

DESERET EVENING

WEATHER

Record at the local weather bureau for the 24th at 6 a. m. today:
Barometer reading 30.1 inches. Temperature 65 degrees; maximum, 68; minimum, 60; which is 1 normal.
Excess of daily rain since the first of the month, 1.10 inches.
Precipitation since January 1, 4.41 inches.
Accumulated deficit since Jan. 1, 4.41 inches.
FORECASTS TILL 6 P. M. DAY.

Local forecast for Saturday:
Showers tonight and early tomorrow.
Clear; (Forecast) cloudy and unsettled night and Saturday; cooler.

WEATHER CON.
An area of low pressure extending from the coast southeastward to the Gulf of Mexico, has been in existence since Jan. 1, and has been the cause of the heavy rain and high winds along the Gulf coast. The low is now off the coast of Texas, and is expected to move on to the Gulf of Mexico during the next 24 hours. The weather will be generally clear and cool.

TODAY'S TEMPERATURE

6 a. m. 60
7 a. m. 62
8 a. m. 64
9 a. m. 66
10 a. m. 68
11 a. m. 70
12 o'clock noon 72
1 p. m. 74
2 p. m. 76
3 p. m. 78
4 p. m. 80
5 p. m. 82
6 p. m. 84
7 p. m. 86
8 p. m. 88
9 p. m. 90
10 p. m. 92
11 p. m. 94
12 a. m. 96

THE SEMI-WEEKLY

THE GREAT OF THE WEST

Is issued Mondays and contains all the cream of Saturday News.

LOCAL B

Rabbi Reynolds speaks in the Jewish temple education.
The general meeting of the school teachers which was held tomorrow morning at the high school, has one week, when Superintendent will speak on the subject of Discipline in School.

There was quite a large number of people at the meeting of the Christian church at Fort Douglas, which was held at the Presbyterian church last night. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

The semi-annual meeting of the First Congregational church was held last night. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

Secretary P. J. Daly made a report on the work of the church during the year. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

George Raymond Walcott, Jr., of the city of New York, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the church last night. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

A young man giving Charles R. Bubb has been arrested by the police. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

The condition of Dr. Sandahl of Murray, who was injured yesterday by a fall from a horse, is improving. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

ZION'S SAVINGS BANK has half a million in assets. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

UTAH COMMERCIAL BANK has paid on its $100,000 loan. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

TELEGRAPH SCHOOL Night School Practical course; good positions. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

Ladies' Literary Club East, cor. Brigham street, meets every Saturday. The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

THE STANDARD. Do you have the Standard in your home? The Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker, and the Rev. Mr. Van Buren was the guest speaker.

UTAHNS IN GERMANY.

A Newsy Letter About the Movements of Our Students and Workers in Berlin—Kirkham Apparently in Luck—A Yankee Joke Wasted.

Special Correspondence.

Berlin, Oct. 24.—H. S. Goddard, with Mrs. Goddard and Preetie, have arrived here and are already comfortably located in a pleasant flat on Wollendstrasse, near the German language and is learning the German language in the Lohengrin and Tannhäuser.

Arvilla Clark's beautiful voice is being trained by Alexander Heilmann, one of the most eminent singers and teachers in Germany, who predicts a brilliant future for her. She is also studying in the opera school at Stern's conservatory, one of the best in Germany. Some idea of the magnitude of this institution may be obtained when I tell you that the corps of teachers numbers 80.

Luke Jost of Ogden, the possessor of a sweet lyric soprano voice, is also studying with Herr Heilmann. Miss Jost will be heard from.

Squire Coop is making a tour with Pres. Hugh J. Cannon through southern Germany, and anticipates spending a part or all of the winter in Italy, going then to Paris. Coop has a talent for hard work, and is a keen observer, qualities which have already made him one of Utah's best musicians.

Harold Edgewood returned rapidly in German direction and "Lieder" while here under Prof. Hev, an eminent voice builder and friend of Wagner's during the latter's later life. Harold is now in Munich and expects to go soon to Paris for further study under Schola.

Mattie Reed is studying piano under Prof. Pohl of the Stern conservatory, and is one of the most talented little women in the conservatory. Miss Reed, Miss Clark and Miss Clark, together with Mrs. Clark, have a very comfortable flat on Nuremberger Strasse, and I heard on the "Q. T." that their German neighbors consider them a "poor" family.

Oscar Kirkham, the tall blond tenor, is another busy chap. It is whispered that Frau Prof. Steinmann, his teacher, has taken quite a shine in Oscar's voice, and expects to go soon to Paris for further study under Schola.

