TALK OF THE TOWN.

Fine and sunny to-day.

Go to meeting to-morrow.

The weather is rather fickle.

Everybody is going to see "Pinafore" to-night.

To-night is the last of the Melville operatic season.

Another big house to witness "Boccaccio" last evening.

Mr. John S. Lindsay will present "A Celebrated Case" at the Salt Lake Theatre on the 30th inst.

Auer and Murphy, saloon keepers, are being tried before Justice Pyper this afternoon for selling liquor after hours.

Dr. Ellis R. Shipp lectures on "Glimpses of the Science of Life," on Monday evening at 7.30, in the 15th Ward meeting house. Public invited.

A man named Storey, died at St. Mark's Hospital yesterday afternoon. He had just had three tumors, weighing 40 lbs., removed from the abdomen.

The thief Tait, mentioned last evening as having stolen some blankets at the City Hall and sold them at Maltese's second-hand store, has been sentenced to 50 days.

Mrs. Lucy Stringfellow, the aged mother of the Stringfellow Brothers, Samuel and George, an estimable lady, died this morning at the residence of the Bishop in Draperville.

Judge R. K. Williams, and Wm. Driver, Esq., of Ogden, are in the city. Mr. Williams' partner, F. S. Richards, Esq., is not expected back from the West, before the last of the month.

Hon. George Q. Cannon, Utah's Delegate to Congress, is expected home this evening. Judge W. N. Dusenberry, of Provo, is returning in his company. Apostle Erastus Snow has joined them, and will also arrive this evening.

Frazier, the man accused of bigamy, has been taken to the Penitentiary. He could not find the $1,500 bonds required of him by the U. S. Commissioner, and will, therefore, await the action of the Grand Jury in custody of the U. S. Marshal.

On Monday evening, March 21, a musical and dramatic entertainment will be given in the 12th Ward Assembly Rooms, for the benefit of the building. The first two parts are a choice variety of songs, duets, solos, choruses, etc., and the third, a laughable farce entitled "As Like as Two Peas."

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Sunday Services.—The Sabbath services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints will be as follows: Sunday schools at 10 a.m.; general meeting in the Assembly Hall at 2 p. m.; Ward meetings in the evening as usual. Home missionaries will visit the country wards during the day.

Going to Nevada.—The Melville Opera Troupe, instead of continuing on east after the close of their Salt Lake engagement, will return to Eureka, Nevada, and open the new opera house lately erected at that place. They came to our city on a special trip, and have been duly appreciated during their stay. The fine musical and dramatic feast they have furnished our Theatre goers, will not soon be forgotten.

"Leader" Locals.—From the Leader of Friday:

The time is fast approaching when our most respected citizen, Dr. Ormsby, expects to take his departure form our midst, for Europe. The Doctor goes on a double errand, to labor in the missionary field and to further perfect himself in the science of surgery.

A young man of Logan named James Parry, aged 16, while wrestling with another boy on Sunday evening last, had the misfortune to break his leg about two inches above the knee. It was rather a bad break. Dr. Ormsby set the limb, and the patient is now doing first-rate.

We regret to learn of the death of our highly respected citizen, Brother C. C. Hurst, who departed this life on Tuesday morning, at 2 o'clock. He had been suffering for several years from consumption. On Monday evening, when his brother called to see him, he seemed to be in about the same condition as usual, and had been in his store during the day. Later in the evening his brother was sent for in great haste. He arrived in time to see his brother alive and shortly after pass away.

"Boccaccio."—The least meritorious performance yet given by the Melville troupe, was presented last evening in the Italian opera of "Boccaccio." This, however, we are inclined to believe was not so much the fault of the actors as of the thing acted. It is an opera teeming with beautiful music, but is rather slender in build, considered dramatically. Much of the humor is puerile, and the plot is not sufficiently transparent. This was particularly noticeable in the last act, during and subsequent to the "Comedia del Arte;" either the players failed to bring out the point or there was not much of a point to bring out, for the audience left the house asking each other, "Well, how did it come out?" etc., and similar conundrums of an unanswerable character. But with all their disadvantages, some of the actors acquitted themselves with much credit, and the singing, which is the main thing in an opera, sufferred nothing. Miss Melville played with her usual grace, and modest freedom, and her voice never trolled to better advantage. The same can be said of Miss Plaistead. The other ladies had brief characters, and but little opportunity to display dramatic ability. Of the gentlemen, Mr. Freemen had the leading part; a sort of a lisping "Silly Billy," with all due respect to "Prince Pierto." The gentleman appeared to less advantage than in anything we have seen him attempt. Such parts are clearly not in his line. Still, the character could have been done much worse. Mr. Casselli played the role of the cooper becomingly. The cooper chorus, by the way, was a very good thing, and was deservedly encored. Mr. Henderson did his best as the superstitious greengrocer, and excited considerable amusement. Mr. Knight as the barber, and the leading cavalier also acted about as well as their parts could allow. As said, the singing was excellent; solos, duets and choruses being rendered in true artistic style, but some of the characters, it seems to us, could have been better personated by a more judicious selection from the members of the company. The construction of the piece could have been much better, had the writer of the libretto possessed the ability to make it so. For this, however, the Melville troupe can no more be justly censured than the man in the moon.

