LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

HIGH COUNCIL.—The High Council will meet on Friday, Nov. 12th, at 10 a.m., at the City Hall. A punctual attendance is requested.

THEATRICAL.—Last night there was a favorable house to witness the entertainment for the benefit of Mrs. C. DeBar.

"The Romance of a Poor Young Man," as a whole, was presented in a very creditable manner, and contained many points of excellence.

The very difficult role of the Marquis Champcey Mr. Hardie must have gratified his friends; his conception and rendition of the character evinced both study and care.

As Mr. Desmarets, Mr. McKenzie was at times, indeed; and while witnessing his splendid impersonation of this character, we could not help thinking "What a pity it was the profession should be deprived of the services of a gentleman possessing such eminent ability, and who is so well qualified to adorn it!"

Mr. Lindsay's Gaspar Laroque was a fine artistic portraiture of a conscience-stricken old man.

In such characters as De Bevannes,—a perfect fop, Mr. Graham is not easily excelled, and his delineation of this character last night was commendable.

Mrs. De Bar played an excellent Madame Auberger, but we were not so favorably impressed with her Madame Aubrey, and, though comparisons may be odious, we think Mrs. Bowring would have made more of this character.

We are sorry to say that, owing to severe indisposition, Miss Lockhart was unable to do justice to the character she essayed,—that of Marguerite.

At the close of the piece Mrs. DeBar was called before the curtain, and, in response to calls for a speech, very briefly thanked the audience for their attendance, and expressed the hope that so long as she had the honor of appearing before the public of Salt Lake she should be worthy of their patronage.

In the afterpiece—"The Swiss Swains" Messrs. Margetts and Graham, Mrs. De Bar and Miss Ward kept the people laughing from the commencement to the close, Mrs. De Bar's Dame Glib being worthy of special notice.

Tonight the famous sensation piece entitled "The Streets of New York" will be presented.

PRISONER ESCAPED.—Warden Rockwood has one of his boarders from his mansion in the Sugar House Ward on the 9th inst. The gentleman in question is named Edward Ramsay. He is about five feet nine inches high, weighs 140 pounds, has dark hair and complexion and dark-blue eyes, and is 36 years of age. The Warden will give twenty-five dollars to any person who will restore this individual to his vacant place in the Penitentiary.

MORE EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY.—Peter Mortenson, convicted of horse stealing at the September term of the Probate Court, and sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary, was pardoned by His Excellency Gov. Durkee on the 4th instant, after having been in charge of the Warden about three weeks. Utah is an excellent place for criminals!

FROM THE MISSIONARIES.—We have received a letter, dated Omaha, Nov. 5, signed, on their own and others' behalf, by Bishops Hardy, Weiler and Sheets and Elder Geo. B. Wallace, belonging to the company of missionaries which left this city on the 1st inst., acknowledging kindness and assistance rendered them at Uintah and Echo by Bishop John Sharp; also expressing their perfect satisfaction in regard to the cars and general treatment received from the U. P. R. R. Co.

These brethren further say:

"We think it also our duty to inform the brethren, who are expecting to start on the 20th inst., that it would be wise to secure their tickets for New York and elsewhere before leaving Salt Lake, as they are very much higher here than there; at least we experience a great deal of difficulty in getting them at the same price as there."

A note from Elder Theodore Curtis confirms the above information with regard to the necessity of procuring tickets before leaving this city. Brother Curtis says there had been an accident on the train on which he was traveling, but no one was hurt; if it had recurred a few minutes sooner it would most likely have been serious. The general opinion among the passengers was that it was caused by the carelessness of the engineer and was done on purpose.

DIED.—In the 20th Ward of this city, at twenty-five minutes to six o'clock, last evening, of bilious and rheumatic fever, Elder George Smith, aged 67 years, 9 months and 10 days.

Deceased was born at Newbury, Berkshire, England, February, 28th, 1802. He obeyed the gospel in London, in 1851, and emigrated to Utah in 1860. He has been one of the humble, faithful lovers of truth, and in his life has honored his calling and the principles of the gospel in which he believed. He was honored and respected for his integrity, and died as calmly as though falling asleep.

His funeral obsequies will take place at the 20th Ward School-house to-morrow at two o'clock. Friends are invited to attend.