Theodore and Albert Genter are in their third year at the Technical Scientific school, studying mining engineering. "Thee" and "Al" have the language down "pat," but they still prefer "slands-ka" to "wieners-wursts."

Their cosy flat in west Berlin is one of the most "American" dens in the Kaiserstadt.

Elders Fay Whitney and George Weller of Salt Lake, who have been doing missionary work in Holland for the past three years, spent last week in Switzerland and Italy before returning home, and expect to sail from Naples, Nov. 8.

Elder Chas. R. Maby has just returned from a six weeks trip visiting branches of the Berlin Conference, of which he is president.

Elders John Bond and Earl Garrett are located in western Berlin and are doing good missionary work.

Genial Scott Weller is acting as secretary of the German mission, headquarters at 106 Frankfurter Allee. I am quite sure in saying that friends of any of the students here can reach them by writing care of (bel) Herr Hugh J. Cannon, at the above address.

The opera and concert season has opened, and there is a world of rich things to be heard at comparatively cheap prices.

The other day, in conversation with a Vermont Yankee, a German, who had spent a number of years in America, said that his appreciation of Yankee humor was as keen as the American's. Then said the latter: "Have you heard the story of the Italian guide at Rome, who shows two skulls of the Apostle Paul, one as a boy the other as a man?" "No," said the German. "Tell it to me!"

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

ing with such artists as Van Rooy and Kreis.
We've all been shaking his hand ever since, like the fellow who wanted to grasp the hand "that had shaken the hand of Sullivan."

Agnes Dahlquist, who has spent the summer traveling in Norway and Sweden, is with us again, and is actively engaged in her piano work.

Hugh Longall is also studying with Herr Heilmann, with whom he has been ever since his arrival in Berlin a year and a half ago. He is studying also in the opera school at Stern's conservatory.

Hermann Schettler, the talented young violinist, is making good progress under the master hand of Herr Gustav Hollander.

Among the new additions to our numbers are Joseph F. Smith of Lehi and Joseph Scoville of Ogden, both studying piano. I haven't yet heard the latter, but am told that he has much natural ability. Young Smith is possessed of a very musical temperament, and judging from the vigor with which he is taking hold of his work, I feel safe in predicting for him a successful musical career.

Walter Wallace, the popular young bass, has charge of the branch choir here. Prof. Geo. H. Thomas of Logan, a former Harvard man, and later professor of political economy and history at the B. Y. and Agricultural colleges, will spend his second year in Germany at the Berlin university studying political economy, government and philosophy.

Theodore and Albert Genter are in their third year at the Technical Scientific school, studying mining engineering. "Thee" and "Al" have the language down "pat," but they still prefer "slands-ka" to "wieners-wursts."

Their cosy flat in west Berlin is one of the most "American" dens in the Kaiserstadt.

Elders Fay Whitney and George Weller of Salt Lake, who have been doing missionary work in Holland for the past three years, spent last week in Switzerland and Italy before returning home, and expect to sail from Naples, Nov. 8.

Elder Chas. R. Maby has just returned from a six weeks trip visiting branches of the Berlin Conference, of which he is president.

Elders John Bond and Earl Garrett are located in western Berlin and are doing good missionary work.

Genial Scott Weller is acting as secretary of the German mission, headquarters at 106 Frankfurter Allee. I am quite sure in saying that friends of any of the students here can reach them by writing care of (bel) Herr Hugh J. Cannon, at the above address.

The opera and concert season has opened, and there is a world of rich things to be heard at comparatively cheap prices.

The other day, in conversation with a Vermont Yankee, a German, who had spent a number of years in America, said that his appreciation of Yankee humor was as keen as the American's. Then said the latter: "Have you heard the story of the Italian guide at Rome, who shows two skulls of the Apostle Paul, one as a boy the other as a man?" "No," said the German. "Tell it to me!"

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS.

Washington.—While Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne was receiving a number of callers in the large room adjoining his private office, the center picture in the upper row of 19 portraits of former postmaster-generals which adorn one side of the room, fell with a crash to the floor. Mr. Payne stepped forward to see what damage had been done, but was anticipated by Travis Ross, a colored usher who for nearly 30 years has been chief usher to the postmaster-general. Ross picked up the picture, turned it toward the light and, with a start of surprise, cried:

"Why, it's the picture of Return Jonathan Meigs. Well, well, well, 123 cues, but did you ever hear the story of Return Jonathan?"

