Talks With Henry Miller and Miss Allen—Stanford's Concours—The Logan Choir—Maudie Adams and Her Mother.

The melodic and brilliant accompaniment of the past week has engendered in the minds of the public a desire to know more of the artist who has been so successful in his work. It is to be regretted that Mr. Miller is no longer a "home" artist, but his work is so well known that it is not necessary to say much about it. His work is so well known that it is not necessary to say much about it. His work is so well known that it is not necessary to say much about it.
