

THE UTAH QUESTION

LOGICALLY CONSIDERED.

A FEW NUTS FOR THE PARTIES TO CRACK WHO ACCEPT JUDGE ZANE'S AMNESTY.The following letter appears in this morning's Salt Lake Herald:

Th the Editor of the Herald:

Well, suppose that law should be repealed?

This question was asked by a defendant who stood before Judge Zane, on Tuesday last. From the context of this defendant's remarks, it is fair to presume that if the law were repealed he would feel it his duty to create a new his polygamous relations, and then, under the sacred promises which must of necessity attend such unions, and under the sanctity of the unchanging and eternal command he could win and wear some other trusting heart until a new edict of human law should make it politic for him to cast away that tender heart, torn and bleeding. Do not this person and the class of persons of which he has chosen to make himself a representative, in their alleged effort to obey conscience, merely pay homage to expediency?

Mr. Editor, whence comes this sudden and violent regard for the law for bidding the practice of plural marriage? A man who now renounces—despite your protest, Mr. Editor, I cannot use any other word—his polygamous relations, and with these relations, one or more of his wives, thinks, apparently, that he is offering ample defense when he says that his reverence for law will not permit him to live with more than one wife. Why did not such a man show his sincerity by this renunciation in 1862? or, if he were not, then practicing polygamy, why did he ever enter into that relation? It is not the energy with which a law is enforced which should make it sacred to the citizen, and, therefore, if a man has lived for years in persistent violation of the act of 1862, he cannot now take any honor to himself for his tardy and compulsory obedience to the Edmunds law of 1882. Such a person may say that he was actuated by conscience. Other people must not be deemed too harsh if they call his motive cowardice.

I am not writing as the advocate or apologist of law-breakers. I recognize, I hope as clearly as any other, the respect which every citizen owes to the statutes and institutions of his country. Merely, I lay down these propositions: That if a man violated the provisions of the act of 1862, in obedience to a direct command from Almighty God, he had no more right to withdraw, at the mandate of a court, from the revelations enforced by that command, than he would have to commit murder, or perjury in answer to human requirement. And that if he transgressed the law of 1862, without such divine call, he was not only a wretched betrayer of confiding women and the lustful wronger of unborn children, but he was traitorous to the best government ever instituted by mankind.

There are a few questions which I believe the young men of Utah would like to have answered by any man who accepts of Justice Zane's amnesty.
Those questions are as follows:

"Did you enter into your polygamous relations in obedience to the requirements from Almighty God? If you did, why in the name of all that is eternal and holy, do you renounce those relations?"

"Did you lie when you taught the women who have been your wives to believe that the doctrine of plural marriage was of divine origin? If you did this, what do you call yourself? and what do you expect your unfortunate children to call you when history shall place the record of your conduct side by side with that of Hiram B. Clawsson?"

Mr. Editor, you and others deem my remarks harsh and impertinent. I do not. This is no time for cringing opinions and honied words. However imperfectly I may write, this matter is of vital interest to the young people of the Latter-day Saints.

Yours respectfully,
BEN E. RICH.

Arrangements for the funeral of Cardinal McCloskey have not yet been completed. The clergy are in a quandary as to how the casket should be trimmed, certain rules in that regard being laid down for the burial of a Cardinal. A cablegram has been sent to Rome, asking instructions. The casket has been ordered and is to be made of San Domingo mahogany.

A Santa Fe special says: Twenty-five convicts in the penitentiary yard made a break for liberty this afternoon and got outside the gate, but the guard opened fire. Twenty-three weakened and threw up their hands. Loppy Johnson, a cattle thief, and Chavez, a Lincoln County murderer, started for the woods. After running 300 yards both men were wounded and surrendered.

The Methodists and Baptists of White Sulphur Springs, Montana, are, we learn, about to have a legal tilt.
Some time ago the Baptist Church was sold under a foreclosure of mortgage and bought by a Methodist. Recently the sheriff has been ordered by the Baptist Missionary Society, New York, that they claim the building.

A Clergyman's Remarkable Experience.

The following communications give the history of one of a class of cases especially found among clergy, and all professional men and brain workers.
The change wrought in three months, as related by Dr. Cushing, pastor of the First M. E. Church, Rochester, N.
Y., (a clergyman of wide repute, whose statement will not be questioned for a moment by those who know him), is truly marvelous.

DRS. STARKEY & PALEN:

Dear Sirs:—It is nearly four years since I first used Compound Oxygen.
There are those, doubtless, who would be glad to know of its effects in a case like mine.

For fifteen years I had been carrying heavy burdens and doing very hard work. I found myself gradually losing the power of endurance, so that my work left me much exhausted. I could see that my whole nervous system was giving way; that there was a manifest lack of vital force. This was most apparent and most alarming when I went to my study.
My mind was losing its grip. Sleep was insufficient, and unrefreshing.

