LET US BE THANKFUL.

To-MORROW will be Thanksgiving Day. The Latter-day Saints have much to be thankful for. No people in the world have greater cause than they to be grateful, to the Giver of all the rest of her class. good. They have had an abundant harvest of grain and fruit. Their cattle and sheep grow and increase. The grass in the meadows and on the hills afford abundant feed for their stock.

The treasures of the everlasting bills and brought forth to contribute to their riches. Peace prevails within their borders. Health abounds. The clear waters flow down from the heights. The bright sun smiles from a lovely sky, and the balmy yet bracing air is full of life. Their families flourish and increase like a flock. Music and song and the glad laughter of innocent children are heard in their habitations. Praise and prayer ascend morning and would from their family circles. Union and brotherly love are manifest among them, enhanced by efforts against their peace. They have the revelations of God for their guidance The sweet Spirit of Truth whispers comfort to their souls. The testimony of Jesus is in their hearts. The treasures of heavenly knowledge have been unlocked for their enrichment. The way of salvation has been opened up to tion." them, and their feet have been placed therein. The Holy Priesthood is in their midst with the keys of redemption for the living and the dead. Tem ples, set in order by the word of the Most High, are bringing them into closer communion with the heavens, and the hearts of the children are turned to the fathers behind the vell while the hearts of the fathers are braed to the children with joy and satisfaction. Their leaters are preserved to give them counsel, and the work of the Lord rolls on at home and aurond. Their blessings are a thousand fol greater than their trials. Their faith maches into eternity. They know that tooir Redeem r lives. as shown in New York, indicate the resumption of old lines. The Irish are all back again, and the Mugwumps are also at home. It is, indeed, laughable The Mugwumps voted for Davenpor o indorse Cleveland; the Irish voted or Hill to spite Cleveland. These two lements are hereditarily antagonistic The Mugwumps at one time used to caricature the Irish vote as overbalanced by the negro vote. Now the Mugwumps themselves were in the scale against the Irish, and were overbalineed. The Chicago Tritune has taken to carica-turing Blaine's Irish friends because they voted for Hill. Last Sunday's paper gives a picture showing the evolution from immigrant to State Sena-tor. The first stage represents General Logan's father when he landed in New York. The last stage is a good photo-graph of Dr. Cronan of this city. The intermediate stages are pictures of well known characters. The fourth stage is that of Mr. Suilivan, the Tribune editor who writes the "Mor-mon" articles, and known as "Bladder lim." Of course, there are Irish republicans as well as any other race.
