AMONG BINGHAM'S MINES.

Copper Belt Rallway Will Soon be Hauling 1,500 Tons of Ore Daily. The nervy little Copper Belt railroad, with its half-a-dozen miles of mainline, branches and spurs, does not have to "get busy," for with its one little engine of three cars capacity four or five trips a day are now made on up and down freight, and it is handling 450 to 500 tons of ore from the Commercial, Yampa and Boston Con. mines. A night crew was put on yesterday. The new engine of five cars capacity, is to be here by Jan. 10. The output from the mines mentioned will then be increased to 650 tons, while the Colombia will swell the amount to at least 800 tons. Within three months, with the Utah Copper outputting, the Copper Belt Railroad will be hauling not less Beit Railroad will be hauling not less than 1,500 tons a day. A new engine house, also an office building, are now under construction.

Early in the week fires were started in the roasters of the Yampa smelter, and they are now answering all expectations, operating without a hitch save such as are incident to the limbering up of new plants. With the blowing in of the furnaces the production of matte will begin. This may be delayed a few days, pending the arrival of several hundred tons of coke, now on the road. Meantime since the 19th ore has been coming from the mine via the Copper Beit railroad, and it is now reaching the bins at the rate of 100 tons a day. Directly after the holidays the Yampa smelter will without duobt be in Juli and successful operation.

Dalton & Lark main incline is down upwards of 45 feet below the 1,000, with about 400 feet to go to reach the Mascot (main tunnel) level.

Including shipments from the Commercial Con. mines are now sending to the smelter an average of 450 tons of ore daily.

Early in the week the site for the Butier-Liberal deep tunnel had not been fully decided upon. It will be an important improvement, in draining the mine and opening it up for producimportant improvement, in draining the mine and opening it up for production at minimum expense.

Delays in delivery of iron for the Utah Copper company's concentrator buildings are becoming positively disgusting. According to advices roofing and side material has been over a month on the road—long enough, if Utah bad iron works, for the raw material to have been dug, manufactured, delivered and put to use.

Hundreds of heavy timbers have been delivered at the headhouse sit of the Old Jordan tramway during the past 10 days. Reconstruction has fairly begun, and the new structure will be completed at the earliest possible date. Wednesday afternoon the Boston Consolidated sent out its first carload of ore to go over the Copper Belt, When the mine motor is in, if will at once begin sending 200 tons daily to the Bingham Con. smelter.—Bulletin.

COLLECTIONS SHOW IMPROVEMENT.

Manufacturing Plants Are Stopping to Take Inventories and Make Repairs.

HOLIDAY BUSINESS IS COOD.

In Many Prominent Markets Opinion Expressed That Orders Will Appear In January for Stocks.

New York, Dec. 25 .- R. G. Dunn & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: "Holiday conditions pervaded the markets and most of the exchanges are closed until Monday. Manufacturing plants are stopping for inventories and repairs in many cases, the extent of idleness being considerably greater than for the corresponding season in recent preceding years. There has been a liberal volume of business in holiday goods, but reports are somewhat conflicting in comparison with 1902. An encouraging sign is the improvement in collections.

"Railway traffic was not seriously impeded by recent storms, owing to better methods of operation and earnings thus far reported for December exceed last year's by 6 per cent. Agreements are being made with but little friction as to wage reductions, except in the case of coal mining, and severai idle plants have fixed the date for resuming work. Few labor disputes are in progress and steel producers look for much new business early next month. Engagements of gold were checked by a sharp recovery in foreign exchange, although receipts have raised treasury gold holdings far above all previous records, and money is unusually easy for the season.

"Owing to the decrease in speculation, bank exchanges for the week were 16.7 per cent smaller than a year ago at New York, while at other leading cities there was a gain of leading interests in the iron and steel industry brought more stability to the situation by deciding against any further reductions in quotations, and there are numerous indications that prospective purchasers do not intend to delay placing contracts beyond the season of inventories and repairs.

"Epressions of opinion are heard in many prominent markets that orders will begin to appear about the middle of January and a liberal volume of business will be placed for work to be done early in 194.

"Shoe shops are receiving few new orders and there is little effort at present to increase activity. Eastern wholesalers are more cautious regarding additional contracts for spring lines, but western jobbers are seaking. lines, but western jobbers are seeking supplies liberally. Conservatism is still the leading characteristic in every department of the cotton goods market.

Mills are steadily curtailing output and find it impossible to secure advances in finished products commensurate with the rise in raw material Purchasers of cotton take only for urgent needs and refuse to pay the quotations asked for distant deliveries "No demand for China is seen and the export division is doing nothing, prices being well beyond the views of foreign customers. Cotton has again risen above all records for a quarter of a century, and fluctuations of $2.50 a bale in a single season are no longer con-sidered exceptional, while option trad-ing of a million bales daily is not unusual. Few cash sales are reported and the planters are not receiving $68 for their cotton, yet the mills that have no raw material on hand will be forced to pay the prices or else stop work. Exports have continued on a liberal

"Grain moved within narrow limits, no special news appearing other than a new record for wheat production in Australia. Prices are firm. Failures this week numbered 284 in the United States, against 200 last year and 22 in Canada, compared with 21 a year

Connellsville, Pa., Dec. 25 .- Another name has been added to the long death list resulting from the Duquesne limited wreck on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad at Dawson on Wednesday. Harry Devlin, one of the three remaining patients at the Cottage state hospital, died at 10 o'clock today. The total dead now numbers 65, and this probably completes the list, as the two still at the hospital are doing well and will probably recover. Deviln's home was at Lenaconing, Md.

There was one Christmas funeral—that of Edison Goldsmith. The official investigation into the cause of the disaster is being prosecuted vigorously by the officers of the rall-road company, but it is doubtful if any individual will be blamed for the accident. It was apparent that a number of switch ties had fallen off a west bound freight train and were strews upon the passenger track, causing the flyer express to be derailed.
