are instruments and agencies of that "divinity which shapes our ends, roughhew them as we will."
The Prophet Isaiah named Cyrus, Persian conqueror, more than hundred years before ne he was Nephi, six born. The Prophet Nephi, six centuries before Christ, all but named Columbus as the discoverer of the west hemisphere; outlining also the work of Washington and Jefferson, and vir-tually foreshadowing the fate of the nation's martyrs—Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley—Innocent victims of those works of darkness, those secret and murderous combinations which the Book of Mormon so unqualifiedly con-TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY. Twenty years ago today died the lamented Garfield, the second of a presidential triad to fall by the assassin' hand; and now with bowed heads and sorrowing hearts we surround as i were the grave in which will be laid to rest the remains of the third martyr-President William McKinley.

A TYPICAL AMERICAN. This man was a typical American, true son of freedom's soil. Of British ancestry, his progenitors for severa generations were Americans, "native grandfathers were Revolutionary sol-diers. The date of his birth was January 29, 1843; its place, Niles, Trumbul county, Ohio. When but nine years old he removed with his parents to Poland, Mahoning county, in the same state. In the public schools of that vicinity he received his first education, and at the age of seventeen was sent to Allegheny college in the State of Pennsylvania. Subsequently he taught in the public schools, and was a clerk in the Poland postoffice at the outbreak of the civil war. A youth of eighteen, he at once wristed as a private in the Twentythird Ohio volunteers, and served with gallantry and distinction throughout war; winning the rank of captain and the brevet of Major during progress of the strife. Peace b estored, he studied law, was admitted b the bar, and settled at Canton, where he married, in January, 1871, Miss Ida Saxton, that most estimable lady, now the widowed Mrs. McKinley, whose heavy bereavement is shared by the whol civilized world. Five years later Major McKinley was elected to Congress, and served for seven conseculive terms, or a period of fourteen years, as a member of the House of tepresentatives. Afterwards he was ired from that office to become President of the United States; twice electid, first in 1896 and again in 1900. The principal events of his first presidentia term were the war with Spain and the supplemental conflict in the Philippines uring which he held the state with a strong and steady hand; main happenings of his second m were his triumphal tour from the Atlantic to the Pacific-which was one us ovation from beginning to and-and last of all the cruel and crim-

ABOVE REPROACH. In private as well as in public life resident McKinley deported himself n such a way as to win universal respect and esteem. He was a devoted nusband, a fond father, and his charac-He was a devoted ter was above reproach. In religion he was a Methodist, and was a genwas a methodist, and was a gen-chief Christian gentleman. An ardent patriot, a wise and capable ruler, he was faithful and fearless in the dis-charge of his duty, and lived up to the highest and best light bestowed upon on tragedy of the sixth of September, when, while a visitor at the Pan-American exposition, he fell a victim to as-

NO JUSTIFICATION FOR ASSASSIN. "What was there in the life of such a man to justify, even in the mind of ah anarchist, "the deep damnation of his taking off?" If anarchy ware asked this question, it would probably point to the burning social and finanquestions agitating the the present time. As if anything could justify crime, and especially the crime of murder! As if assassination could be warrantable or tolerated on any terms! As if the great commandment, "Thou thalt not kill," and the solemn warning "A murderer hath not eternal life abiding within him," could be abrogated by he argument that some are rich while many are poor, that the strong there is war between labor and capital afflict between the proletariat and the bourgeoisie, that the money kings are said to be intent upon the enslavement of the masses, the enthronement of the dollar, the deflication of Mammon and the establishment of a pluocracy in this land of liberty. Be such arguments true or false, in what man ner can they be made to justify the cowardly crime committed against the person of our late chief magistrate and at the same time against the sov-breignty of the American people, of whom he was the legally chosen repre-sentative? If the rich men of our land and the lords and rulers of all lands were the unfeeling tyrants that their enemies declare them to be, it would not furnish a valid reason for the murfer of the cruelest and most sordid one among them. How, then, can it excuse

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, STRUP OF Figs, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxative principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

BAN FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y. sale by all Druggists.-Price 50c. per bottle.

Insist on Three Crown

who do not like to sell Three Crown Baking Powder. sold at a close margin, and the profits on it are not as large as some of the other brands. You know you get full value for your expenditure, because we set the price at which this article is sold. Our effort is for your satisfaction and we want you to have the best baking powder is why we make a feature of putting this excellent article on the market at the low price for which we sell it. Three Crown is sold and guaranteed by all grocers at 25c a pound. Ask for it and refuse all substitutes. HEWLETT BROS., CO.

the assassination of an innecent, kindarted Christian man like President

McKinley?

