If there was any danger of us running short of water I would have filled up the tanks here. However, we eventually decided to leave for home at about 4 p. m. DESERET EVENING NEWS: TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1903.

ND RE-

NATURAPATH.

County Attorney George Westervelt fell from a step ladder, but not from grace, on the Fourth, badly bruising his arm. He is now carrying that useful member in a siling, as a gentle reminder of his superabundant patriotism. He had mount-ed the ladder to set off some fireworks.

A complaint, charging Moroni Butcher and Frank Hutchinson with housebreak-ing, was sworn to yesterday afternoon before Judge Diehl, by Anna Gygi of North Salt Lake. She says the two men broke into her house and carried away household goods to the value of $5.

Martin Gustan, a Mexican, was discov-ered by Officer Simpson last night with a quart or so of surplus whisky and two pairs of new trousers under his arm. Both packages aroused the suspicion of the officer, and the Mexican was longed in jahl under the charge of larceny.

A chemical analysis of the stomach of Richard McAllister, who was found dead on the White House stairs, failed to show the presence of poison of any kind, and the city chemist states that the de-ceased came to his death from Bright's disease, from which he had been suffer-ing for some time.

Justice Rockwood of Sugar precinct yes-terday sentenced George Goodwin, a ne-gro, to six months in the county jail upon the charge of grand harceny. Goodwin stole a 255 suit of clothee from Dick Droyfus and sold it to a second-hand dealer for 33. The negro was recently acquitted in the district court of the charge of bugiarizing the American room-ing house.

Ing house, State Mine Inspector Gomer Thomas re-turned from Hanna, Wyo., yesterday, and reported that the work of rescuing the bodies of the victims of the explosion was slow on account of the fire in the mine but that everything possible was being done to recover the bodies and to mileviate the suffering of the families of the dead miners. He stated that there is no truth in the rumor that the company intends to close the rule. Mr. Thomas only remained in the city a few hours and left again for the scene of the disaster. While the delegation from the state to left again for the scene of the disaster. While the delegation from this state to the Christian Endeavor convention at Denver will not be very large. It will endeavor to make up in enthusiasm what tlacks in numerical strength. Horace H. Smith, president of the state union, is un-oble to escape from his home duties, and consequently will be unable to go, but the society will be unable to go, but the society will be represented by Miss Van Houghten, Miss Helkes, Miss Adama-Miss Bessle Williamson. Miss Bowman, and three or four other Salt Lake En-feavorers. The prison interests will be particularly looked after, and a model prison constitution and piecke edopted by the Utah state prison society, will be presented to the convention for considera-ion.

ion. Warden Dow of the state prison re-marked yesterday afternoon from the Pacific coast much improved in health. The boys at the pen all think a great deal of the warden, and hone he will live to a tipe old age. While fully as strict in his warden always looks out for the men-al, moral and physical welfare of those committed to his cars, and the prisoners appreciate this. A member of the Na-horal Prison association who was out here some time ago, paid a visit to the prison, and told the prison Endeavor se-lety which he addressed, that the warden was a very competent and humane off-cial. During Warden Dow's absence Act-ng Warden Wright has proved a very capable and efficient manager.
