Streets are Now No Longer Used for Sewers After Failure in Housecleaning Attempts.

Washington, Dec. 22.—(Herald V. P. News.)—The sanitary authorities for the United States in California and Porto Rico have secured from the city of San Francisco a report of the sanitary conditions of the city. The report shows that the city is in a very bad state of sanitary condition, and that the streets are now no longer used for sewers. The sanitary authorities have given the city a capital of $100,000 to be used for the purpose of cleaning the city.
