

18

Mrs. Mahonri Young was guest of honor at a bridge tea given on Wednes-day by Mrs. J. E. Jennings, about 50 being entertained, and prizes awarded being entertained, and prizes awarded the winners at each of the 11 inbles. The decorations were in jonquils and ferns and assisting were Mrs. W. P. Jennings, Mrs. L. L. Terry, Mrs. F. Sharp and Mrs. George T. Badger. Prizes in the game were won by Mrs. Benjamin C. Lockwood, Mrs. Robert Glendinning, Mrs. Union Worthington, Mrs. H. R. Perry, Mrs. J. H. Moyle, Miss Katherine Williams, Mrs. J. N. Sharp, Mrs. W. H. Point, Mrs. W. H. Cunningham, Mrs. J. E. Caine and Mrs. M. M. Young. M. M. Young.

Mrs. H. C. Edwards entertained the Plate club on Thursday.

The Utopia club met on Wednesday with Mrs. Fauline Sands.

Mrs. W. G. Flier was hostess at a de-lightful afternoon tea on Wednesday, given in honor of Miss Winn and Miss Block, her guests numbering about 30. The rooms were prettily decorated with sping flowers and ferns and Mrs. Frank Judge and Mrs. Louis McCornick postated in entertaining. assisted in entertaining.

Gos. and Mrs. John C. Cutler enter-tained a party of friends at the Orpheum on Monday evening.

Lieut. and Mrs. F. H. Burton enter-tained at cards on Wednesday night in honor of Mrs. H. R. Porry, only the officers and their ladies being present,

Mrs. J. A. Marshall entertained de-lightfully yesterday in honor of Miss Winn and Miss Block, her affair being a bridge tea. The rooms were effective-ly decorated and about 25 were present.

Mrs. W. W. Hall entertained at a luncheon on Tuesday at the Kensington flats in honor of Mrs. J. A. Ingols of Milford. The table was pretfily decor-ated in violets and the favors were of the source covers were laid for Mrs. the same. Covers were laid for Mrs. Jennie Eothwell, Mrs. F. L. Shellabar-ger, Mrs. M. M. Johnson, Mrs. F. W. Francis and Mrs. H. S. Knight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Delano entertained their club on Monday night.

Next Wednesday night the members of the University club give a dancing party at the club.

Mrs. L. D. Bache of Omaha, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. McGurrin, has been guest of honor at many several pleasant affairs this week.

Among those who gave theater par-tion for the San Carlos Opera company U.Is week were Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Townsend, Mr. D. H. Peery, Mr. Clem Schramm and others and others.

Mrs. C. M. Bell entertained her Bridge club yesterday.

On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. D. P. On Monday night Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Feit gave a large reception in honor of the marriage of their daughter Vera and Joseph A. Horne, the rooms being beautifully decorated and a number of intimate friends assisting in entertain-ing. Mr. and Mrs. Horne have gone to Idaho to make their home.

F. C. Schramm entertained at a dinner Monday evening at the Alta club, followed by a stall-party at the theater, his guests being Mr. and Mrs. Heber and Miss Lelia Stingley. Assisting were Mrs. S. Sharp, Mrs. W. F. Jen-nings, Mrs. L. L. Terry and Mrs. Geo. Taylor Badger.

Mrs. J. E. Woodward entertained at luncheon at the post yesterday for Mrs. Howard R. Perry of Logan, the luncheon being followed by brilige. The decorations were in spring flowers and prizes in the card contest were won by Mrs. Perry Mrs. McCleave and Miss Evelyn Thomas.

Mrs. James Ivers entertained the Twenty-fourth Century card club this week.

.... Mrs. John A. Marshall entertained delightfully at bridge yesterday after-

Mrs. Joseph Coulam and Mrs. Henry Coulam entertained at the home of the latter this afternoon in honor of Miss Ellen Corlam whose marriage takes place April 24.

this week att. in Los Angeles.

an extended eastern trip.

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson have for their guest Mrs. Timothy Bishop of New Haven, who is Mrs. Thompson's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Cates and their small daughter are in from Bingham and are at the Whitehall. Mrs. W. L. Jones is at No. 40, the Miss Mayme Noble and her father. W. P. Noble, are back from a stay of over a month in California.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Snow are now at home at 85 C street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dern are home from a visit in California. Mrs. M. Kirkpatrick and her daughters, Mrs. Walter E. Stone and Miss

BEST GOWNED OF CLUBWOMEN.

Women who are known as the most fashionably gowned in the world are members of the Eclectic club of New York. It is primarily a literary and musical organization and its membership includes nearly every woman of fashion in the metropolis. Its entertainments, always held at Deimonico's, are more than mere amateur performances in the true acceptation of that term and cards are always in demand. Its mem; bers write its plays and operettas and among its leading lights are Mrs. Marrie Martin Cowtan and Miss Marion Whitaker. The first named is chairman of music and Miss Whitaker is one of the cleverest actresses of the organization. Their latest production is an operetta called "Love and Whist" which is shortly to be produced and which is very appropriate in its theme to the principal current amusements of society.

