

CITIZEN'S TICKET IS MUCH FAVORED

Enthusiastic Meeting is Held in Judge Lewis' Court Room.

DELEGATES TO BE UNPLEDGED

Speeches Declare for a Business Administration and Freedom From Spoils System.

A number of citizens of the First municipal ward met last evening in Judge Lewis' court room, city and county building, for the purpose of discussing in an informal way the question of putting an Independent Citizen's ticket in the field next November. Milando Pratt was elected chairman of the meeting and W. H. Lovejoy secretary.

A number of brief speeches were made, all in favor of the election of a business administration and the doing away with the spoils system to which the present party leaders are committed. The speakers pointed out that normal conditions cannot be restored until the citizens themselves elect the men they want. Several of the speakers expressed their firm belief, founded on what they had learned in conversation with people of all parties, that a ticket composed of business men in whom all can have confidence, would be sure of election, because of the general dissatisfaction with prevailing conditions. Many, one speaker said, who had voted the "American" ticket, were to his knowledge, sick and tired of the strife, the extravagance in public expenditures, and the ever increasing taxes, and would gladly vote a citizen's ticket, whenever they could do so without stultifying themselves. The motion to form a temporary organization for the purpose of laying the matter before the voters of the First municipal ward, and to confer with citizens in other wards, was carried unanimously. A committee consisting of 30 members, two from each district, was elected.

Of Nat Reiss Carnival Company Coming to the Salt Palace.

The Nat Reiss Carnival company, bigger and better than ever, will open the Salt Palace season here during the week commencing May 24 with all the good features of former years and many new ones, including Roy Knabenshue, the world-famous aerobaut, and his air-ship.

Nat Reiss, sole owner of the big carnival company, was in the city last Wednesday and closed negotiations for a week's lease on the park so that his big shows will occupy the most desirable portions of the grounds and thereby operate to better advantage than ever before in this city. The Reiss Carnival company, this year, carries fully 350 performers and employees and Mr. Reiss states that no expense will be spared in giving local amusement lovers the best efforts of the entire company in every department of the many attractions.

MRS. ONYON IS FOUND.

Her Brother Discovers Her Wandering Aimlessly in the Streets.

Mrs. W. T. Onyon, who left the Groves Latter-day Saints hospital on Tuesday evening last, was found last evening on Second East street in the vicinity of her sister's home. She seemed to be wandering aimlessly when seen by her brother, H. G. Jolley, Jr., at 8:40 o'clock last night, and he immediately accosted her and took her to the home of Mrs. Lennie Edmunds, where she was placed in bed.

Mrs. Onyon's mind is evidently somewhat affected, as she was not able to tell where she had been staying since she left the hospital, further than to say that she had stopped up town. Her father, H. O. Jolley, believes that she took a room and that she has since remained inside. She had evidently been well cared for, as her appearance was clean, though she appeared weak and tired.

Naturally the finding of the lost woman has caused great rejoicing among members of the family. The police also feel relieved as they have searched the city and the hills in the hope of locating her. They cannot understand how she could hide up in the city for several days without some word reaching them as to her whereabouts.

LIVED 152 YEARS.

William Parr-England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright of Spurluck, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." # CHILDREN GO BACK TO THEIR MOTHER

First Decree of Divorce Under New Law Parts Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hanson.

OTHER FRIDAY MATINEE ACTS

The Clawsons, After Trying to Patch Differences, Decide to Fight For Singleness.

Georgia Ida Moore Hanson, the young and pretty niece of Samuel Newhouse, who secretly married Bernard William Hanson in Brigham City, June 4, 1907, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce yesterday by Judge Morse, because her husband was too lazy to work. Under the new divorce law, Mrs. Hanson was the first to be granted a decree. It will become absolute in six months and in a year from now Mrs. Hanson will be free to marry again.

Their marriage was the sequel of a case of child love, and after they wed were afraid to tell their parents. It was several months before it was made known. They were attending school at the time.

Mrs. Hanson said that for several months she had lived with her parents in the Bransford apartments and that her husband had lived there with them for a month or two after their marriage was announced.

When Judge Morse asked Mrs. Hanson why her husband did not support her she replied:

"Why, he was too lazy to work. That seemed to be the only trouble with him."

Mrs. G. C. Moore, her mother, corroborated her testimony. Hanson signed a waiver of time to answer and his default was entered about an hour after the complaint was filed, and the decree granted.

THE OVERHOLTS PARTED.

Jennie Overholt was given an interlocutory decree from John Overholt on the grounds of cruelty. They were married in La Junta, Colo., Oct. 23, 1904. When they moved to Utah, a short time afterward, Overholt began to abuse her. He struck her on several occasions and lost his position with the Western Pacific railroad company for ill-treating his wife. He deserted her in Oct. 1908, after losing his position.

Mrs. Overholt was a widow when she married Overholt and had one daughter, Maggie, by a former marriage. Her daughter told how Overholt abused her mother and that she was afraid of him.

HER HUSBAND IS LOST.