Under these circumstances I began the use of Compound Oxygen. At first I saw no results. After a time I observed my digestion was much improved. More restful sleep followed.
At the end of three months I found myself able to preach Sunday morning, teach a Bible class of seventy-five or a hundred after sermon, attend an afternoon service, often, and preach to a congregation of a thousand persons in the evening, and say in truth, at the close of my evening service, that I was not conscious of any more weariness than when I began in the morning. My mind has never worked better than during these four years, and in no other time of my life, could I do as much work, or do it with as much ease.

This is my experience, and I have much reason to be grateful for it. Sincerely,

CHARLES W. CUSHING, D. D., A "Treatise on Compound Oxygen," containing a history of the discovery and mode of action of this remarkable curative agent, and a large record of surprising cures in Consumption, Catarrh, Neuralgia, Bronchitis, Asthma, etc., and a wide range of diseases, will be sent free. Address DRS. STARKEY & PALEN, 1529 Arch St., Philadelphia.

Orders for the Compound Oxygen Home Treatment will be filled by H.
E. Mathews, 621 Powell Street, between Bush and Pine Streets, San Francisco.

—On Thursday afternoon, Frank Fithian, of Lockport, N. Y., was shot and killed by Rodney Wright, a cowboy, at Cable's saloon at Soda Springs, Idaho. Fithian came west in search of employment. He was in front of the saloon, where some drunken cowboys were amusing themselves, when Wright called on him to dance, beating time with his revolver. Fithian did not dance in a manner sufficiently pleasing to Wright, who fired, the ball passing through his victim's stomach and out at the back, inflicting a fatal wound.
Wright then remarked, "Have you got enough, or do you want some more?" and mounting his horse, rode off at a fast gallop. A coroner's inquest was held over the remains of the dead man.
The murderer made his escape, and had not been captured at last accounts.

THE BLOOM OF BEAUTY

On her brow indicates the glow of health within. What a change from the pallor of a few months ago. Do you know the secret of her renewed beauty? We will tell you. When she found that the pleasant liquid fruit syrup—Syrup of Figs—is as agreeable to the taste as it is effective in cleansing the system, calming the nerves and awakening the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowels to a healthy activity, she began using it, and you see the result. Ladies wishing to know if Syrup of Figs really possesses such wonderful efficacy, can obtain trial bottles free of charge at Z. C. M. I.
Drug Store, Wholesale Agents, Salt

AN END TO BONE SCRAPING.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Pa., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

Angostura Bitters do not only distinguish themselves by their flavor and aromatic odor above all others generally used, but they are also a sure preventive for all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Beware of counterfeits. Ask your grocer or druggist for the genuine article, manufactured by J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

A peculiar virtue in Ayer's Sarsaparilla is that while it cleanses and purges the blood from all corruptions and impurities, and thereby roots out disease, it builds up and invigorates the whole system, and makes one young again.

Died, at the residence of his son, Wm.

5th, 1885, George Hayes, son of John and Cork, Ireland. His remains were taken to Pleasant Grove, Utah County, where he resided. Services were held, at which Bishop Brown and Brother Henson Walker spoke words of consolation and instruction to the family and assembled friends. He was then tenderly laid by the side of his gentle, loving wife, whom he had mourned for nine years, and with her is again united in that sphere where pain and sorrow cannot enter. He will be kindly remembered by many of the Elders who visited the Canterbury Branch of the Kent Conference, of which he was several years President. He labored long and faithfully in the cause of Christ. He was honest and conscientious, and patient as Job through many years of affliction with an incurable malady. He held the office of High Priest. He leaves two sons and two daughters to emulate his good example.—COM.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Possesses the greatest possible power to heal and control affections of the throat and lungs, with absolute safety for children or adults. The experience of years has proven it to be of inestimable value as a household medicine, and for professional use.
Thousands of physicians and families testify to its great worth. Jas. E. Moring, M.D., Lima, Ohio, writes: "I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for twelve years, and have found that, as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, or Sore Throats, it Is Unequaled.

J. I. Miller, editor of the "Lutheran Home," Luray, Va., writes: "I advertise nothing that I do not know to be good. I was saved from the grave, I am sure, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and have recommended it to others with the happiest results." L. J. Addison, M. D., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I have never found, in thirty-five years of continuous study and practice in medicine, any preparation of so great value as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, for treatment of diseases of the throat and lungs; and I constantly recommend it to my patients. It not only breaks up colds and cures severe coughs, but is effective in relieving the most serious bronchial and pulmonary affections."

John J. Uhlman, Brooklyn, N.S., writes: "Twelve years ago, I was afflicted with a severe bronchial trouble, pronounced by a skillful physician to be very dangerous, and liable to terminate in Pneumonia.
After using one bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I found great relief, and an occasional use of it since that time has, I think, extended my life ten years at least." Mrs.
V. M. Thebaud, Montreal, Canada, writes:
"Last spring my daughter was attacked by membranous croup, or diphtheria.
The doctor prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which cured her of the diphtheria.
Being still very weak and sick, she began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which restored her to vigorous health."
