VENING NEWS. ublished Daily, Sundays Excepted,

AT FOUR O'CLOCE.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY THE DESERET NEWS COMPANY

CHARLES W. PENROSE, EDITOR.

Monday, . Becember 5, 1887.

DEATH OF SISTER E. R. SNOW SMITH.

Titls morning (Dec. 5th) at five mint Temple, and when the Saints there, herewith present it: utes past 1 o'clock, in her apartments yielding to the pressure of the persein the Lion House, this city, there cution which raged with increased the spirit of one of the noblest, best and purest women that ever graced the earth-Eliza R. Snow Smith.

The news of this event will cause no Ahman, in Missouri. To recount that surprise in the community, as it was been gradually failing for the last year. She was not affected with any special and outrage to which the Saints there disease, the complaint being simply a were subjected. Suffice it to say that induced by old age.

Sister Smith's case was a remarkable instance of the power of mind over matter, her mental clearness never forsaking her a moment; she was conscious up to within five minutes of went to Lima, supporting hers if by What avail the parade and the splendor the end. About ten o'clock Patriarch John Smith, who frequently called during her sickness, was by her bedhim. The customary smile lit up the beautiful countemance, and the reply of the people of her choice. During came in clear and distinct tones-"OI those years a lofty and prophetic as course I do." He blessed her, and she expressed her thankfulness.

ous in attentions to her during her the poems written by her during that illness was Sister Zina D. H. Young. period. Her brother, Apostle Lorenzo Snow, In the first organization of a Relief has been with her a great deal, and Saclety, effected in Nauvoo under the was by her side when she breathed personal supervision of the Prophet last. Between the Frother Joseph Smith, Sister Eliza was chosen her and sister there has ever ex- sectory; and in the organization of isted a most exquisite affection, that those same beneficent institutions in has never been interrupted by any in- the various Stakes and Wards of the cident during the long course of their Church, since it located in the mountains, her's has been in her lives. Aunt Elizi, as she was familiarly womanly sphere, the leading part. In called, has felt for some time the prob- connection with her labors among the ability of her passing to the sphere be- Relief Societies, she was long and ac-yond, and that same resignation which tively engaged in organizing the Young characterized her course in all the dis- Ladies' Mutual Improvement and pensations of providence, was con- Primary Associations, taking almost, spicuous in relation to her approach- if not quite as prominent, a part in the ng dissolution. In the presence of work of their establishment, as in that the wryter a few days ago, she said, in of the Relief Societies. substance: "I have no choice as to Early in February, 1846, Sister Smith w Sther I shall die or live. I am per- crossed the Mississippi River, on the occasion of the third great exodus fectly willing to go or stay, as our heavenly Father shall order. I am in from their homes of her people since His hands." While she spoke, her her connection with them. She was wonderfully lustrous dark eyes shone | traveling with the family of Colonel with more than earthly brightness, and Stephen Markham, a staunch friend of as she conversed with those around her husband's, and certain incidents her the native intelligence which has and misfortunes occurred to the party