To-night the great "Pinafore" will take the boards, and of course will be witnessed by the town en masse.

A Good Concert.—The performance given in the Seventh Ward meeting-house last evening, for the benefit of the Sunday school, was a success in every particular. The house was well filled, the performers acquitted themselves admirably, and all passed off in a manner reflecting much credit upon the conductor, Mr. Wm. Foster. To-night the entertainment will be repeated with a complete change of programme, and the proceeds will be used toward defraying the indebtedness which the Ward has incurred. Those who attend will get the worth of their money.

The Matinee.—The operatic matinee this afternoon was witnessed by an overwhelming audience. Every seat was taken down stairs, and a hundred extra chairs as well, while many stood up at the rear. The circles likewise contained their quota of lookers-on. "Nisida" is something after the style of the "Royal Middy," less splendid but equally vivacious. The action of the opera takes place in Cuba. In the second act a hurricane occurs and a house is demolished by a thunderbolt. The performance is still in progress as we go to press.

Electrotype. — We have been shown a superior specimen of electrotyping, done by a Mr. Jas. S. Maclaren of this office. The subject is the Salt Lake Foundry and Machine Shops, on the line of the U. S. R.R., some distance south of the depot. The work excels anything of the kind yet attempted in Utah, and would be considered first class anywhere. The wood cut was done by Mr. Anderson.

Revival of "Pique."—The Home Dramatic Club have decided to again present the fine American play of "Pique," in which they achieved such success last Christmas, on the evening of Monday, the 28th inst. For the anniversary of the Club's organization, April 2nd, a big bill is being prepared. More anon.

"A Celebrated Case."—This fine drama will be put upon the boards of the Salt Lake Theatre on Wednesday evening, the 30th inst., with the favorite actor, Mr. John S. Lindsay, in the leading role. Mrs. Ardelle Cummings and her sister, Miss Edith Clawson, will play the leading lady characters. Further particulars hereafter.

The People's World-Wide Verdict.

Burnett's Cocoaine has been sold in every civilized country, and the public have rendered the verdict that it is the cheapest and best hair dressing in the world.

Burnett's Flavoring Extracts are invariably acknowledged the purest and the best. d tues, thurs. sat. s&w

Various Causes,

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappointed, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them inclines it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and a new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brashy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Harmless and sure in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil or color white cambric; yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. 3dsw

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

It seems strange that anyone will suffer from the many derangements brought on by an impure condition of the blood, when SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP will restore perfect health to the physical organization. It is indeed a strengthening syrup, pleasant to take, and has proven itself to be the best blood purifier ever discovered, effectually curing Scrofula, Weakness of the Kidneys, all Nervous disorders and Debility. It corrects indigestion. It makes the old feel young, and the young feel gay; and will invariably drive out of the system the many ills that human flesh is heir to. A single bottle will prove to you its merits as a health renewer, for it acts like a charm, especially when the complaint is of an exhaustive nature, having a tendency to lessen the natural vigor of the brain and nervous system. A TOUCHING DEATH-BED SCENE.

"Oh, if I had only received it before, I am confident it would have cured me." These impressive words were spoken by a gentleman in the last stages of Consumption, who, on his death-bed, had received a bottle HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, and had taken only a part of it, when he found he could breathe with almost perfect ease; his cough had left him, but not having commenced the article in time, his constitution was broken, and he had not sufficient strength left to overcome the disease. Therefore, the public will see the necessity of keeping this article constantly in the house, ready for immediate use, as it is a certain cure for all Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to consumption.