Mrs. Geo. A. Odell and her daugh-ters, Mrs. J. H. Richards and the Sears have left their old home in Waterloo, and for the present will be at home to their friends at 48 Eighth East street, after spending the winter in the city. Miss Minette Baer is spending a few days in Garfield, the guest of Mr, and Mrs. F. C. Knight.

Mrs. H. L. Thomas will leave in the near future for Cleveland. She will later join Mr. Thomas in Portland, where they will reside. Miss Chloe Young will be home this week after spending the winter

Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Holman are in Paris, and will continue their European trip for the next four months.

Miss Irene Kelly has returned from Los Angeles, where she has been visit-ing with friends for the winter, Jean Froiseth has returned from Lo-gan, where he has been the guest of Mrs. B. M. Froiseth for a few days. Mrs. A. H. Godbe and her children will leave the first of the month for Long Beach to spend the summer.

Mrs. W. H. Cunningham will leave the end of next week for Sacramento to spend a few weeks with friends there.

. . . Mrs. W. H. Bird, who has been visit-ing herd aughter, Mrs. Sterling, of Portland, Or., has returned Tuesday evening

. . . Miss Delta F. Eaton of Berkeley.

Cal., is visiting in this city with her sister, Mrs. J. Gustave White of 75 F street.

aughter, Lillie May, to T. Albert Hooper, the weading to take place early in June.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Worthen announce the engagement of their daughter, Nell, to Mr. Alma A. Ek. The marriage will take place in June.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams announce the engagement of their daughter, Violet, to Mr. A. A. Duncan, the marriage to be an early June event.

The engagement of Walter S. Jen-nens of this city and Miss Alta Con-cannon of Buckingham, Wash. is an-nounced, the wedding to take place in the near future,

An announcement which will come An announcement which will come as a surprise to many is that of the marriage of Mrs. Christine Gold-ing Lees and Wallace Hunt Christie, both formerly of this city, the event having taken place quietly on Jan. 13. Mrs. Christie is well known here, hav ing been one of the most popular belles of her day; while the groom spent many years here in the real es-tate business. The marriage took place in San Francisco, and they will make their home in Emeryville, Cal., where Mr. Christie is engaged in business. Both have many friends who will extend congratulations and good wishes. good wishes.

who will extend congratulations and good wishes. A San Francisco exchange has the following about the wedding of Miss Helen Lees and Otto Zeus at that place on April 3: "A protty after-lenten wedding took place on Wed-eneday evening last, when Miss Helen Lees was joined in wedlock with Otto L. Zeus at the home of the bride's parents, 2047 Green street. The de-corations were characteristic of the happy event and of the glad Easter season. Easter Illes were thickly in-terspersed throughout the foliage. The bride is a charming young lady, much loved by a large circle of friends. She is a member of the Omega Nu fra-ternity at the University of California and was popular among her college companions, two of whom were her maids at the ceremony—Miss Gladys Cummings and Miss Vera Woodman-see. Earl Holmes of Eerkeley was best man. Promptly at 8 o'clock the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Clampett. The groom. Otto L. Zeus, is a popular young passenger agent of the Santa Fe. D. N. Lees, a brother of the bride, is a compan-ion with him in the office in the Mon-adnock building, and this closer asso-ciation by marriage of two young rail-road men, brought many congratula-tions from the office is the Mon-adnock building and this closer asso-ciation by marriage of two young rail-road men, brought many congratula-tions from the officies and clerks in the offices. Mr. Zeus is very well known and liked in railroad and busi-ness circles throughout the city. On Thursday evening the happy couple

A.

经

RER

Miss Jeannette Lange and Benjamin

McPhee were married on Monday at the home of Mrs. J. B. Cummock, the rooms being beautifully decorated and

OUT SHOE

OGDEN.

CERIZED BATISTE, a beautiful 65c Summer dress material foc and .65c and plain, from

In our Suit and Cloak Department

Splendid showing of the newest styles and most popular effects. The favorite Eton and English Cutaway Suits, the hip jacket and cut-away tailored coat-form fittingthat are so popular. Panama Eton Suits, braid and button trimmed, exceptional values; and an excellent line of Jumper Suits, in all colors, as well as a large variety of silk Shirt Waist Suits. Prices range from $15.00 to $75.00.

New Spring Coats for Ladies and Misses that are simply idealistic in style, make-up and effect, and a large variety of Coverts. Prices range from $6.00 to $25.00.