so s'roughy individualized her, was re- | which rendered it necessary for Sister margably exhibited, considering the Smith to drive an ox team from Mt. Pisgah to the Missouri Liver. At weakness of her body. ue deceased was slightly above me- Winter Quarters she suffered terr bly diu n height and slender Build; her from exposure and sickness, and at They are dwelling with God in a world or bearing was at once graceful and dig- one time lay night unto death. Early nifi d. Hers was a noble countenance, in June, 1847, she started from Wilter Bury me quietly when I die. the forehead being uansually high and Quarters, with the family of Brother expansive, and the features, of a Robert Pierce, and in the company led slightly Hebrew cast, exquisitely cut as by Jedediah M. Grant, on the weary those of an artistic sp cimen of the journey to Great Sait Lake Valley, sculptor's art. The most striking fea- | tollowing closely in the wake of the tur of all were those wonderful eyes, Pioneers. She arrived at her journey's d ep, penetrating, full of meaning and endearly inOctober. President Brigham sage will be confined to the discussion intelligence, often illumined with Young provided her a home with his of one subject. The correspondent is poetic fire. They were indeed the family immediately after her arrival, surely taking liberties with our lanwindows of a noble soul. Her conver- and she thereafter continued an insation was charming, every word be- mate of his household. ing distinctly articulated, while her seatences were admirably constructed. pen, and brought from it words as im- devote 22,000 words to so monotonous In speech and action she was thought- perishable as the language, was not a proceeding to the neglect of other ful and deliberate. While of susceptible and delicate organism, and in every and adverse circumstances; and at that by comparison it would be a way womanly, she had great decision frequent intervals of her weary journey monograph since the theme referred to of character. So deep were her con- she produced poems of rare beauty. victions and potent her sense of mor- Our sister is not dead; she simply and space than any others that it slity, that we believe she would more sleeps, her intelligent part having gone would dwarf them into insignificance readily have surrendered her life than to that bright sphere where the just if not nullification. The subject re acted in opposition to them. D ceased was the daughter of Oliver and Rosetta Leonora Pettibone Snow, spirit with the body through the power blame the Executive for laying such and was born January 21st, 1804, in of the resurrection. Having slept in great stress upon it, in view of the fact Becket, Berkshire County, Mass. She peace, she has secured her title to be that it is not only of great importance, was consequently aged eighty-three among the heavenly throng that will but that in his last message he urged years, ten months and fourteen days, accompany the Lord of glory then He upon Congress the necessity of taking seven children, and was of unmixed reigns of its government. She has which was disregarded by the Senate Parlian stock, all lines of her ances- gone to mingle with the righteous who and House, and the result is that the try running back through pure streams have kept the faith; to associ- question recurs to them as a natura of New England blood. The Snow ate with her husband, the great consequence, only with an increased family from which she was descended Prophet of the last dispensation, to pressure by reason of increased delay was of Massachusetts, while her moth- whom she has shown a sublime deyod er's family, the Pettibones, was of tion that will be appreciated in the other subjects, will be referred to in Connecticut. Buring her infancy her eternities to come. She was beloved connection with the reports of the parents removed to Mantus, Portage here, where the memory of her wirtues different Cabinet officers and not County, Ohlo, where five more children were born to them. Her father the sphere to which she has passed. was a farmer by occupation, but much necessity of enlisting her services in She was well skilled in household accomplishments, such as needlework forwarding the work of instruction these the President cannot overlookand the like, but she possessed a lit- amongst them still exists, and her in fact, no such thing has yet taken erary talent which was destined to spirit permeates all these beneficent place, and as Mr. Cleveland is not eclipse all commonplace acquire- associations. Her charitable deeds in at about this time, and that in may be said concerning her that she it are shown forth mental struggles, was indeed "an elect lady." and experiences of her own. She re-The services over the remains of the turned to the home of the Prophet, beesteemed deceased will be held in the came governess to his children, and Assembly Hall, Salt Lake City, at 12 was companien to his wife Emms for a o'clock on Wednesday, December 7 h. They will be conducted by President number of years. Her intimate association with Joseph | Angus M. Cannon. The latter, has for the Seer, ripened into a holy consum- many months been assiduous in kind mation, and she, in the year 1843, be-came his wife, in accordance with the sacred ordinance of heaven and the di sacred ordinance of heaven, and the dismooth the declining days of one so rect command of God to her husband. highly respected.

It seems to us that a fitting conclu-She thus became one of the first women. of this dispensation to enter the sacred sion to this article would be a licantiand divine order of plural marriage. fal poem from the pen of the deceased, She generously gave her patrimony which we understood It was her desire for the completion of the Kirtland should be sarg at her funeral, and ve

BURY ME OUTSTLY WHEN I DIE. passed away to the Paradise of God, fierceness after the dedication of that When my spirit ascents to the world above, To unite with the choirs in celestial love, structure, removed westward, she ac Let the fing-r of silence control the bell, . companied them, locating first at Far To restrain the chime of a funeral kneil, West and afterward at Adam-ondi-

Let no mourning strain-net a sound b heard, portion of her life which was passed By which a pulse of the heart is stirredgenerally known that the deceased had in Missouri, would be but to repeat No no e of sorrow to prompt a sigh; the oft told tale of persecution, wrong Bury me quietly when I die. am aiming to carn a celestial crownto merit a heavenly, pure renown; decline of the physical powers, super- Sister Eliza bore a part in some of the And, whether in grave or in tomb I'm laid, most prominent and painful scenes Beneath the tall oak or the cypress shade ; that go to make up the history of those Whether at home with dear friends around times, and shared in the erodus of Or in distant lands upon stranger ground-Under wintry clouds or a summer sky; the Saints to Illinois. She stopped for Bury me quietly when I die. a short time at Quincy, and afterwards needlework. here, To a legal heir to a heavenly sphere?