The chief usher tells the story of Return Jonathan very well. Indeed, his hearers never fail to evince interest and sometimes, when the narrator has been especially eloquent and touching in the romantic passages of the story, he is rewarded with a burst of applause. Some of the clerks in the department who have resided upon the picture falls, have been heard to remark that the chief usher "has the nail trained." However, this may be the picture invariably takes a tumble shortly after the entrance into office of a new postmaster-general, and at intervals during his administration whenever victims of animal importunity happen in the room where the portraits of the 19 defunct postmaster-generals hang on the wall.

Ross' story is that Jonathan Meigs, when once a young man, had a falling out with the young lady to whom he was engaged. After months of weary waiting, he decided that he was at fault and sent a message to ask if she would take her unworthy suitors back. To this touching appeal the young lady replied by the two words: "Return Jonathan." Meigs was so overjoyed at the constancy and kindness of his lady that he had a kind of nervous breakdown, and he was so overcome by the picture, being hung near the door, has never been seriously damaged. It has

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS.

Washington.—While Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne was receiving a number of callers in the large room adjoining his private office, the center picture in the upper row of 19 portraits of former postmaster-generals which adorn one side of the room, fell with a crash to the floor. Mr. Payne stepped forward to see what damage had been done, but was anticipated by Travis Ross, a colored usher who for nearly 30 years has been chief usher to the postmaster-general. Ross picked up the picture, turned it toward the light and, with a start of surprise, cried:

"Why, it's the picture of Return Jonathan Meigs. Well, well, well, 123 cues, but did you ever hear the story of Return Jonathan?"

The chief usher tells the story of Return Jonathan very well. Indeed, his hearers never fail to evince interest and sometimes, when the narrator has been especially eloquent and touching in the romantic passages of the story, he is rewarded with a burst of applause. Some of the clerks in the department who have resided upon the picture falls, have been heard to remark that the chief usher "has the nail trained." However, this may be the picture invariably takes a tumble shortly after the entrance into office of a new postmaster-general, and at intervals during his administration whenever victims of animal importunity happen in the room where the portraits of the 19 defunct postmaster-generals hang on the wall.

Ross' story is that Jonathan Meigs, when once a young man, had a falling out with the young lady to whom he was engaged. After months of weary waiting, he decided that he was at fault and sent a message to ask if she would take her unworthy suitors back. To this touching appeal the young lady replied by the two words: "Return Jonathan." Meigs was so overjoyed at the constancy and kindness of his lady that he had a kind of nervous breakdown, and he was so overcome by the picture, being hung near the door, has never been seriously damaged. It has

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS.

Washington.—While Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne was receiving a number of callers in the large room adjoining his private office, the center picture in the upper row of 19 portraits of former postmaster-generals which adorn one side of the room, fell with a crash to the floor. Mr. Payne stepped forward to see what damage had been done, but was anticipated by Travis Ross, a colored usher who for nearly 30 years has been chief usher to the postmaster-general. Ross picked up the picture, turned it toward the light and, with a start of surprise, cried:

"Why, it's the picture of Return Jonathan Meigs. Well, well, well, 123 cues, but did you ever hear the story of Return Jonathan?"

The chief usher tells the story of Return Jonathan very well. Indeed, his hearers never fail to evince interest and sometimes, when the narrator has been especially eloquent and touching in the romantic passages of the story, he is rewarded with a burst of applause. Some of the clerks in the department who have resided upon the picture falls, have been heard to remark that the chief usher "has the nail trained." However, this may be the picture invariably takes a tumble shortly after the entrance into office of a new postmaster-general, and at intervals during his administration whenever victims of animal importunity happen in the room where the portraits of the 19 defunct postmaster-generals hang on the wall.

Ross' story is that Jonathan Meigs, when once a young man, had a falling out with the young lady to whom he was engaged. After months of weary waiting, he decided that he was at fault and sent a message to ask if she would take her unworthy suitors back. To this touching appeal the young lady replied by the two words: "Return Jonathan." Meigs was so overjoyed at the constancy and kindness of his lady that he had a kind of nervous breakdown, and he was so overcome by the picture, being hung near the door, has never been seriously damaged. It has

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS.

Washington.—While Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne was receiving a number of callers in the large room adjoining his private office, the center picture in the upper row of 19 portraits of former postmaster-generals which adorn one side of the room, fell with a crash to the floor. Mr. Payne stepped forward to see what damage had been done, but was anticipated by Travis Ross, a colored usher who for nearly 30 years has been chief usher to the postmaster-general. Ross picked up the picture, turned it toward the light and, with a start of surprise, cried:

"Why, it's the picture of Return Jonathan Meigs. Well, well, well, 123 cues, but did you ever hear the story of Return Jonathan?"