McKINLEY'S LAST WORDS. If he be truly reported, there was in the soul of this man a nobility, a mag-nanimity that has rarely been equalled n earth. When told that his assassin was an anarchist, the wounded President is said to have murmured: "Too bad, too bad; I trust, however, they will treat him fairly." This was by far the greatest speech that William Mc-Cinicy ever uttered; one of the noblest entiments, in fact, that ever fell from he lips of man. Instinctively it suggests that unparalleled utterance of the Man of Calvary, the dying Son of God, who, forgetful of his own agony and thinking only of the welfare of his murderers, exclaimed, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do." And with what noble fortitude and resignation did the dying President take leave of life! "Good bye all, good bye; it is God's way, his will be do fitting sequence to his former prayer, 'Nearer my God, to thee;" and a most appropriate sentiment upon the lips of such a man. ANARCHY STANDS CONDEMNED.

The Gospel of Christ, as revealed to and accepted by the Latter-day Saints, has a controversy with all works of evil and deeds of darkness, whatever and wherever they may be. It sets its face like flint against pride, selfishness and the greed of gain; but it also condemns, in unmeasured terms, mur-der, secret combinations, conspiracies whose object is crime, whose purpose is destruction. It denounces tyranny and avarice in the rich; it inveighs against envy and discontent in the poor. Patience, faith, hope and charty are its watchwords; the love of Godand humanity the legend emblazoned on its banners. It recognizes that there are wrongs to be righted, and it provides the means for righting them; a means that the sick and weary world vill yet accept as the panacea for But works of crime and deeds of darkness are not within the pale of the Gospel plan. Consecration, forgiveness, self-sacrifice are the signs and tokens of its sacred mission; salvati n not destruction, its purpose towards all mankind. It will not create equality, for such a thing is impossible; but it will establish justice, and give to ev-ery man his own. Zion will arise and shine, the joy of the whole earth.

the prophets of old predicted. T -the Pure in Heart; "every man seeking the interest of his neighbor and doing all things with an eye single to the glory of God."

JUSTICE MUST PREVAIL.

Justice must prevail, or God would cease to be God, and the very pillars of heaven would be shaken. The final judgment, and the only just judgment, is the rewarding of all men according ment seen by John on Patmos, in his vision of the resurrected dead, standing before God at the last day to answer for the deeds done in the body. Could anything be more just or more How could men be justly judged for deeds, good or evil, done by others? How could they reasonably be rewarded or punished except upon the basis of their own merits and demerits?

But the Christian world, after the days of the Apostles, lost sight of this simple and beautiful truth, with many equally simple and thus rendering necesbeautiful, the restoration of the They invented the doctrine of justification by faith, without works and condemned to endless terment half laimed to damnation, not for any evithey had done, but rather, it would seem, for not having the opertunity of doing any good. Even they had would seem, Dante in his great poem places such such spirits as Virgil, Aristotle and Plato in the depths of hell, simply be-cause they were not living when the Gospel was upon the earth and had not been baptized. AWFUL ERROR CORRECTED.

It remained for Joseph Smith, the Prophet of the nineteenth century, correct this awful error, to reteach the primitive truth, to emphasize and amplify what the ancient apostles had said upon this subject, namely, that faith without works is dead, and that all men will be judged according to the deeds done in the body. He taught, with the Savior, that in the Father's nouse there are many mansions; and he fectared, as did Paul, that there is a glory of the sun and a glory of the moon and a glory of the stars, and that is one star differs from another star in glory, so also is the resurrection of the dead. Justice, strict justice, combined and interwoven with mercy-but not equality. And where were the justice of an equality that would place the sainted soul of that pure-hearted C hristian, President McKinley, on the same plane with the soul of the crime-stained wretch who robbed him of his life, but who has only to lisp the name of Jesus on the scaffold, according to the views of most Christian divines, in order to go straight into the of the immaculate and glorified Son of RESURRECTION AND REWARD. But Joseph went further than Paul. He not only portrayed the celestial, ter-restrial and telestial worlds, typifled respectively by the sun, moon and stars, but he described the varied qualifications that would entitle the resurrected soul to residence in any of those spheres of glory. They who received the Gospel in the flesh and were faithful and valiant to the end. would inherit celestial glory, the highest of all; while those who received the Gospel in the spirit world, after death, would inherit terrestrial glory, of which the moon is typical. The inhabitants of the telestial world were the once wicked and deprayed, who had been thrust down to hell and had there "paid the uttermost farthing," prior to being re-

UNIVERSAL SALVATION. Joseph Smith proclaimed the great doctrine of universal salvation, the salvation of all who were willing to be saved, and excepted only the sons of perdition, who wilfully and knowingly sin against light and knowledge, deny the Holy Spirit after having received it, thus crucifying the Son of God afresh and constructions. and committing the unpardonable sin. He restored the great principle of vi-carious redemption, of baptisms and endowments for the dead, and declared, as with the voice of an archangel, that all who would have received the Cos-pel here, had they been permitted to tarry, were heirs of the celestial king-