In the summer of 1839 Sidney Rigdon sent for her to go to Nauvoo to teach fo the heirs of salvation what is the worth, side, and inquired if she recognized his family school, and that city was In their perishing state, their trail mings of her home until the expulsion from it What is death to the good, but an entranc gate That is placed on the verge of a rich estate well as poetical inspiration seemed where commissioned escerts are waiting almost constantly to rest upon her, by Among those who have been assidu- and shines forth in radiant power in Bury me quietly when I dia

> on the "iron rod" I have laid my hold; It I keep the faith, and like Paul of old Shall have "fought the good fight" an Christ the Lord Has a crown in store with a fu'l reward Of the holy priesthood in fulness rife, With the gifts and the powers of an endless life

And a glorious mansion for me on high ; 335 Bury me burdly when I die.

When the orb of day sinks down in the west-When its light reclines in the evening's crest-When the lamp in the socket is low an dim-When the cup of life is filled up to th brim-When the golden Autum's brief glass has run, and gray Winter with whit'ning tread moves on-When the arrow of death from its bow shall _ffy:

call. Bury me quietly when I die. Like a beacon that rises o'er ocean's wave, There's a light-there's a dite beyond the grave; The future is bright and it beckons me on

Where the noble and pure and the brave have gone Those who have battled for truth with their mind and might, With their garments clean and their Congress as to the affairs of the difadmission of certain democratic senators-elect, and it early became known that the republicans, in default of any cancus plan of action, had concluded to follow the lead of their members of terent departments to the reports of various cabinet officers. The New Movement.

the committee on privileges and elec-tions. These had been in formal con-I'HILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 5 .- A presultation, it was understood, and bad visional committee, representing the reached the conclusion to make

NO OPPOSITION

roken

of the order. After asserting tust abuses have crept into t e administration torough the ring which by the miss ground that there were conflicting cre entials from that state. The genera pigton was that there would be no for the reconstruction of the machin eck and that the usual course o opening precedings would not be purification suggested are preservation The galleries were early crowded to overflowing. Mrs Cleveland, clad in a costume of dark green, and accomof the autonomy of trades; limitation of the powers of general offi-cers; avoifance of strikes and encouragement of political action to advance the interests of the order. panied by Mrs. Gilder, Mrs. Kingsford and several other lady friends, occu-pled the seats reserved for the family of the President in one of the private galleries. The diplomatic gallery was filled by members of the various legaions, the front seat occupied by the Chinese minister, his secretaries and associates. The minister wore a magnificent robe of light blue satin, and his companions were clad as richly though in more subdued colors.

THE PROCEEDINGS

The Journal des Debats advises the the day opened with prayer the chapiain, Rev. J. G. But-The President of the Senale, Mr Ingalis then took the chair and called the Senate to order. He said he would place before the Senate certificates of election, certificates of appointment and other papers received uce adjournment. In the swearing in of senators elect, Senator Hoar made objection to the administration of the oath to Faulk ner, West Virginia, until certain republicans. questions to which his credentialgave rise could be passed upon by the committee on privileges and elections. As a member of that committee he asured the Senate that the matter should receive immediate attention that France.

his duties without unnecessary delay. Senator Kenna said that the course proposed by the senator from Massahustts seemed eminently appropriate, and he trusted would be followed without the formality of a vote. This course was followed and the call of senators elect proceeded. The oath was administered to Mr.

ee on elections and privileges. House WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 .- Long before noon, the gallery of the House was rowded to the utmost capacity with The customs of the inland revenue department will be incorpor-ated into the department of trade and commerce. The department of justice will be divided and a solicitspectators drawn together to witness he opening scenes of the new Congress. Ladies were in the majority and their gay costumes lent an air of or general appointed in addition to the animation to the chamber. On the attorney general. Costigan, minister of inland revenue, will be shelved into for the me bers congregated and exchanged greetings and congratula-tions. There were very few floral fecorations upon the desks of the the collectorship of St. Johns, N.B. In his place Curren, of Montreal, will enter the cabinet as the Irish Catholic representative. Sir Adolph Caron, minister of millifa, is auxious to go to London as high commissioner, which uembers The clerk proceeded with the roll position has been filled for some time CARLISLE ELECTED.

The House having elected Carlisie speaker, that gentleman made a speech and Sir Hector Langevin are at dagof thanks for the honor conferred upon gers drawn and it is believed that on or the other will have to retire They im, in which he directed attention to the important labors which would derepresent the French-Canadian sec volve upon the present Congress and dealt with much stress on the importions in the cabinet wanting to take the lead. It is said that for months tant necessity of such moderate and reasonable revision of the tariff as would guarantee the laboring people ald possesses to prevent an open rupforbidding them to bring suits for the collection of taxes in cases where tenders have been made by tax receivable coupons cut from state honds. This court, in a very loog, and elaborate opinion by Justice nominally a suit against individuals, is

IS FORBIDDEN

Matthews, holds that the suit in which Judge Bond issued the restraining or Virginia and as such

A. FISHER BREWING (0.,

Browery near U.C.R.R. & D. & E.G. Depots.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.

or Telephone to Brewery, No. 205.

