his certain deed of trust, dated July 14th, 1874, conveyed to Lewis S. Hills and Horace S. Eldredge, the following described real estate, situate in the City and County of Salt Lake, Territory of Utah; viz:—

Part of lot five, (5) in block fifty-one, (51) plot "B" Salt Lake City Survey; commencing at the south-west corner of said lot, and running thence north six (6) rods, thence east ten (10) rods, thence south six (6), thence west ten (10) rods to the place of beginning; also part of lot one (1), in block sixty-two (62), plot "B" of the Salt Lake City survey; commencing at the south-west corner of said lot, and running thence north ten (10) rods, thence east two and a half (2½) rods, thence south ten (10) rods, thence west two and a half (2½) rods, to the place of beginning.

In trust, however, to secure the payment of a promissory note fully set out in said deed of trust, bearing date July 14th, 1874, for the sum of $1,000, with interest thereon from date until paid, at one and a half (1½) per cent.; and whereas, the said principal sum and interest on the said note are wholly due and unpaid.

And whereas, it is provided in said deed of trust, that should default be made in the payment of the said note or the interest thereon, according to the terms thereof, then the said trustees might, upon the request of the holder of said note, proceed to execute the said trust; and whereas Nicholas Groesbeck, the owner and holder of the said note, has requested the undersigned to make sale upon said deed of trust, according to the provisions thereof.

Now, therefore, we the undersigned as Trustees as aforesaid, at the request of the said owner and holder of the said note, and pursuant to the terms and conditions of said deed of trust, do hereby give notice that we will sell, on Monday, the 3d day of January, 1876, at 11 o'clock a.m., of that day, at the south door of the County Court House in Salt Lake City, in said Territory, the aforesaid property, at public vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy the principal and interest on said note, and the costs and expenses of this trust and sale.