STATE OF THE WEATHER, per Deseret Telegraph Line, received at 10 a.m.:

Springville, cloudy and appearance of storm. Payson, raining and looks quite wintry. Fountain Green, has been storming all morning, but mild and pleasant now. Mount Pleasant, raining and cold. Gunnison, raining this morning, but clearing up now. Scipio, very cloudy and looks like a storm. Fillmore, quite cloudy, storming at intervals. Cove Creek, cloudy and much like a storm. Beaver, very cloudy, looks like snow soon. St. George, warm and pleasant, with a few flying clouds in sight; thermometer 56. Ogden, raining hard.

The weather in this city is dull, stormy and cool.

SANPETE.—Our traveling agent, writing from Mount Pleasant, Sanpete county, on the 7th instant, says "I have found the people feeling remarkably well in health and spirits and highly delighted over the recent visit of the President and party. I hear less grumbling and fault-finding than ever before in my travels through these settlements, and a spirit of improvement seems to be manifest everywhere. A fine new meeting house is being built here in Mount Pleasant, and the people are busy threshing the largest crop of wheat ever raised in Sanpete."

Died.

At River Dale, Weber County, on the 6th inst., of consumption, Nancy Maria Ritter, the beloved wife of George M. Ritter and daughter of Lee and Nancy Bybee, aged 20 years, 5 months and 6 days, after an illness of 17 months.

Deceased was born at Council Bluffs, Iowa, in 1849. She came to this country with her parents in Captain William McClellan's company in 1850.

INSTUCTIONS TO BIDDERS AND POSTMASTERS.

Containing also conditions to be incorporated in the contracts to the extent the Department may deem proper.

1. Seven minutes are allowed to each intermediate office, when not otherwise specified, for assorting the mails; but on railroad and steamboat routes there is to be no more delay than is sufficient for an exchange of the mail pouches.

2. On railroad and steamboat lines, and other routes where the mode of conveyance admits of it, the special agents of the Post Office Department, also post-office blanks, mail bags, locks and keys, are to be conveyed without extra charge.

3. On railroad and steamboat lines the route agents of the Department, also the British and Canada mails, when offered, and the agents accompanying them; are to be conveyed without charge; and for the use of the United States agents a commodious car, or part of a car, properly lighted, warmed, and furnished, and adapted to the convienent seperation and the security of the mails, is to be provided by the contractor, under the direction of the Department.

4. Railroad and steamboat companies are required to take the mail from, and deliver it into, the post offices at the beginning and end of their routes, and to and from all offices not more than eighty rods from a station or landing. Proposals may be submitted by the companies for the performance of all other side service—that is, for offices over eighty rods from a station or landing.

There will be "way bills" prepared by postmasters, or other agents of the Department, to accompany the mails conveyed on railroad and steamboat routes, specifying the number and destination of the several bags. On other principal routes, likewise, receipts will be required and way bills forwarded; the latter to be examined by the several postmasters, to insure regularity in the delivery of mails.

4. No pay will be made for trips not performed; and for each of such omissions, not satisfactorily explained, three times the pay of the trip will be deducted. For arrivals so far behind time as to break connection with depending mails, and not sufficiently accounted, one-fourth of the compensation for the trip is subject to forfeiture. For repeated delinquencies of the kind herein specified, enlarged penalties, proportioned to the nature thereof, and the importance of the mail, may be made.

5. For leaving behind or throwing off the mails, or any portion of them, for the admission of passengers, or for being concerned in setting up or running an express conveying intelligence in advance of the mail, a quarter's pay may be deducted.

6. Fines will be imposed, unless the delinquency be promptly and satisfactorily explained by certificates of postmasters or the affidavits of other credible persons, for failing to arrive in contract time; for neglecting to take the mail from, or deliver it into, a post office; for suffering it to be wet, injured, destroyed, robbed, or lost; and for refusing, after demand, to convey the mail as frequently as the contractor runs, or is concerned in running, a coach, car, or steamboat on a route.

7. The Postmaster General may annul the contract for repeated failures to run agreeably to contract; for violating the post office laws, or disobeying the instructions of the Department; for refusing to discharge a carrier when required by the Department to do so; for running an express as aforesaid; or for transporting persons or packages conveying mailable matter out of the mail.

8. The Postmaster General may order an increase of service on a route by allowing therefor a pro rata increase on the contract pay. He may change schedules of departures and arrivals in all cases, and particularly to make them conform to connections with railroads, without increase of pay, provided the running time be not abridged. The Postmaster General may also discontinue or curtail the service, in whole or in part, in order to place on the route superior service, or whenever the public interest, in his judgment, shall require such discontinuance or curtailment for any other cause; he allowing a full indemnity to contractor one month's extra pay on the amount of service dispensed with, and a pro rata compensation for the amount of service retained and continued.

