THE FUNERAL services of President Heber C. Kimball will be conducted in the New Tabernacle, on Wednesday, 24th inst., at two o'clock in the afternoon.

UNIVERSAL.—On the news of President Kimball's death being made known, the flags were raised half-mast high throughout the city, and everywhere we were to-day, and from all sorts of people, we heard the strongest utterances of grief on the occasion, although such an event was not unexpected. The feelings expressed, show how deep seated is the affection entertained for the leaders of Israel by the people. The mourners for President Kimball are all who know him and could appreciate his worth, and the thousands of Latter-day Saints who never even saw him.

THEATRE.—As a tribute of respect to the memory of our beloved Brother, President Heber C. Kimball, the Theatre will be closed until after his obsequies. CLAWSON & CAINE.

Monday, June 22, 1908.
THEATRE.—"Under the Gaslight" was again repeated on Saturday night to another crowded house. Each performance sees some change and improvement; and the delighted audiences have no appearance of wearying of the fun, frolic, pathos, virtue, villainy, singing, dancing, fine scenery, mechanical effects and startling sensations in the play. It will be repeated.

NARRATIVE MEETINGS.—Elder Alma L. Smith gave an interesting account of his labors on his missions to the Sandwich Islands, from the last one of which he has recently returned. He entered at some length into the circumstances connected with the course of Walter M. Gibson, which had led to the sending of Elders to the islands in the Spring of 1861, of whom he was one. The efforts of the brethren to remove the effects of Gibson's deceptive career among the natives, and their labors to grow cotton, sugar cane, and in other ways prosper the mission, were dwelt upon by the speaker; who also described some of the feelings, peculiarities and habits of the natives. While upon his late mission to that part of the world, he had been the recipient of courtesies and kindnesses which he had not experienced on his previous mission. When traveling around the islands, horses would be furnished to the Elders to go from one place to another, and money was frequently given them to bear their expenses. He bore his testimony to the truth, and spoke of the feelings he had while gone from his friends and his home in Zion. And in expressing his feelings, he related the circumstances connected with the murder of his father and brother at Haun's Mill, Missouri, in 1838, and his being severely wounded at the same time and place himself.

Afternoon.
Elder George A. Smith delivered a historical discourse, showing the condition of Christianity for a few centuries after the death of the Savior and that of Paganism during the same time, with the persecutions endured by the Christians, and the gradual corruption of the gospel principles through their intermixture with heathen rites and ceremonies and the theories of philosophers. He traced the establishment of the Greek and Latin churches referred to the crusades; and brought the history down to the period of the Reformation, treating on the spread of the Protestant faith in various countries. He took up the question of authority, showing that none exists among the various sects and churches; and advanced the reasons why the Lord had bestowed the Priesthood upon Joseph Smith. The only arguments employed against the authority bestowed upon Joseph were mobs, persecutions and cruelties. The Lord never has had a church on the earth but it has had an inspired head; and when Joseph was martyred his spirit and authority fell upon President Young, to which thousands can bear the most unequivocal and strongest testimony.

GOT HOME.—We had a call this morning from Mr. George A. Alder, of the firm of Dunford & Sons, who got back from the East on Friday night, having made the season's purchases for the firm.

He informed us that Laramie river was very high when he left that point this day week, the water being about three feet on the outside of the bridge. All the streams by the way are high. Indians are reported to be between North Platte and Sulphur Springs. Sharp's train started back from Laramie last Friday week, the 12th inst. Dunford's train started on Monday, 15th. S. Teasdale, Esq., of the firm of Jennings & Co., was at Laramie loading up. He had loaded one train. Two car loads of freight had just arrived for that firm, and freight was coming up for them regularly. Business at Laramie is not very brisk. The terminus is expected to be at North Platte by the 20th of July, and at Green River by the middle of October.

Bro. Alder reports the branch at St. Louis as flourishing under the direction of Elder D. M. Stuart. They have good meetings, and considerable interest is felt in them, quite a number of strangers attending.

Business East was somewhat dull, but an improvement was looked for, the prospects for harvest being good throughout the States.

SHORT AND SHARP.—The Cheyenne papers tell of a murder, and summary execution that occurred at Fort Saunders a week ago. On yesterday week, the 14th, a soldier, named Brown, was behaving in a disorderly manner, when Lieutenant W. W. Bell ordered him, as punishment, to carry a knapsack. The soldier, instead of obeying, seized a gun and shot the officer on the spot. Brown was instantly arrested, and shortly after was shot by twenty-four of his comrades.

HORRIBLE SUICIDE.—The fate for which Byrd destined himself, in "Under the Gaslight," was realized in Cheyenne this day week, only instead of being a murder it was a suicide. A man named R. W. Hall, aged 27 years, a native of New York State, and a son of a clergyman, de liberately disposed his body on the rails as a train of cars was approaching, and six of them passed over him before they could be stopped. Results: the bones of the neck so broken and crushed that the head was held on to the body by the skin alone; the left arm and side and both legs ground to a shapeless mass, with portions of the ribs and other bones scattered along the banks for a considerable distance. He was dead! Cause: whisky.

THE TABERNACLE CHORUS will meet to-morrow evening in the New Tabernacle at half-past seven o'clock. Persons not belonging to the choir will be obliged by informing any of the members of this meeting.