Mrs. Emma Fleming, a trained nurse, was given an interlocutory decree from C. D. Fleming on the grounds of desertion. They were married in St. Louis on Jan. 2, 1901. For more than two years she has been living here with her brother-in-law and has provided for herself. She knows nothing of the whereabouts of Fleming.

CLAWSONS DECIDE TO QUIT.

After two reconciliations, Charles W. Clawson and his wife, Anna, finally decided to secure a divorce and yesterday Mrs. Clawson began a fight for a division of the property. Judge Morse entered an order compelling Clawson to pay his wife $15 a month alimony. Mrs. Clawson also wanted an interest in some property, valued at $5,000, which he holds in his name. They were married in Salt Lake on Jan. 2, 1902, and the last time they separated was on April 8, 1908. Since that time, Mrs. Clawson has been compelled to keep boarders to support herself.

ELDRIDGE IN HARD LUCK.

E. E. Eldredge was discharged on an order to show cause why he should not be punished for not paying his wife $25 a month alimony. He lost his position, according to his testimony, and is now in the locksmith business. He is canvassing from house to house, and says that he makes about $1 a day. If he can raise the money, he says that he intends to rent a place and start up a business. He is now $25 in arrears in his temporary alimony.

RECEIVER IS ASKED.

With an alleged fictitious company conducting the affairs of the Continental Mines & Smelting company of Bingham, the Agency company asked for the appointment of a receiver yesterday to take charge of the claims of the former company. It is alleged that the Agency company owns a tramway in Bingham which was leased by the Continental Mines & Smelter company and is now being operated by the latter company. The latter company has not filed a copy of its articles of incorporation in this state, it is alleged, in order that it might do business here. The Agency company has been trying to get control of the tramway and now seeks to have it placed in the hands of a receiver. Judge Morse granted an order to show cause which was made returnable next Friday.

SUE ON CATTLE DEAL.

Complaint Sets Out That Two Prices Were Paid.

Maurice K. Parsons, William Hanley, A. Hanaber and H. S. Corbett, cattlemen, doing business under the name of M. K. Parsons, manager, brought suit against B. F. White in the Third district court yesterday to recover $3,357.30 with interest and costs alleged to be due on cattle trade. The complaint alleges that the plaintiffs at Ontario, Or., June 16, 1906, sold 750 yearling steers to White for $11,000. White agreed to buy 200 head of 2-year-old steers from J. B. Coombs and turned them over to the plaintiffs. The plaintiffs turned their 50 head of yearlings over to White and received the purchase price less the $5,665, but when they made the demand upon Coombs for the 200 2-year-old steers he said that White had not paid for them and refused to turn the cattle over to them. The plaintiffs were compelled to pay Coombs for the cattle, making twice they had paid for them. Now this suit is to recover from White the amount paid for the cattle.

A LEG WORTH $20,000.

Louis Strasburg filed suit in the Third district court yesterday to recover $20,000 from the Utah Light & Railroad company for the loss of his right leg below the knee. It is alleged that on Feb. 2, 1909, that he was struck by a street car at Sixth South and West Temple streets which resulted in the injury.

DROP IN DIVORCE AVERAGE.

Effects of Utah's New Law in Evidence In Dissolution Court.

When the divorce calendar was made out today the effects of Utah's new divorce law were plainly visible. Instead of 25 divorce cases, as usual, Judge Morse will only have to hear three cases this afternoon. In one case which will come up today the attorney has prepared an interlocutory decree.

BOWERS WINS.

Well Known Jeweler Awarded $1,400 Damages from Street Car Company.

C. E. W. Bowers, a jeweler, secured a verdict of $1,400 this morning against the Utah Light & Railroad company, after the jury had been out several hours. Bowers sued for $10,700 for personal injuries and the death of a horse which was alleged to have resulted from being struck by a street car at Fifth East and Sixth South streets on June 2, 1908.

LADY BERESFORD'S WILL.

London, May 13.—The will of Lady William Beresford, who died at Goring, Jan. 11, has been proved. The gross value of the estate is given as $90,000. Lady Beresford was Miss Lilian Warren Price, daughter of the late Commodore Price, U. S. N., of New York. She had only a life interest in the great estate of her first husband, Louis Hammersley.

BROWN DIVORCE DECREE.

In the case of Mary M. Brown, who was granted a divorce from Joseph Brown on the ground of desertion, Judge George G. Armstrong says that the testimony was not heard at his house. It was taken in his court room about 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon. The waiver of appearance was not presented with the complaint and he held up the granting of the decree until he had examined it. In order that the decree might be entered before the new law went into effect, Judge Armstrong allowed Mrs. Brown's attorney to bring the waiver to his house and after examining it he said that the decree would be granted.

COURT NOTES.

Servas Egge brought suit in the Third district court yesterday against George Curley, contractor for the Oregon Short Line depot, to recover $10,000 for personal injuries which he received when he fell from a scaffold on Dec. 11, 1908, and suffering mortal at the time he slipped off the scaffold and fell to the ground.