Ladies' Separate Eton Jackets in black Silk, and a handsome variety of black and colored Broadcloth jackets in tans, reds, browns, and blacks.

liss Wynn Coman, Miss Lois Steers. Miss Mobel Ivingstone, John S. Critchlow and Lester Freed.

Mrs. Honnold entertained her card

Mrs. R. S. Gray entertained the Psyche club on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. C. Landenberger entertained her card club on Tuesday.

The 600 club met with Mrs. Max Peters this week.

Mrs. Union Worthington entertains this afternoon and and Mass Winn. this afternoon in honor of Miss Block

On Thursday, Mrs. J. E. Jennings was hostess at a second bridge tea, given in honor of Mrs. Roscoe M. Breeden, the rooms being decorated with a profusion of tulips and palms, and about 50 guests being present. There was a special prize for the guest of honor and the others were won by Mrs. George C. Moore, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. Robert C. Gem-meil, Mrs. George Airis, Mrs. Samuel Forter, Mrs. Tiernan, Mrs. Frank E. McGurrin, Mrs. O, K. Lewis, Mrs. James Sadler, Miss Jasmine Young

MILLIONATETS WIFE DOES MANUAL LABOR.

URANUAL LABOR. Mrs. John D. Rocketeller, Jr., who is a daughter of Senator Aldrich, of is a daughter of Misses Jean and Marie Odell, have returned from Long Beach, where they have spent the winter. Angeles. . . .

Miss Mabel Livingston of New York spending a few days with friends in this city. days. . . .

Mrs. Bishop of New Haven is here to spend the summer with her daugh-ter, Mrs. J. Walcott Thompson, city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ravenal Macbeth, who have been staying at Whitehall, left on Sunday for St. Louis.

Mr, and Mrs. W. A. Bull have gone to Philadelphia to visit relatives.

The Misses Winn Coman and Lois Steers of Portland are spending a few days in the city.

Miss Martha Matilda Harper of Rochester, N. Y., will be the guest for a few days of Miss Jennie Sloan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir will leave shortly for Norway and Sweden, to spend the summer.

Miss Charlotte Holmes has returned from Los Angeles, where she has spent the better part of the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wing B. Allen are up from Goldfield with their small daughter, and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ashby D. Cleveland.

Mrs. Edward S. Ferry has gone to Grand Rapids. Mich., to visit her father, Dr. Edy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Walker returned yesterday from Oakland, where they have spent the winter.

Mrs. Timothy Bishop of New Hav-en, Conn., is the guest of her daugh-ter, Mrs. Walcott Thompson.

Miss Clara Hall has returned from six months' visit with friends in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer B. Jones have returned from an extended eastern

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Eberhardt will return today rom the northwest, where they have been spending their honeymoon. . . .

Mrs. J. H. McCrystal and son Ar-thur returned from California Mon-day afternoon. They are now at home at the Fifth East hotel.

Dr, and Mrs. Jeremiah Beattie have returned from a three months' stay in outhern California.

Mrs. Joel Priest and children have gone to Terminal Island, where they will spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Fred Wey and Miss Louise Wey will be at home to their friends in the near future in their new nome on Brigham street.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Maclotosh and a party of friends are guests at the Hotel Del Monte, in Monterey, Cal., for a month.

Mrs. A. J. McMullen and little daughter, Virginia, returned Wednes-day, after spending the winter in day, atter California.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Buli leave this week for Pennsylvania, where they will spend the summer,

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, Miss Jessie Anderson and James Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dole and their daughters, Laura and Ella, are back from a stay of several months in Los

. . .

. . .

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Wood have ness circles throughout the city. On Thursday evening the happy couple left for an extended trip to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. . . . Mrs. W. D. Buck of Park City is the guest of Mrs. Mary Bero for a few

An interesting announcement of the week is that of the marriage of Miss Katherine Little, daughter of Mrs. Nellie C. Little, and Franklyn Moyle, which took place quietly on Thursday, the young couple leaving immediately afterwards for an eastern trip, after which they will become here to relate Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Irvine of Provo are spending a few days in the which they will return here to reside.

Miss Clara Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hall, has returned to the city after a six months' visit with friends in Los Angeles. A pretty home wedding of the week was that of Miss Virginia McMasters and Benjamin Roberts, the ceremony teing performed at the bride's home by the father of the groom, B. H. Roberts. The rooms were beautifully decorated, fruit blossoms being used with roses in various shades, and a buffet supper served. The bride wore a charming gown of white bailste over taffeta, and carried a shower boquet of bride's roses. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will make their home here.

Mrs. J. D. Thompson has returned from a stay of a year abroad and is again at home at Whitehall.