NO MYTH OR FABLE. It is my solemn testimony that these are not myths and fables, but glorious and eternal trutha. The resurrection is a fact, not a fiction. The Sava fact, not a fiction. The Sav-lor Himself taught and exemplified it, being "the first fruits of them that slept." He died and rose again the third day, and to prove that he had ed risen, he condescended handled by His mortal disciples, saying "Feel of me and sec, for a spirit hat not flesh and bones as ye see me have He is the resurrection and the life, and because He lives, we shall live also. We are all the children of God, the offspring of an eternal being, who mad man in His own image, and endowed him with His own imperishable att Death is but a transition, an in cident in our never-ending career. The change that has come to our illustrious leader, our departed President, is but the change that must come to us all when we bid farewell to time and enter the portals of eternity.

"The One remains, the many change and pass; Heaven's light forever shines, earth's shadows fly;

snadows fly; Life, like a dome of many-colored glass, Stains the white radiance of eteralty, Until death tramples it to fragments.

And there the poet leaves it like a shattered vase. It was as far as his eye could see. But the God who made the noet, who created and gave life all things, can and will gather up those broken fragments and remould them in to a vessel of honor, a fitting receptacl for the immortal flower that once filled it, and which was only transplanted fo n season to paradise; and now restored the selfsame flower in the selfsame vase, to bloom there in beauty and shed forth its fragrance for ever. This is life; this is death; and this is the resurrection.

UTAH BOWED DOWN WITH CRIEF.

(Continued from page one.)

example of the President's exceeding thoughtfulness in little things the bish-op told how he had picked a flower out of a bouquet that shood on a table and of a bouquet that stood on a table and given it to his daughter because he saw

"He was a man who emphasized and magnified the sanctity of the family life," said the bishop, "and it was his custom during the recent, troublous times of war to kneel down and ask the heavenly Father for assistance and guidance. Such was the man who fell by the hand of the assassin, Czolgosz, by the hand of the assassin, Czolgosz, who, though dead, yet speaks through the hearts of his fellow men, the noblest thoughts and the highest ideas. At the conclusion of the bishop's address the choir marched out of the cathedral singing, "For all the saints who from their labor rest," and the service concluded with Handal's invocas vice concluded with Handel's immortal "Dead March in Saul."

TREASON MUST NOT BE TAUGHT So Said the Rev. P. S. Thacher at the Jewish Synagogue.

There was a large gathering of Unigogue at 11 o'clock this morning and the services were most solemn and im The services were conducted pressive. The services were conducted by Rabbi L. G. Reynolds who offered the opening prayer. Rev. P. S. Thacher delivered the me morial oration after Rabbi Reynoids had read the ninetieth chapter of Psalms. Rev. Thacher's address was brief but most interesting. He paid a glowing tribute to the noble qualities of the late President McKinley and said he was truly a kingly man. "To look back upon the fives of the great, the brave the good and true nen who have souls to benefit others, causes our cheeks to flame patriotism," said the speaker. "They are our pride and our hope," he continued. "Those who have attained to fame and glory through wars of blood lives to his whom w have come to pay respect? We do well to pay him our heartfelt tribute and everence. There is not one thing in everence. There is not one thing in his record not honorable. There are men greater in respects, but none better and greater in kingly manh Rev. Thacker then dwelt for some time on President McKinley's brayery time on President McKinley's bravery in the ranks as a soldier, and how he rose from the min ks as "The Little Cor poral" to a position of honor and power. "A divine energy stirred him on Instead of adopting the policy of to the victor bele it is here to stay The speaker hour of the Paent's foul assassination and said th hand of a murierer he displayed more heroism than on the battle field be cause his first thought was a prayer for murderer.

"But the assassin did not destroy his great influence for good over the whole world." In speaking of anarchy he said: "I would not lock any man's lips but I would not allow people to teach treastuff in him and will do his best to stamp out anarchy. He will be true to the best ideas of American life." A pleasing and interesting feature of the services was a recitation of Wil-liam C. Bryant's Thanatopsis, a medi-tation on Death, by Professor John P. The congregation listened to Meakin. his impressive rendition with rapt at-

The musical numbers were: Menelssohn's Funeral March, and delssohn's Fuberal March, and the Death Song by Schubert, played by Miss Susie Stewart, Rock of Ages sang by Mr. F. Sanders, violin obligatos by Mr. S. S. Deutsch, and Neaver My God to Thee, by Mrs. Kate Bridwell Ander-

Christian Science Service.