9. Payments will be made by collections from or drafts on, postmasters, or otherwise, after the expiration of each quarter—say in November, February, May, and August.

10. The distances are given according to the best information; but no increased pay will be allowed should they be greater than advertized, if the points to be supplied are correctly stated: Bidders must inform themselves on this point, and also in reference to the weight of the mail, the condition of roads, hills, streams, &c., and all toll bridges, ferries, or obstructions of any kind by which expense may be incurred. No claim for additional pay, based on such ground, can be considered; nor for alleged mistakes or misapprehension as to the degree of service; nor for bridges destroyed, ferries discontinued, or other obstructions increasing distance or expense, occurring during the contract term. Offices established after this advertisement is issued, and also during the contract term, are to be visited without extra pay, if the distance be not increased.

11. Bidders are cautioned to mail their proposals in time to reach the Department by the day and hour named, (3 p.m., March 1, 1870,) for bids received after that time WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED in competition with a bid of reasonable amount received in time. Neither can bids be considered which are without the guarantee required by law and a certificate of the sufficiency of such guarantee.

12. Bidders should first propose for service strictly according to the advertisment, and then, if they desire, SEPARATELY, for different service; and if the REGULAR bid be the lowest offered for the advertised service, the other propositions may be considered.

13. There should be but one route bid for in a proposal. Consolidated or combination bids ("proposing one sum for two or more routes") are forbidden by law, and cannot be considered.

14. The route, the service, the yearly pay, the name and residence of the bidder, (that is, his usual post office address,) and the name of each member of a firm, where a company offers, should be distinctly stated.

15. Bidders are requested to use, as far as practicable, the printed proposals furnished by the Department, to write out in full the sum of their bids, and to retain copies of them.

Altered bids should not be submitted; nor should bids once submitted be withdrawn. No withdrawal of a bidder or guarantor will be allowed unless the withdrawal is dated and received before the last day for receiving proposals.

Each bid must be guaranteed by two responsible persons. The bid and guarantee should be SIGNED plainly with the full name of each person.

The Department reserves the right to reject any bid which may be deemed extravagant, and also to disregard the bids of failing contractors and bidders. [Act of July 2, 1836, section 24.]

13. The bid should be sealed, superscribed "Mail Proposals, Territory of Utah," addressed "Second Assistant Postmaster General, Contractors Office," and sent by MAIL, not by or to an agent; and postmasters will not inclose proposals (or letters of any kind) in their quarterly returns.

17. The contracts are to be executed and returned to the Department by or before the 1ST DAY OF JULY, 1870; but the service must be begun on that day, or on the mail day next after it, whether the contracts be executed or not Transfers of contracts, or of interest in contracts, are forbidden by law, and consequently cannot be allowed. Bidders will therefore take notice that they will be expected to perform the service accepted to them through the whole term of the contract.

18. Postmasters at offices on or near railroads, but more than eighty rods from a station, will, immediately after the 1st of March next, report their exact distance from the nearest station, to enable the Postmaster General to direct a mail-messenger supply from the 1st of July next.

19. Section eighteen of an act of Congress approved March 3, 1845, provides that contracts for the transportation of the mail shall be let, "in every case, to the lowest bidder tendering sufficient guarantees for faithful performance, without other reference to the mode of such transportation than may be necessary to provide for the due celerity, certainty and security of such transportation." Under this law all that propose to transport the mails with 'celerity, certainty, and security,' having been decided to be the only legal bids, are construed as providing for the entire mail, however large, and whatever may be the mode of conveyance necessary to insure the 'celerity, certainty and security,' and have the preference over all others, and no others are considered.

20. A modification of a bid in any of its essential terms is tantamount to a new bid, and can not be received, so as to interfere with regular competition. Making a new bid, with guarantee and certificate, is the only way to modify a previous bid.

21. Postmasters are to be careful not to certify the sufficiency of guarantors, or sureties, without knowing that they are persons of sufficient responsibility; a disregard of this instruction by postmasters is a violation of their oath of office, subjecting them to immediate removal. All bidders, guarantors, and sureties are distinctly notified that on a failure to enter into or perform the contracts for the service proposed for in the accepted bids, their legal liabilities will be enforced against them.

22. Present contractors, and persons known at the Department, must, equally with others, procure guarantors and certificates of their sufficiency substantially in the forms above prescribed. The certificate of sufficiency must be signed by a postmaster, or by a judge of a court of record. No other will be admitted.
