EVENING NEWS

Tuesday - - October 9, 1877.

Correspondence.

Missionary Labors—Baptisms, etc.

KEOKUK, Iowa, Sept. 20, 1877.

Editors Deseret News:

Dear Sirs—Before leaving Burlington, the town from which I last wrote you, Bro. Madsen and myself sought diligently to get an opening for preaching, but the prejudices of the people were such they would not give us a hearing in public. We therefore made our way down the banks of the great Mississippi river, holding meetings by the way; but as it was harvest time and hot weather (95 to 105 in the shade, our meetings were not very well attended.

Arriving at Nauvoo on July 11th, we were kindly received and entertained by Brother John Jamison and wife. The following day, in company with Bro. Jamison, we visited the Temple site and other places of interest, calling in the afternoon upon Emma Smith, who received us with a degree of kindness. She is now seventy-three years of age, with failing health. We took the liberty of asking her, in the spirit of charity, many plain questions, many of which she answered, others she evaded. She stated to us in the most positive terms, that her husband, Joseph Smith, lived, and died a true prophet of God. After visiting the few Saints in Nauvoo, we crossed the river, which at this point is over one mile wide, by ferry, to Montrose, when a walk of twelve miles down the banks of the river brought us to this place. Here we met our friend, Elder Alonzo Winter, missionary from Zion, holding a meeting with the few Saints here, some six in number, instructing them in regard to their duties.

On the evening of July 18th I dropped into a Methodist prayer meeting, about 100 persons being present. Liberty being given by the presiding elder to strangers, I offered up a fervent and earnest prayer, in which I managed to preach them a pretty good gospel sermon, to which many responded a hearty amen. At the close of the meeting several came up, not knowing where I was from, and shook me warmly by the hand, and gave an invitation to visit their next meeting which I accepted. On the following Wednesday evening I was present at their church and addressed them with much freedom of speech, on the subject of a living, active faith in the Savior, and upon the great necessity of present revelation. All paid the best of attention, with the exception of the presiding minister, who seemed nettled, and who interrupted me two or three times before I closed my remarks. After the services were over several of the members apologized to me for his conduct.

On the 7th of August I had the pleasure of meeting Prest. David M. Stuart, from St. Louis. We visited together the Saints and others in this vicinity. Receiving from Bro. Stuart an invitation to visit, in company with him, the Saints in St. Louis, on August 15th we boarded the fine steamer Golden Eagle, and a splended sail of 210 miles down the great Father of Waters, which we made in twenty-four hours' time, brought us to the great commercial and manufacturing city of St. Louis, with its teeming population of over 500,000 people. Here, in the heart of this great and corrupt city, there is a small branch of the Church, the members of which always make us welcome at their houses. The Saints here meet for worship twice a week. I had the pleasure of speaking to them on several occasions, and have left my testimony of the truth with them.

On the 30th of August Brother Stuart and I saw the announcement in the daily papers of the death of our beloved President Brigham Young. Although we felt to mourn the loss to the Church and world of a great and good man, yet we felt a calm spirit of resignation. While in the city of St. Louis I had the pleasure of meeting my wife Romania B., who was returning to her mountain home from a two years medical course of studies in the east, having graduated this summer with high honors from the "Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania." At the above city Sister Pratt was joined in her journey by Brother Tillison, wife and family, who are emigrating to Utah for the perpose of settling with the Saints. My visit with President Stuart, and many of the Saints and other friends in his district, has been an agreeable and pleasant one, one never to be forgotten. I returned from my visit by steamer and rail, to this place on last evening, being made welcome at the house of Sister C. Lambert.

Have one young lady applicant for baptism, who is waiting for her unbelieving father to give his consent. Brother Madson has baptized three young persons into the Pittsburg Branch, just west of here, during my absence.

Your Brother in the gospel,
P. P. PRATT.

FALL TRADE '77.

Z. C. M. INSTITUTION.

We are opening and offering for sale, an entirely new stock of Dry Goods and Notions, all fresh and of the most modern styles and best manufactures.

The stock is ample, complete and varied in every class of goods known to the trade, and comprises a greater variety, better grades and lower prices than has ever been offered in Utah since the opening of the Institution. Our resident buyer in New York, by purchasing largely for Cash, has secured rare and unusual bargains in the leading lines, and these advantages will, in every instance, be shared with our patrons.

We call special attention to recent arrivals in English, French and American Dress Goods, comprising the newest shades and colorings, and in the very latest designs and combinations, which offer unusual attractions to all buyers for first class Retail trade. We are displaying thirty styles of English, Scotch and Domestic Cheviots, Forty styles of Ethal Plaid Dress Goods, five thousand pieces of Fall Prints, among which are, Hamilton, Manchester, Pacific, Knickerbocker, Oriental, American, Garner, Washington and Mallory. Also the Peabody Solid Prints. In Bleached Goods we offer the Social, Hope, Western Products, Dwight, Pocahontas, Farwell, Lonsdale, Fruit of the Loom and other brands of leading mills; we also offer a new article of special merit for underwear, known as Double Warp Half Bleached Cottons.

Our Dress Flannel Department is thorough and complete in all recent choice designs. Buyers are requested to order early, as the line is now full.

Retailers in this and neighboring territories will save time, money and expense by ordering from us instead of sending East, as our assortment is so large, they will be able to make selections without stocking up with unsalable goods, in fact no dealer, however remote from business or manufacturing centres can afford to pass by this city with a view of purchasing elsewhere.

In short, during a season unparalleled for fluctuations in the prices of general merchandise, we still offer better goods, lower prices and more favorable terms than any house west of New York, and we take this opportunity of inviting those who read this notice and who have never favored us with their patronage, to make a trial of our goods for the fall and winter of '77-'78.

H. S. ELDREDGE.