Memorial services were held at the Christian Science church, at 11 o'clock this morning, Mrs. P. L. Kimball pre siding. Organic Gues Andante from Beethoven's Fifth Sym-about, and "Rest Spirit, Rest," after Organist phony, and "Rest Spirit, Rest," after which Mrs. Kimball made remarks up-on the purpose of the meeting. "We Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Billousness. Malaria, Fever and Ague.

s the Ritters. realth for believed President William McKiniey, and if the Comforter has come to us, grief will not enter into this service, but gratitude that God raised up a man so good and great, to administer the affairs of this nation, and that there is another to take his place in whom the nation can trust for as good gov-ernment as he who has passed has given. Ever present God will provide for the human need, and the fact that there can be no death, President Mc-Kinley left so beautiful a memory be-hind him should take from this occa-sion much of its sorrow. "To live in sion much of its sorrow. "To live it hearts we leave behind is not to die." The congregation then joined in sing-ing a hymn from the C. S. hymn book, after which Mrs. Kimball read consolatory passages from the Gospels of Matthew, Mark and John, followed by Scriptural readings by Assistant Reader Stayner, with correlative passages from "Science and Health," the denom-inational text book, by Mrs. Mary B. Eddy, read by Mrs. Kimball. The passages touched upon the subject of eter-nal life, and from the text book were read passages explaining the spiritual import as meaning that life being eternal cannot be at the mercy of chance accident or malice, when God's power is truly understood. When "the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord" death, sin and sorrow will be unknown. A solo "Lead, Kindly Light" was beautifully rendered by Damin, and the congregation My God, To Thee," afte which the benediction was pronounced, and the services ended with Beeth-oven's Funeral March, rendered by Westminster Presbyterian.

A memorial service in honor of the minster Presbyterian church last night. Rev. R. Cooper Bailey of Springville ive an address on the subject "What hall We Do With Anarchy?" in which e declared that every anarchist was at The speaker suggested that the only way to deal with anarchists was to put guards at the eastern and western doors of our country.

NO BUSINESS IN OGDEN. Special Services Held in Honor of the Lamented President. [Special to the "News,"]

Ogden.-All the business houses in Ogden are closed today out of respeco the late President, and many them and a number of private resi-dences are draped.

Memorial exercises were held at 10 clock in the St. Joseph Catholic church. A fine musical service was giv-en and Rev. Father Cushnahan delivered an able address eulogizing President McKinley. The Rev. father spec-ially made mention of the moral standing, reputation and magnificent blame-less life of the President. He also cored the ministers and press who agitate anarchism by giving voice to sentiment of lawlessness such as taking the life of even such a man as the slayer of the President without a far

Memorial services were also held at 11 o'clock in the Ogden tabernacle President M. P. Flygare presiding. Th dered by the Second ward choir, Eulo gistic addresses were delivered by Judge H. H. Rolapp, District Attorney A. B. Hayes, Hon. Joseph Stanford and Bishop Robert McQuarrie. The assas-sination of President McKinley was deplored by all the speakers, and the people were admonished to lead such blameless lives as his, and also to supadministration with such a noble

HON, D. H. PEERY'S FUNERAL. The remains of Hon. D. H. Peery will in state at the family residence in tomorrow between the hours of and 12, when they can be viewed b The funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock.

FUNERAL SERVICES AT CANTON.

(Continued from page one.)

the assurance that you have the tende sympathy and unfailing love of every surviving soldier of the Union and our sustain you. ELI TORRANCE.

Commander-In-Chief G. A. R.' SERVICES AT CANTON.

Canton, O., Sept. 19 .- Services in the church were simple. They began with the rendition of an organ preclude, Beethoven's funeral march, played by Miss Florence Donds. As the last notes of the prelude were stilled, the Euter-pean ladies quartet of Canton sang The Beautiful Isle of Somewhere Rev. O. B. Milligan pastor of the First ivered the invocation which was as REV. O. B. MILLIGAN'S PRAYER.

O God, our God, our nation's God Thou God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of Mercies and God of all comfort; we have entered the courts of Thy house today with bowed and burdened heart. In Thy inscrutable providence Thou hast permitted this great calamity to come upon us. Truly, "Thy ways are in the deep and Thy paths in the mighty waters We how n meekness before the exhibi tion of Thy sovereignty and own Thy right to do as Thou wilt in the armies of heaven and amongst the sins of men. But blessed by Thy name. Thy vereignty over us is the sovereignty love. Thou art our Father, and as a father pitieth his children, he Lord pitieth them that fear Him." Thou hast so revealed Thyself to us in Thy word, but especially in Thy glory and the express image of Thy person, therefore, O Lord, we can the more cheerfully submit to doings of Thy hand and heart. We can say him whom we so deeply mourn, "This is God's way. His will, not ours, be and whilst we can not under done, and whist we can not understand Thy gracious purposes in this dispensation, help us. Lord, to wait in patient confidence, assured that Thou who art Thine own interpreter, wilt reveal Thy thoughts of peace and purposes of mercy in this great mystery.

