SILK CULTURE.

CIRCULAR OF THE MISSISSIPPI AND LOUISIANA SILK ASSOCIATION.

We are in receipt of the following, which is an extract from a circular issued by the Mississippi and Louisiana Silk Association, and are indebted for it to Daniel Graves, Esq., of Provo: Gentlemen and Ladies, Stik Culturists:

The object of this association is to spread silk culture, on the best princi-ple, as an important addition to gen-eral farming, and to create at Corlinth, Miss., and New Orleans, La., a perma-nent market for cocoons.