Benjamin H. Smith filed suit in the Third district court yesterday against his partner, Fred W. Grant, to obtain possession of a certain automobile which is charged with taking to his home about April 9, against the wishes of Smith. Smith demands the automobile or damages in the sum of $200.

Mrs. Lena Stringham Anderson, administratrix of the estate of Nathaniel Stringham, brought suit yesterday in the Third district court against Mary Stringham, the Utah Savings Company and Katherine Stringham Fitzgerald, to quiet title on several lots in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Gertrude Van Anda was granted a decree quieting title to lots 15, 16 and 17, in block 24, Grand View subdivision, against Charles H. Keck, by Judge Armstrong yesterday.

Edward B. Wicks brought suit in the Third district court yesterday to close a mortgage given by Mrs. Anna M. Dunlap Davis, William Dunlap, B. M. Harmon and his wife, for $1,035 and interest. The suit is brought on a promissory note which was delivered on Feb. 10, 1904.

INDIAN WAR RECORDS.

Commission Busily Engaged in Securing Records of Claims.

The "News" is in receipt today of the following letter:

The board of commissioners of Indian war records met on the 11th inst. in the office of Chairman E. A. Wedgwood, Salt Lake City, and perfected such arrangements as were necessary to carry on the work of looking after the records of the veterans who took part in the Indian wars of Utah.

The commission will begin session at Springville, May 14, and will continue at said place until the claims of all veterans of the Springville post have been properly recorded, and, as the commission has deemed it necessary to visit every part of the state, at the most central and convenient point for the veterans, it is desired that they be given in advance as to time and place of meeting, continuing the work in each place until all shall have had a fair opportunity of presenting their claims. The commission has arranged to have printed and distributed in this country, which will be posted in conspicuous places, giving date and place of meeting, that all may be duly notified who care to appear before the commission.

Respectfully,
E. A. WEDGWOOD,
Chairman.

New Method of Reducing Fat

A news item from Paris informs us that the American method of producing a slim trim figure is meeting with astonishing success. This system, which has made such a wonderful impression upon the minds of the French, is the Prescription Tablet method of reducing fat. It is safe to say that we have nothing better in this country. The tablets, which will reduce the excess flesh a pound a day without injury to the stomach, the causing of wrinkles, the help of exercising or dieting, or interference with one's meals is a mighty important and useful addition to civilization's necessities. Just such a catalogue of good results, however, follow the use of these pleasant, harmless and economical little fat reducers. We say economical, because Marmola Prescription Tablets (under a wordmark) is the famous prescription that can be obtained of any druggist or the makers, the Marmola Co., Dept. 35, Detroit, Mich., for seventy-five cents the large case, which is a decidedly economical price considering the number of tablets each case contains.

HIS HEADACHE CAUSES DELAY

Bridwell Inquiry is Postponed After Short Session Last Night.

PAYROLLS ARE IN EVIDENCE.

Little New Matter is Adduced Other Than in Connection With Names on the Rolls.

Owing to the illness of President H. P. Henderson, Prof. Byron Cummings presided at the session of the board of education held last night in further investigation of the conduct of G. M. Bridwell, superintendent of buildings and grounds. All the members of the board, with the exception of Messrs. Glaugue and Moyle were present.

The evidence produced was chiefly a continuation of that brought out at the former sessions of the investigation. Several payrolls were offered in evidence, showing that relatives of Bridwell and Newman had received pay on payrolls which showed their names fictitiously. Mr. Bridwell testified, however, that when he personally made out the checks in payment of such labor, he issued them in the right name of the party doing the work.

Mathoniah Thomas, who conducted the examination, compelled Mr. Bridwell to admit that prior to the last school board election these men received money for work on payrolls containing their right names. This Mr. Thomas brought up in reply to the statement made at a previous session by Mr. Bridwell that Thomas knew all about the plans and advised Bridwell to place the fictitious names on the payroll, so that Thomas' chances of re-election might not be endangered. After the election the fictitious names also appeared on the payrolls.

Immediately after making this admission, and when Mr. Bailey was questioning Mr. Bridwell as to why the payrolls under consideration were held in his possession for two years and more before turning them into the board, Mr. Bridwell answered that he had found one of the payrolls in some insurance papers he kept at the house, where it had been placed by mistake, and then stated that he was suffering from a severe headache and was bothered on account of the pain in understanding and answering the questions properly. He stated he did not wish the investigation discontinued on that account for the evening, but on motion of Mr. Thomas the session was adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

GRAND NOT NAVIGABLE.

Information is contained in a report received by Capt. Hair of the local land office, that the investigation recently made by government officials regarding the navigation of the Green and the Grand rivers in Utah, resulted in the finding that the Green river is navigable from the town of Green River for more than 100 miles down the river to a point near the junction with the Grand river, and that the latter stream is not navigable. The investigation was conducted by L. C. Easton, chief clerk of the Los Angeles department of the geological survey, and Lieut. Charles T. Leeds, of the government engineering corps. The government agents were accompanied by Ross Wheeler, a pilot of Green river.