The chief usher tells the story of Return Jonathan very well. Indeed, his hearers never fail to evince interest and sometimes, when the narrator has been especially eloquent and touching in the romantic passages of the story, he is rewarded with a burst of applause. Some of the clerks in the department who have resided upon the picture falls, have been heard to remark that the chief usher "has the nail trained." However, this may be the picture invariably takes a tumble shortly after the entrance into office of a new postmaster-general, and at intervals during his administration whenever victims of animal importunity happen in the room where the portraits of the 19 defunct postmaster-generals hang on the wall.

Ross' story is that Jonathan Meigs, when once a young man, had a falling out with the young lady to whom he was engaged. After months of weary waiting, he decided that he was at fault and sent a message to ask if she would take her unworthy suitors back. To this touching appeal the young lady replied by the two words: "Return Jonathan." Meigs was so overjoyed at the constancy and kindness of his lady that he had a kind of nervous breakdown, and he was so overcome by the picture, being hung near the door, has never been seriously damaged. It has

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS.

Washington.—While Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne was receiving a number of callers in the large room adjoining his private office, the center picture in the upper row of 19 portraits of former postmaster-generals which adorn one side of the room, fell with a crash to the floor. Mr. Payne stepped forward to see what damage had been done, but was anticipated by Travis Ross, a colored usher who for nearly 30 years has been chief usher to the postmaster-general. Ross picked up the picture, turned it toward the light and, with a start of surprise, cried:

"Why, it's the picture of Return Jonathan Meigs. Well, well, well, 123 cues, but did you ever hear the story of Return Jonathan?"

The chief usher tells the story of Return Jonathan very well. Indeed, his hearers never fail to evince interest and sometimes, when the narrator has been especially eloquent and touching in the romantic passages of the story, he is rewarded with a burst of applause. Some of the clerks in the department who have resided upon the picture falls, have been heard to remark that the chief usher "has the nail trained." However, this may be the picture invariably takes a tumble shortly after the entrance into office of a new postmaster-general, and at intervals during his administration whenever victims of animal importunity happen in the room where the portraits of the 19 defunct postmaster-generals hang on the wall.

Ross' story is that Jonathan Meigs, when once a young man, had a falling out with the young lady to whom he was engaged. After months of weary waiting, he decided that he was at fault and sent a message to ask if she would take her unworthy suitors back. To this touching appeal the young lady replied by the two words: "Return Jonathan." Meigs was so overjoyed at the constancy and kindness of his lady that he had a kind of nervous breakdown, and he was so overcome by the picture, being hung near the door, has never been seriously damaged. It has

RETURN JONATHAN MEIGS.

Washington.—While Postmaster-General Henry C. Payne was receiving a number of callers in the large room adjoining his private office, the center picture in the upper row of 19 portraits of former postmaster-generals which adorn one side of the room, fell with a crash to the floor. Mr. Payne stepped forward to see what damage had been done, but was anticipated by Travis Ross, a colored usher who for nearly 30 years has been chief usher to the postmaster-general. Ross picked up the picture, turned it toward the light and, with a start of surprise, cried:

"Why, it's the picture of Return Jonathan Meigs. Well, well, well, 123 cues, but did you ever hear the story of Return Jonathan?"

The chief usher tells the story of Return Jonathan very well. Indeed, his hearers never fail to evince interest and sometimes, when the narrator has been especially eloquent and touching in the romantic passages of the story, he is rewarded with a burst of applause. Some of the clerks in the department who have resided upon the picture falls, have been heard to remark that the chief usher "has the nail trained." However, this may be the picture invariably takes a tumble shortly after the entrance into office of a new postmaster-general, and at intervals during his administration whenever victims of animal importunity happen in the room where the portraits of the 19 defunct postmaster-generals hang on the wall.

Ross' story is that Jonathan Meigs, when once a young man, had a falling out with the young lady to whom he was engaged. After months of weary waiting, he decided that he was at fault and sent a message to ask if she would take her unworthy suitors back. To this touching appeal the young lady replied by the two words: "Return Jonathan." Meigs was so overjoyed at the constancy and kindness of his lady that he had a kind of nervous breakdown, and he was so overcome by the picture, being hung near the door, has never been seriously damaged. It has

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The "Pride of Heroes."
Many soldiers in the last war wrote to say that for scratches, bruises, cuts, wounds, corns, sore feet and stiff joints, Bucken's Arnica Salve is the best in the world. Same for Burns, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Skin Eruptions and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Z. C. M. I. Drug department.