HELP US, LORD. In this spirit help us to accept th providence and still to trust Thee. We thank Thee, O Lord, for this life which has been taken so rudely from us. We thank Thee for Thy servant's endowments and achievements. We thank Thee for the evidences that he was chosen of Thee for great purposes in which, by Thy grace, these purposes were wrought in his life. Adorned by Thee we thank Thee for what he was n himself, in his home, in society, hurch and state and national relations We bless Thee for the inspiration of h example and we rejoice that, though dead, his influence for good will ever live among us. Blessed be Thy name. In the temple of American honor anther is written among the immortals Heip us, O Lord, to see in his life the divine possibilities of life and to strive for a like fidelity as we go forward to meet life's appointments. BLESS OUR NATION

Vouchsafe, we pray Thee, all needful blessings to our nation in this season of sore bereavement. Thou knowest, O God, how this blow has struck have come together to participate in heavy with inexpressible and almost unendurable sorrow.

Surely Thou hast stricken us in Thy sore displeasure, for Thou dost not adilet willingly: Thou dost not delight in punishment. On, that Thou woulds in punishment. us to search our hearts to seek ou help us to search our hearts to seek out even the hidden depths and springs of wickedness, to rid us of the evil, that the abundant favor of our God may be returned to us, and that the sublime things we hope for in our nation's future may be realized. And until we have discovered the evil and rooted it out let not Thy spoodness depart from us. In afflicting, O Lord, he merciful. Remember not our sins against us and visit us in the plentitude of Thy grace. PRAYER FOR THE WIDOW.

Vouchsafe, we pray Thee, the fullness of Thy grace to Thy servant who has so the special been inducted into the solemn responsibilities of the office of chief magistrate. May be be endowed with all needed girts to administer the government to Thy glory, to the wolfers of this great people. Give the welfare of this great people. Give dence and love of the nation.

And now, O Lord, trustfully do we commit to Thy infinitely tender and gracious care her who has been most bitterly bereaved. Tender as are our hearts toward her la this and hour; passing tender as was her husband's passing tender as was her husband a beart toward her, as together they passed through all the scenes of joy and sorrow which were appointed them in life, may the heart of God be more tender still. Bind her round with suf-ficient consolations of Thy presence and grace; and as by faith she loans thou grace; and as by faith she leans upon the unseen arm of the infinite may she ever find Thee a present help in time of

"ALL FLESH IS GRASS."

Sanctify this dispensation to us all May we hear in it the voice of the eternal crying, "All flesh is grass and all the godliness thereof as the flower of the field. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, but the word of our God will stand forever." Help us that we may diligently improve this provi-dence of our growth in grace and in the saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. By Thy grace, dear Lord, pre-pare all for life's duty and trials, for the solemnities of death and for a blessed immortality. These and every other needed blessing we plead for it the name of Him who taught us to

"Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, And forgive us our tres-passes as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power and glory, for ever, Amen."

The ninetieth psalm was read by Dr John A. Hall, of the Trinity Lutheran church, of Canton, and that portion of the 15th chapter of First Corinthians included between the 41st and 58th verses, was read by Rev. E. P. Her-bronck, of the Trinity Reformed church, of Canton.

The favorite hymn of President Mc-Kinley, "Lead, Kindly Light," was then rendered by a quartet of two male and two female voices. When this hymn had been finished. Dr. C. E. Manchester, pastor of the First Methodist church, delivered his address which read as follows:

THE ADDRESS.

Our President is dead. The silver cord is loosed. The golden bowl is broken. The pitcher is broken at the fountain. The wheel is broken at the cistern. The mourners go about the streets. One voice is heard-a wail of sorrow from all the lands, for the beauty of Israel s slain upon the high places. How are the mighty fallen!
I am distressed for thee, my brother.

