LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Returned.—Presidents John Taylor and Joseph P. Smith, with the Apostolic party, who went to Manila last week to attend the Sanpete Stake Conference, returned home last evening.

Who Can Beat It?—A gentleman residing in Davis County expects to raise 30,000 bushels of grain this season. He and the members of his family plowed and sowed 1,100 acres without the aid of hired help. How many cases of this kind can the country afford?

Funeral Services.—The funeral services over the remains of the late Wm. Boaz, were held on Sunday at 1 p. m., in the Eighth Ward school house, Bishop E. F. Sheets directed the meeting. The assembly was addressed by Elders C. W. Penrose and George C. Ferguson. The deceased was aged 85 years, and was an old time Latter-day Saint, from London.

Entertainment.—The 21st Ward Musical and Dramatic Association, assisted by other talent, will give an entertainment in the Ward Meeting House, this evening, to raise means for emigrating a family from England. A pleasing variety of songs, comic and sentimental recitations and readings, and the laughable farce of "A Charming Pair," makes up a programme which, with the worthy object in view, should fill the house to overflowing.

Stabbed.—The last issue of the Utah Southern Times, says that on last Saturday morning, Mr. James McCaffrey, of Ocolec, arrived in Frisco, bringing with him the news of the assassination of Hon. George W. Blair, of Ocolec. The deed was committed, he said, by old man Middleton. Blair was so badly cut in the abdomen that no hopes were entertained of his recovery, as mortification set in early, and there was no physician within many miles of Ocolec. The affair is said to have sprung from a family feud.

AN INTERESTING DISPLAY.—Messrs. Coplen and Bohart are the proprietors of an interesting exhibition, which has recently arrived and is now on display in the building next to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s, Main St. It is a collection of bones from Washington Territory, represented by the discoverer, Mr. Coplen, as belonging to a new species of the mammoth, named the Elephas Columbianus. One of the horns, or tusks, measures over 10 feet in length, and 23 inches in circumference. Another horn, about a yard of which has been saved, originally measured 12 feet 9 inches in length and was 24 inches in circumference. An under jaw contains two teeth, each of which would weigh 18 or 20 pounds. A thigh bone is four feet long and weighs 40 pounds. A shoulder blade is 4 feet 2 inches in length, and 2 feet 1 inch in width. The colossal of the collection, however, is the pelvis, which weighs 125 pounds.

Besides these, there are ribs measuring four feet in length, and sections of the vertebrae. In the entire collection, the proprietor claims, are fragments of nine skeletons, all of the same species of animal. They were discovered by Mr. Coplen in a mine, 1870, in a single deposit in a mineral spring 12 feet deep, at Hangman Creek, Spokane County, Washington Territory. They were exhumed during that summer, and in the fall were taken to the Pacific University, Oregon where they remained for several years. Mr. Coplen, having corresponded with Professors Baird, Marsh, Henry, Cope, and other learned men was earnestly invited to take his collection to the Eastern States, in order to bring it more prominently before the scientific world. He has concluded to do this, and is now en route for Washington to place the bones in the Smithsonian Institute, providing he can dispose of them for a fair compensation. His purpose in showing them along the way is to defray the expenses of transportation. A visit to the place of exhibition will well repay anyone interested in the study of ancient animal remains. Professor Joseph L. Barfoot, the best authority in this region on scientific matters, at our request, has furnished the following interesting Coplen & Bohart's collection:

"Messrs. Bohart and Coplen have quite a 'Golgotha' of fossil remains of proboscidea. No doubt a very careful examination and comparison of parts of their collection would well repay any one interested in geology and its kindred sciences. The Elephas primigenius or 'mammoth' is easily the most completely represented of the genus of comparative anatomy, and to those who delight in contemplating the gigantic remains of an animal which is now supposed to have been contemporaneous with man, the entire collection is replete with interest and most instructive in its character."

Canal Levee Broken.—About 6 o'clock last evening, the south levee of the canal adjacent to the farm of Hon. George C. Cannon gave way, and the water began inundating his property. Mr. Cannon, soon afterward arrived at the farm in a buggy, but was unable to reach his residence on account of the overflowing water. He immediately sent word to the city for men to come and repair the breakage. By the time these had arrived, he and some of his employees had partially mended the breach, but it still needed strengthening. The workmen labored for several hours, and then a guard was set, and remained watching the water all night. The alarm first sounded was that the Jordan dam in that neighborhood had given way, an event which might have worked damage below, but would have no cause for alarm in the vicinity referred to. It is due to this very dam that the canal levee gave way last night, the canal gates being closed so that the water was thrown back against the sides of the head of the aqueduct. Had the gates been opened or given way last evening, the Fifth and Sixth Wards would have been flooded.