Mrs. R. W. Pittman of Mt. Pleasant, Ia., is the guest of Mrs. W. T. Benson for a few days.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Steele have moved to town and are at home now on Eleventh East and Twelfth South streets.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Williams, of 815 south Second West, announce the engagement of their daughter, Violet, to Mr. A. A. Duncan. The wedding 3 3. 4 Lieuetnant Nelson E. Margetts, at present stationed at Fort Snelling, and who has just received his commission as second Heutenant, will be here with his wife for a vacation this summer, and will spend a few weeks with his mother, Mrs. Oliver Ostler. will take place in June, The wedding of Miss Lillian Pettit and Benjamin B. Berkinshaw takes place next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Siegel left Tuesday for Baltimore and Atlantic City to be gone a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Colbath are now at home at 659 cast Third South street.

a large number of relatives and friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. McPhee will make their home in Canada. Mrs. Margaret Tileston has returned from a three weeks' stay in Orden, where she has been visiting friends.

A quiet marriage of the week was that of Miss Lizzle Shapiro and Nathan Horn, which took place on Wednes-day at the bride's home, they leaving immediately after for an eastern trip, after which they will return to reside. Mrs. H. R. Perry, who has been the guest of Col. and Mrs. Lockwood for a week past, has returned to her home in Logan.

Mrs. W. B. Mundy, accompanied by her little son, is here from Las Vegas, to be the gusets of Mrs. Mundy's par-ents, Mr, and Mrs. A. F. Philips.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Crome, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam Crome, have returned to their home in San Francisco.

Mrs. J. Oberndorfer has returned from New York, where she has spent several months. Mrs. Jacob Bamberg-er will remain there for some time.

Mrs. G. B. Dunkle of Washington, Pa., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCoy of 105 Second West street. 1 1 1

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mansfield of Boise, Ida., are visiting their parents, Mr. and rMs. W. M. Mansfield, 422 east Second outh

Mrs. George A. Snow of Chicago is visiting her sister, rs. J. F. Grant. Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Wallace are ento taining Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Man-derson of Nebraska.

Ferdinand Dickert, Jr., of Flesher, Mont., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Dickert.

Mrs. Sol Siegel left Monday for the east. She will spend the summer at Atlantic City and Baltimore.

Mrs. W. M. Wantland has returned after a stay of five months in Pasaney of the De of Luch That Earth-

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Heller on Twenty-sixth street next Tuesday evening, Mrs. Heller's sister. Miss Ruby Fowler, will be married to W. J. Scott, a well known young man of Salt Lake City. The Women's Relief Corps enter-tained a large number of their friends TREEDE A ME and all esidence.

The finest assortment of New Spring Waists we have ever shown; beautiful sheer materials, handsomely trimmed, newest styles, ranging in price from $1.00 to $33.00.

"EFF-EFF" Fashionable Clothes

WOOL FINISHED MER-

Embodies faultless fit, fine fabrics and first-class workmanship-distinctive styles in the newest spring patterns, checks, stripes, plaids and shadow plaids in light and dark worsteds, cheviots and cassimeres. These suits bear the closest comparison with high grade merchant-tailored work, and range in price from

We are showing the newest spring styles in Gents' headwear-telescopes and other desirable styles. Also a complete line of the famous and ever-popular John B. Stetson hats.

Everything you need in the furnishing lineskirts, neckwear, underwear, hosiery, gloves, suspenders and handkerchiefs. Also a splendid assortment of well made, substantia! trunks, bags, suit cases and men's umbrellas and canes. Fine qualities, reasonable prices.

Superb Showing Of Wall Paper.

We are now displaying a beautiful variety of Wall Papers-the newest designs and color effects. The aspect of the whole room can be changed by judiciously selecting your wall covering. Let us know your room size, the effect you desire to convey, and we will give you the benefit of our experience.

We have just received a choice assortment of Carpet size Rugs that we would like you to see. They are simply elegant-Axministers, Bigelow Axministers, Regular Velvets, Wilton and French Wilton Velvets and Tapestry Brussels.

1907 Oxfords

Be sure and see our new line of Oxfords! Great variety swell effects, stylish of shapes and best qualities at reasonable prices.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Shiells on Monroe avenue was the scene of a pretty but quiet home wedding Wednesday evening, when their daugh-ter, Miss Grace Agnes Shiells, was united in wedlock with Mr. William McKnight, in the presence of relatives and a few friends, Rev. Alfred Brown of the Episcopal church officiating. A dainty repast was served after the cere-mony, and on Thursday the happy dainty repast was served after the cere-mony, and on Thursday the happy young couple left for the northwest, where the will visit for a few weeks with Mrs. Charles Stout at Portland, sister of the bride. Miss Shells was one of Ogden's most popular and charming young ladies and a leader in social eircles. The groom is county re-corder of White Fine county. Nev., and is also extensively interested in busi-ness and mining. They will make their home at the booming town of Ely, where Mr. McKnight has erected a fine residence.