Very pleasant ast thou been unto me. Our President is dead. We can hardbelieve it. We had hoped and prayed nd it seemed that our hopes were realized and our prayers answered when the emotion of joy was changed to one of grave apprehension. Still we waited, for we said, "It may be that od will be gracious and merciful un-o us." It seemed to us that it must His will to spare the life of one so ll beloved and so much needed. Thus Iternating between hope and fear, the reary hours passed on. Then came he tidings of defeated science, of the ilure of love and of prayer, to hold ct to the earth. We seemed to faintly muttered words "Good Good bye. It's God's way. His done," and then "Nearer, My ce." So nestling nearer to passed out into unconsciousness, skirted the dark shores of the Sca of Death for a time and then to be at rest. His great censed to beat. Our hearts

A voice is heard on earth of kinsfolk The loss of one they love; But he has gone where the redeemed keeping

A featival above. The mourners throng the ways and from the steeple The funeral bells toll slow; But on the golden streets the holy

Are passing to and fro And saying as they meet 'Rejoice Another long-waited-for is come,'

The Savior heart is glad, a younger Has reached the Father's home." THE BEAUTY OF ISRAEL.

The cause of this universal mourning to be found in the man himself. aspired penman's picture of Jonathan, kening him unto "The Beauty of Iscould not be more appropriately oved than in chanting the lament to human speech, nor is it fulsome that has seen his stately bearing, his grace and manifess of demeanor, his description of him. It was charof our beloved President that him only to love him. They deed differ with him, but in grace of manner, none could, ove the man. The people con-It was said of Lincoln ably no man since the days of d enshrined in the hearts of but it is true of McKinley sense. Industrial and soons are such that he was than his predecessors, the friend of the whole people. scene was enacted in this hurch last Sunday night. The services and closed. The worshippers were gone o their homes. Only a few lingered to iscuss the sad event that brings us to esther today Three men in working garb, of a foreign race and unfamiliar tongue, entered the room. They approached the altar, kneeling before nd before his picture. Their lips moved se'if in prayer, while tears furrowed their cheeks. They may have been thinking of their own King Humbert and of his untimely death. Their emoon was eloquent, eloquent beyond honest worth.

HE KEPT HIS SOUL WHITE.

ppreciation of manly friendship and

It is a glorious thing to be able to say in this presence with our illustrious dead before us, that he never be-trayed the confidence of his countrymen. Not for personal gain or prehis soul. He kept it clean and white before God and man, and his hands were unsullied by bribes.

est, O God, how this blow has struck every heart; how this sorrow pierces
every heart; how this sorrow pierces every soul. The nation is detted with sackcloth and bowed with grief. Our land is full of mourning, our hearts are land is full of mourning, our hearts are pointed those who believed in him, but neasured up to every duty and met

HE WAS A GALLANT KNIGHT.

Not only was our President brave heroic and honest; he was as gallant a knight as ever rode the lists for his lady ove in the days when knighthood was in flower. It is but a few weeks since the nation tooked on with tear-dimmed yes, as it saw with what tender con-ugal devotion he sat at the bedside or all beloved wife, when all feared that a atal thress was upon her. No public lamor that he might show himself to the populace, no demand of a social function was sufficient to draw the lovrunction was stimulent to draw the lover from the bedside of his wife. He watched and waited while we all prayed—and she lived. This sweet and tender story all the world knows. And the world knows that his whole life had run in this one groove of love. It was a strong arm that she leaned upon, and it never failed her. Her smile was more to him than the plaudits of the multitude, and for her greeting, his ac-knowledgments of them must wait. After receiving the fatal wound, his first thought was that the terrible news might be broken gently to her, May God, in this deep hour of sorrow, comfort her. May His grace be greater than her anguish. May the widow's God be her God.

HE WAS A CHRISTIAN.

Another beauty in the character of our President, that was a chaplet of grace about his neck, was that he was a Christian. In the broadest, noblest sense of the word, that was true. His confidence in God was strong and un-wavering. It held him steady in many a storm, where others were driven be fore the wind and tossed. He believe n the fatherhood od and in His so-ercignty. His faith in the Gespel of vereignty. His faith in the Gospel of Christ was deep and abiding. He had no patience with any other theme of pulpit discourse. "Christ and Him crucified" was to his mind the only panacea for the world's disorders. He believed it to be the supreme duty of the Christian minister to preach the He said "We do not look fo great business men to the pulpit but for preachers." It is well known that his godly mother had hoped for him that he would become a minister of the gospel and that she believed it to be the highest vocation in life. It was not, however, his mother's faith that made him a Christian. He had gained in early life a personal knowledge of Jesus which guided him in the performance of greater duties and vaster than have been the lot of any other American President. He said at one time, while bearing heavy burdens that he could not discharge the daily duties of his life but for the fact that he had faith

HE BELIEVED IN PRAYER.

