The trains run on good scheduled time, about 30 miles an hour, the waits are reduced to a minimum, so that our business men, to whom time is money, can travel quickly from city to city in the interest of their business. The trainmen are uniformly courteous and attentive to passengers, hence it is a real pleasure to travel on this well-managed road. The Utah Central Railway was pro-jected immediately after the comple-tion of the transcontinental roads, the Union Pacific and Central Pacific. Ground was broken in May 1869; the last spike was idriven by President Brigham Young, January 10th, 1870, and the road was formally opened for tra Bc next day.
