LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

PROFESSOR SILVESTER. — There was a good attendance at the Theatre last night to witness the wonderful feats of leger de main which were performed by Professor Silvester. He is a master in the profession, and only long and careful study and practice could have enabled him to execute with such dexterity and neatness his various tricks. He will continue his performances here for one week.

PRESIDENT YOUNG AND PARTY.— President B. Young, Presidents Geo. A. Smith, Joseph Young, Sen., Elders Wilford Woodruff, Joseph F. Smith, John Smith, E. F. Sheets, T. W. Ellerbeck, Ezra T. Clark and John Squires reached Wahsatch a little before noon yesterday, and were there met by their teams and President D. P. Kimball, Bishop Wm. Budge, and Elders Joseph C. Rich, and Sol. Hale, and a mounted escort from Bear Lake Valley. The intention of the company was to proceed to Woodruff, 22 miles distant, and there stop for the night; to-day they intended to drive to Ithaca, at the head of the Lake.

ELDER'S QUORUM.—The Elders' Quorum will meet, en masse, in the Tabernacle, to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock. Members are also invited to attend.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.—Received by Deseret Telegraph:

BEAVER, June 27.

The last news item from here states that the Indian was arrested on Cove Creek. They inquired of Judge Murdock, by telegraph, what they should do with the prisoner. He told them to have him brought safe to Beaver, that he might be dealt with according to law. As the body had not been found, two of the party that arrested him took the prisoner to the scene of the murder that he might show where the body was. When on their way they met the brother of O'Connell, who accompanied them. The Indian showed them where he left the body, but it was gone. On looking around the party found an inscription on a tree close by, stating that the miners who left Beaver in search of the body had found it, and from every indication they had just gone. On their return to the mill they fell in with the party having the body. It was then dark, and through a disagreement between the friends of the deceased and the party in charge of the prisoner, while going over the summit of a mountain, studded with brush and timber, he made his escape. The next place he turned up at was at Cove Creek early in the morning, where he awoke John King, wishing him to tell his squaws. Before the men of the Fort knew anything of this the prisoner had taken to the mountains. The news of Sisnick's escape was made known to Mosoquap, Kanosh's war-chief, who scoured the mountains and re-captured him in the mountains northward of Cove Creek, and delivered him up to the authorities at Corn Creek, who had him sent to Cove. John Hunt, the Sheriff at Beaver, and Gideon Murdock went from here to Cove to bring the prisoner in. In Wild Cat Kanyon they met the prisoner in charge of a party from Cove, and the Sheriff took the prisoner and brought him into Beaver. In the evening, after he was placed in a cell and ironed, and in charge of the Sheriff, the authorities of Beaver, with an interpreter, visited the Indian, holding a conversation with him in relation to the murder. While in the cell one James Puffer, a citizen of this place, came into the cell and offered his services to the Sheriff to stand guard part of the night. The Sheriff told him he had plenty of help. After the departure of the authorities and interpreter, and while the Sheriff was giving the Indian a drink, this puffer stepped up behind the Sheriff, having had a concealed weapon on him, and fired two shots at the prisoner, stating that he would save all further trouble with the "son of a bitch." The first shot struck the middle of the left hand, ranging up the palm of the hand and coming out in the wrist behind the thumb. The other shot was aimed for his heart, but the minute the first shot was fired the Sheriff turned around, striking Puffer's arm and knocking the muzzle down, the shot striking the centre of the left thigh, and passing down to the hip bone, the Indian being in a sitting position. Puffer was immediately seized by the Sheriff and constable and disarmed. This transpired on Saturday night. Yesterday morning about seven o'clock, while the Sheriff was at breakfast, he left one Charles Nickerson in charge of the prisoner. Dan O'Connell, the brother of the man whom the Indian killed, said he received from the Sheriff a verbal permit to visit the Indian. Nickerson, on the strength of this, allowed O'Connell to go into the cell where the prisoner was confined, at the same time leaving O'Connell alone with the prisoner. O'Connell took his revolver and fired five shots into the body of the prisoner, killing him instantly. Puffer and O'Connell are under arrest. The Indian will be buried this evening.

A BEASTLY FELLOW.—A fellow named John Myers was brought up before Dr. Clinton, yesterday, on a charge of attempting to commit a rape on an old squaw. The evidence produced at the trial proved Myers to be a most unmitigated brute. The particulars are too disgusting for publication. He was sentenced to serve a term of one hundred days on the public works.

A BRILLIANT METEOR.—Brigham H. Young, Esq., of this city, while traveling in Rush Valley, towards this city, on Sunday morning, at about half-past one o'clock, saw a meteor in the eastern sky, seemingly about eighteen inches or two feet long, and the same in diameter, as bright as the rising sun. It was visible for about a minute, when it fell on a mountain seemingly in the vicinity of Bingham Kanyon.

MUSICAL.—The meeting of the members of the various ward choirs in the City, held in the Tabernacle last night, was unmercifully attended, and the proposal to turn out on foot, on the Fourth, and form a portion of the vast procession which will promenade on the grand occasion, was received with enthusiasm and acclamation. A variety of musical exercises, with a view of preparing for choral performances, were gone through. Ample preliminary arrangements for the general comfort of those who shall take part in the celebration, have been made.

OUR TERRITORIAL TELEGRAPH.—We publish, with pleasure, the following communication of Superintendent Musser, with regard to our Territorial Telegraph:

SALT LAKE CITY, June 27th, 1871.

Editor Deseret News:—It is not generally known that Utah is the only Territory of the United States that has built and owns a great many miles of Telegraph Lines. In this matter we are also ahead of some of the States. Our lines are now some 600 miles in extent. The Deseret Telegraph Company have already ordered the wire and other materials for additional lines, viz: from St. George to Washington, via Pine Valley, and Hebron, Panaca and Bullion City to Pioche, in Nevada, one hundred miles; another from Toker, via Virgen City, Rockville, Short Creek, Windsor Castle, Kanab, to Long Valley in Kane Co., one hundred miles; another from Payson, via Santaquin and Newton, (alias) Goshen) to Diamond, Silver, and Eureka Cities, in Tintic Valley; some twenty-six miles; another from Salt Lake City, via E. T. and Tooele Cities and Grantsville, in Tooele County, fifty miles; another from Salt Lake to Bingham Kanyon, twenty miles; another from Echo to Coalville in Summit County, five miles, and still another from Franklin, Cache County, via St. Charles and Bloomington, to Paris, in Rich County, some thirty-five miles. These new extensions, when completed and added to those already built, will total about 1000 miles of telegraph wire belonging to the company. We hope to have these lines all completed within three months from date.

Respectfully,

A. M. MUSSER, Supt.

ST. LOUIS.—We learn through a letter from Elder D. M. Stuart, of the 14th inst., that he had closed his speech's lectures in that city and neighborhood. He reports it is the expectation of the Saints in the neighborhood of St. Louis, who are desirous of living their religion, to emigrate the present season. The weather is very warm in that city.

NEW REFORM.—The introduction of Soda Water and Sarsaparilla, by Day & Co., has done more in the way of a Temperance Reform than all the lectures that have been delivered in the country. The natural condition of man is a thirsty one, and it has long been an established fact that water will not quench thirst. The question then arises, can we find a substitute as harmless in its effects, and more delicious in taste than anything yet discovered? We find it in Day & Co.'s Soda and Sarsparilla. If every one would sign the Pledge and drink nothing but this Celebrated Beverage, much degradation, misery, shame and crime would be prevented in the world. If any one doubts the truth of our remarks let them step into the first place they come to and try it. It will vouch for itself. en(170)tf