Cruel Treatment.—The Ogden Herald of Monday has the following:

"From passengers who arrived with Sunday's C. P. train, we learned of a disgraceful abuse of authority perpetrated by a brakeman on the C. P. On Friday evening, about 7.30, while the train No. 5 was this side of Golconda, a brakeman, Harrison, noticed a stranger on a brake head and after giving the tramp a rough and ready warning, he pushed him down so violently that the unfortunate fellow was dragged under the cars. His left arm was cut off between the elbow and shoulder and his right hand so badly crushed as to necessitate amputation. The accident was reported to Winnemucca by telegraph, and a special engine and caboose were sent from there with Dr. Hanson, Sheriff Burns and Deputy Sheriff Shultz aboard. The unfortunate man was found at Lay's Hotel. Dr. Hanson stanching his wounds, and he was brought into Winnemucca, to the county hospital. The wounded man gave his name as Albert Jones, saying he was a native of Manchester, England, and had been on the coast for two years, and he was trying to get back East. He was an able-bodied man, apparently able to do any kind of manual labor. At latest reports he was not expected to live."

Barnyard Notes.—W. P. Camp, writing from Samaria, Malad Valley, on the 11th inst., informs us that that settlement, at present, consists of 60 families, all in good health and prospering generally. Their Sunday School has an average attendance of 80 pupils, under the efficient superintendency of Brother Thomas Thorpe. All meetings are well attended and a good influence prevails. Considerable grain has been put in this season, and hopes are high for a bountiful harvest.

Jurors Paid.—The Jurors in the case of Z. C. M. L. vs. O. J. Hollister, were paid for their two days' services, at the rate of $2 each per day. The money was volunteered by the Plaintiff. In view of the fact that Plaintiffs are rarely, if ever, paid now-days for their services in civil cases, this circumstance is worthy of mention, and reflects much credit upon Z. C. M. L. Some of the jury were poor men, summoned away from their work to sit upon the case, and it was more than right that they should receive compensation.

CENTRAL BOARD OF TRADE.—Zion's Central Board of Trade, in accordance with previous adjournment, met in the Council House, this morning at 11 o'clock. Pres. John Taylor presiding. There was a full attendance from the several Stake Boards. The first question as set forth in the circular, viz. "The manufacture of iron and coke. Our Iron Foundries," was called and was under discussion till 1 o'clock, when an adjournment took place till 2.30 p. m. At the appointed time this afternoon, the assembly re-convened, and the discussion upon the above-mentioned subject was resumed. It was still in progress as we went to press.

"Widow Bedott."—On Thursday next, Haverly's reconstructed "Widow Bedott" combination, with Mr. C. B. Bishop in the title role of the comedy, will make its first appearance in this city. The New York Herald has the following respecting this entertainment:

"It would be hard to find a more side splitting entertainment than the 'Widow Bedott' at Haverly's 17th Street Theatre to wit: 'The Widow Bedott,' with Mr. C. B. Bishop in the role of the obstreperous husband, 'Bedott.' His droll sayings, his malapropisms, his wonderful facial play, and his irresistible bounce, swept the audience away in a tide of laughter that never ebbed until the curtain fell upon the wily widow and her prey in the 'last tableau.' Everybody knows the episodes of this story, and it need only be remarked that every funny point was made the most of by the company, which is much better than that presented by the generality of 'star' performers."

RESCUED FROM DEATH.

The following statement of Wm. J. Coughlin, of Somerville, Mass., is so remarkable that we beg to ask for it the attention of our readers. He says:—"In the fall of 1881 I was taken with a violent BLEEDING OF THE LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I soon began to lose my appetite and flesh. I was so weak at one time that I could not get out of bed. In the summer of 1887 I was admitted to the City Hospital. While there the doctors said I had a hole in my left lung big as a half dollar. I expended over a hundred dollars in doctors and medicines. I was so far gone at one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSM FOR THE LUNGS. I laughed at my friends saying that my case was incurable, but I got a bottle to satisfy them, when to my surprise and gratification, I commenced to feel better. My hope, once dead, began to revive, and I felt in better spirits than I have the past three years.

I write this hoping you will purchase it so that every one afflicted with Diseased Lungs will be induced to take DR. WM. HALL'S BALSM FOR THE LUNGS, and be convinced that CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED. I have taken two bottles and can positively say that it has done more good than all other medicines I have taken since my sickness. My cough has almost entirely disappeared and I shall soon be able to go to work. Sold by all druggists.

IT SEEMS IMPOSSIBLE.

That a remedy made of such common, simple plants as Hops, Buchu, Mandrake, Dandelion, &c., should make so many and such marvelous and wonderful cures as Hop Bitters do, but of course old and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor, Lawyer and Editor, all testify to having been cured by them, you must believe and try them yourself, and doubt no longer. See other column.

We have a speedy and positive Cure, for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker mouth and Head Ache, in SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. A meat injector free with each bottle. Use it if you desire health and sweet breath. Price 50 cts. Sold by Moore, Allen & Co.