William McKinley believed in prayer, in the beauty of it, in the potency of it. Its language was not unfamiliar to him. and his public addresses not infrequently evince the fact. It was perfectly consistent with his life-long convic-tions and his personal experiences that he should say as the first critical mo-ment after the assassination approached "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done," and that he should de-clare at the last "It is God's way; His will be done," He lived grandly; it was fitting that he should die grandly. And now that the majesty of Death has touched and called him, we find that in his supreme moment he was still a friends and countrymen, with what language shall I attempt to give expression to the deep horror of our souls, as I speak of the cause of his death? When we consider the magnitude of the crime that has plunged the grief we are not surprised nationality after another has hastened to repudiate the dreadful act. This gentle spirit, who hated no one, to whom every man was a brother, was suddenly smitten by the cruel hand of an assassin and that too, while in the very act of extending a kind and generous greeting to one who approached him under the sacred guise of friend-

ENORMITY OF THE CRIME.

Could the assailant have realized how twful was the act, he was about to perform, how utterly heartless the deed, methinks he would have stayed his hand at the very threshold of it. all the coming years, men will seek in vain to fathem the enormlty of that

Had this man who fell been a despot, a tyrant, an oppressor, an insane fren-zy to rid the world of him might have sought excuse, but it was the people's friend who fell, when William Mc-Kinley received the fatal wound, Himself a son of toll, his sympathies were with the toller. No one who has seen the matchless grace and perfect ease with which he greeted such, can ever doubt that his heart was in his open hand. Every heart trob was for his countrymen. That his life should be sacrificed at such time, just when there was abundant peace, when all the Americas were rejoicing together is one of the inscrutable mysteries of Provid Like many others it must be left for future revelations to explain.

HE DID HIS WORK WELL. In the midst of our sorrow we have much to console us. He lived to see his nation greater than ever before. All sectional lines are biotted. There is no South, no North, no East, no West. Washington saw the beginning West. Washington at Lincoln passed of our national life. Lincoln passed through the night of our history and saw the dawn. McKinley beheld his country in the splendor of its noon. Truly he died in the fulness of his ame. With Paul he could say, and with equal truthfulness, "I am now eady to be offered." The work The work asation was at peace. We had fairly entered upon an era of unparalleled Our standing among nations was Our President was safely en hrined in the affections of a united It was not at him that the fatal shot was fired, but at the very fe of the government. His offering was vicarious. 'It was blood poured on the altar of human liberty. In view 'It was blood poured of these things, we are not surprised to ear, from one who was present when this great soul passed away, that he before saw a death so or a dying man so crowned with grand-

Let us turn now to a brief consider. ation of some of the lessons that we are to learn from this sad event. The first one that will occ is the old, old lesson that "In the midst f life we are in death." "He fleeth as it the evening. shadow and never continues in on stay.

SMITTEN BY ASSASSIN'S HAND. Our President went forth in the ful-ness of his strength, in his manly beauty and was suddenly smitten by the hand that brought death with it None of us can tell what a day may bring forth. Let us therefore remember that "No man liveth to himself and none of us dieth to himself." May each day's close see a day's duty done. Another great lesson that we should In the presence of the dread messenger small are all the trappings of wealth and distinctions of rank and ower. I beseech you, seek him who life; he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; and who-soever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." There is but one Savior for the sin-sick and the weary. I entreat

SIDEBOARDS and BUFFETS

We have an Elegant Line of Sideboards Buffets, Dining Room Tables and Chairs in all Styles of Finish.

The ornamentation and carving on the better grades are very artistic and are well worth seeing. Although we have grades suitable for the most magnificent of residences, we -also have a line adapted to the requirements of those of moderate means.

H. DINWOODEY FURNITURE CO.

sume the great responsibilities to which back a mighty conqueror.

A GOOD BYE TO CANTON.

His last words as he left were: "Nothing could give me greater pleasure than this farewell greeting—this evidence of good will, and I am sure, the prayers of all the of all the people with whom I have lived so long and whose confidence and esteem are dearer to me than any other earthly honors. To all of us the future is as a sealed book; but if I can, by official act, or administration or ut-terance in any degree add to the prosperity and unity of our beloved country and the advancement and well be ing of our splendid citizenship I will levote the best and most unselfish efforts of my life to that end. this thought uppermost in my mind reluctantly take leave of my friend and neighbors, cherishing in my the sweetest memories and thoughts of my old home-my home now- and, I trust, my home hereafter, so long as

We hoped with him, that when his work was done, freed from the bur-dens of his great office, crowned with the affections of his people, he might be permitted to close his earthly life in the home he had loved.

He has, indeed, returned to us, but Borne to the strains of "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and placed where he first began life's struggle, that the recple might look and weep over so sad home-coming.

A TRIUMPHAL MARCH.