The Introduction TO THE Salt Lake Public OF OUR Beautiful New Annex Store Has Met With ENTHUSIASTIC APPROVAL AND APPLAUSE!

THE OPENING WEEK OF OUR NEW REMODELED AND ENLARGED STORE was a Brilliant Success. The Thousands who visited the Store last week took careful note of the completeness—the vastness and the variety—of the different Stocks. The Superb Styles and the Incomparable Values elicited the most Favorable Comments. The Increased Shopping Facilities and the Prompt and Perfect Service Rendered, came in for their meed of praise. It was, indeed, a week of triumph for the "Auerbach" Store, and as progress is the order of the age, we would be recreant to the responsibilities of our Leadership bestowed on us by the universal verdict of the people were we not in a position to serve you better next week than ever.

OUR BARGAIN FEAST FOR NEXT WEEK KNOWS NO LIMITATIONS.

Black and Colored

Dress Goods.

Values are there to interest today's readers. To bring trade tomorrow and every day this week. To add to the fame of these departments!

12 pcs. new Wool Poplins—a high-quality satin finished dress material in corded effects, in all the street shades, 36 inches wide, excellent value at 45c. Special for this week, per yard..... 33c

New colored Zibeline Suiting, real camel's hair finish, strictly all wool in the most fashionable and staple colors, 36 inches wide and regularly sold at 80c. Special for this week, per yard..... 46c

An endless variety of styles in Scotch Wool Plaids, in the most tasteful color combinations—suitable for children's dresses—38 inches wide, Regular 96c quality, this week, per yard..... 49c

23-inch wide black camel's hair suitings and skirts—strictly all wool and very fashionable this season, worth $1.50. Special for this week, per yard..... $1.15

Pebbled Etrianines—44 inches wide—those soft clinging, crepe effects—very fashionable and well worth $1.75. Monday and all week, per yard..... $1.25

Unmatchable Glove Values

FOUR SPECIALS FOR THIS WEEK.

UNMATCHABLE VALUES FROM POINT OF QUALITY AND LITTLE PRICE. GLOVES THAT FIT WELL, LOOK WELL, AND WERE NEVER EQUALLED FOR WEAR AT SUCH PRICES.

Women's P. K. sewed, Swede Kid Gloves, with Paris Point Embroidery, in black, gray, white, and tan, the best $1.25. Glove made, on sale this week, only at..... 90c

Women's Plain Colored Fancy Knitted Golf Gloves, in cardinal, white, black and brown, best 50c grade, on sale this week, at..... 35c

WOMEN AND CHILDREN'S

Winter Underwear.

UNDERWEAR WHICH IS OF THE PROPER WEIGHT, PROPER MATERIALS, AND MADE TO FIT SATISFACTORILY AT WONDERFULLY LITTLE PRICES.

Women's Jersey ribbed fleece Union Suits, "Mellie Make" all seamless, in natural gray, good heavy weight, the 66c kind at..... 45c

Women's best quality "Harvard Make" cream Jersey ribbed Union Suits, best $1.50 grade, this week, all sizes, at..... 1.15

Children's best quality non-shrinkable natural gray wool vests and pants, sizes 16 to 24, regular price for size 16, the best $2.50 grade, on sale this week, per size..... 20c

Women's fine fast black Wool Union Suits, in all sizes, the best $2.50 grade, on sale this week, at..... 1.95

Everything in Silks!

That long experience in buying for our public or popular favor demands is now in our silk department. Our marvelous silk selling enables us to obtain for you the greatest price concessions, making today's quotations lower than the same grades are offered for elsewhere.

A special invoice of extra wide width

Black, Guaranteed Silks, (bought under price)—all 36 inches wide—in taffetas, peau de soie and peau de cygne.

1-3 Less than regular values.

36-inch Black Taffeta less than regular values—1.19

36-inch Black Taffeta now at, a yard..... $1.33

36-inch Black Taffeta now at, a yard..... $1.58

36-inch Peau de Soie now at, a yard..... $1.69

36-inch Peau de Cygne now at, a yard..... $1.44

For Evening Wear! A new shipment of 24-inch Crepe de Chine—lustrous qualities—in all the latest tints, also blacks—as a special offering, per yard—

44-inch Pompadour Grenadines in black and colored grounds, the newest gauge material at (per yard)—

Black and Colored

Women's extra fine silk