But it was a triumphal march. How vast the procession! The nation rose and stood with uncovered head. The people of the land are chief mourners. The nations weep with him. But, oh, what a victory. I do not ask you in calm moments of mature reflection, what other man ever had such high Surgeon General Van Reypen, upon honors bestowed upon him, and by so many people? What pageant has the expiration of the latter's term of equalled this that we look upon? We gave him to the nation but a little more than four years ago. He went out with the light of the morning upon his brow, but with his task set, and the

O.... bade him good bye as he went to as-

> The church-yard where his children rest. The quiet spot that suits him best. There snall his grave be made And there his bones be laid, > there his countryman shall come With memory proud, with pity dumb, And strangers far and near, For many and many a year. For many a year and many an age, While History on her ample page, The virtues shall enroll,

Of that paternal soul. At the conclusion of Dr. Manchester's discourse, Bishop I. W. Joves of Minneapolis, delivered a short prayer, The hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee" was sung by the entire congregation The people remained standing the close of the hymn, while the beneliction was pronounced by Monsignen P. Thorpe of Cleveland.

The casket was then borne from the church to the funeral car, and the march procession to the cemetery by-

Sympathy from King Edward.

London, Sept. 19 .- Replying to Mrs. McKinley's acknowledgment of his telagram of sympathy, King Edward today relegraphed to Ambassador Choate:
"Please convey to Mrs. McKinley my best thanks for her kind message. The queen and I feel most deeply for her h the hour of her great affliction and pray that God may give her strength to bear her heary cross. Our thoughts will today be especially with the American nation, when its distinguished President is laid to rest. (Signed.) "EDWARD R."

Rixey Will be Naval Surgeon General Canton, Ohlo, Sept. 19.-It has been ounced that Medical In spector P. M. Rixey will be appointed surgeon general of the navy to succeed office. DR SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR. The best Liver Medicine. A Vegetable cure for Liver Ilia, Billoueness, Indigestion, Constipation Mainta

TO THE HOLDERS OF INDUSTRIAL POLICIES

OF THE Pacific Mutual Life

INSURANCE COMPANY.

The Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co. has retired from the Industrial Insurance business, and, by a contract with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., the Metropolitan has agreed to assume all the Pacific Company's outstanding Industrial Policies with the consent of the holders

The Metropolitan is the largest Industrial Company in the country, being as large as all the other Companies put together. It has over $62,000,000 assets, over $8,000,000 of surplus; nearly 51/2 millions of Industrial Policies in force for an insurance amounting to nearly a thousand millions of dollars.

It paid over $8,000,000 in death claims last year and pays a claim on the average every seven minutes. It is the most liberal Company in its treatment of Policy Holders in the whole country, or in the world. For many years it has written more insurance annually than any other company in the world.

In purely ordinary business, aside from the Industrial it stood No.

last year, being preceded only by the New York Life, The Mutual and The Industrial field force-Superintendents, Assistant Superintendents and Agents-of the Pacific have for the most part joined the Metropoli They will call upon the Policy Holders and invite them to have their policies guaranteed by the Meropolitan. The Metropolitan agrees to carry out in every respect the policy contracts of the Pacific: so that the Pacific fic Industrial Policies will now have 62 millions of assets behind them New Policies will not be required. The Pacific Policies will be stamped with a contract of assumption by the Metropolitan.

The Industrial Insurance Offices of the Pacific have become the offices of the Metropolitan. this City the office and Superintendent are as follows: Mr. Nestor A. Young, rooms 315-19 Atlas Block, Salt Lake City, Utah. The Metropolitan Insurance Company has established its Pacific coast head office at 419 California Street. San Francisco, as temporary headquarters until more commodious offices can be obtained; and from this Head Office policies will be issued and claims paid. It will be in charge of Second Vice-President Gaston and of Assistant Secretary Rob-JOHN R. HEGEMEN, President. HALEY FISKE, Vice-President. GEO. H. GASTON, Second Vice President. GEO. B. WOODWARD, Secretary. JAMES S. ROBERTS, Assistant Secretary.

DIED.

TWEDE.-Dorothea C. Twede (Gad), on Thursday morning, September 18, 1901, aged 84 years and 7 months, her late residence, 120 H street, Salt Lake City, Utah. Funeral to be announced later.

LASHAWA .- At the residence, No. 162 east, Third South street, on September 18, Mary Hazel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lashawa, of brain fever; age 2 years, 2 months, 7 days. Funeral Friday morning, 10:30, at the mat de

BEARDSLEYS MAVERN We are running a Lunch and Dinner Bill which cannot fail to please you, and the prices, too, are 25 Cents Per Pound. MARSHMELLOW TAFFY, 15 Cents Per Pound.

BUTTER CUPS.

tin to the territoria and the control of the contro

Kolitz Saturday

Special!

Kolitz Salt Lake and Ogden. to the termination of the second seco

BANK STATIONERY And printing specially attended to at the Deseret News Office. Estimates promptly furnished. Rush orders a specialty.