President to retain the present minis-Republican journals advocate the ion. Conservative papers doubt that tion. Conservative papers doubt that

Thirty cindidates for the Senate were nominated in the various depart-A FULL LINE OF ments yesterday. Must of them were CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Nadi-Carnot Approved ALL GOODS GUARANTEED. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 5 .- The papers here approve of the election of M. Sadi-Carnot as President of No. 40 Main Street. GEO. M. & JOHN M. CANNON The Swiss Presidency. BERNE, Doc. 5 .- The Council of State has elected M. Gavard, of Geneva, President, and M. Schoch, of Schaffausen, Vice-President of Switzerland. Both are radicals. Canada Cabinet Chauges.

French Affairs.

NEW YORK, DEC. 5 .- An Ottawa special says: It is understood that Collection Agency, upon the return of Sir Charles Tupper from Washington, a complete reorganization of the cabinet will take place.

No. 39 MAIN STREET," The new department of trade and commerce will be presided over by Mac-kenzie Bowell, minister of customs. Two doors south of Z. C. M. I.

Lands for Sale, Houses for Rent,

AT

Collections.made and proceeds promptly forwarded. Legal papers carefully draws. by Sir Charles Tupper, minister of floance. Secretary of State Chaplen as Examination of Titles a Specialty. Our Motto: Moderate Charges .- Fair Treatment .- Reliability.

OFFER FOR THE HOLIDAY TRADE The Finest and Most Complete Stock of

'87! Merry Christmas '88!

AND

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

West of Chicago! De Hesa London Layer, Muscatel, Sultana, Valencia and Ondara Layer Valencia RAISINS.

Very Fine Zante Currants, Figs, Lemon, Orange and Citron Peel, Almonds, Pecans, Brazil Pea Nuts, Grenoble and Naples Walnuts, Spices, Sauces, Catsups, Pickles and Fine Can Goods.

HAVE OPENED A REALESTATE, LOAN OUR FRUITS ARE ALL CLEANED! - ENDLESS VARIETY OF -----HOME MADE AND IMPORTED FCANDIES! Champion Monitor Cook Stoves and Ranges. Money to Loan. CHARTER OAK COOK STOVES and RANGES. The Celebrated Miller Wrought Iron Range. The Finest Line of Heating Stoves in the Country. AGENTS FOR ST. LOUIS SHOVEL COMPANY'S Celebrated SHOVELS AND SPADES We Carry the Largest Stock in the West o UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER.

Turple, of Indiana, and he was admit-ted to a seat. All the papers in the case were referred to the the commit-and bowed down, still live and bear ing poems for various publications, their fruits, and there are other noble and had won quite a reputation among spirit was will continue to carry forsome of the publishers whom she had favored with the productions of her ward the multiplication of good of the pea. Tais is sufficiently attested by the same nature. They have been her circumstance of her being requested faithful associates and counselors to write, for publication, a requiem while she was in life, and they will con for John Adams and Thomas Jeffer- | tinue to emulate the virtues and noble son, whose simultaneous death, on the traits with which her whole career nation's natal day, 1826, afforded to the has been truitful to an extraordinary young authoress a theme well fitted degree. for the lofty and patriotic spirit that There was a marked harmony be-always characterized her muse. The tween the qualities of the heart and appearance of this poem, written when the gifts of the intellect of this remarkshe was but twenty-two years of age, able woman. She was a poet of the was an event that ushered her into first order, all her poetic products being of a most exalted character. Some lame.

She was thoroughly and carefully of them are as sublime as ever were educated in the best schools of the re- penned. One alone which has been giou in which she was reared, and in sung times without number, would be her girlhood became acquainted with sufficient to establish her fame in this Alexander Campbell, the noted scholar direction. The opening lines are?

O my Father, Thou that dwellest

And again behold thy face !

Did my spirit once reside?

In my first primeval childhood.

Was I nurtured near thy side?

In thy holy babitation.

In the high and glorious place!

When shall t regain thy presence, and theologian, and founder of the Campbellite sect; and also with Walter Scott and Sidney Rigdon, able colaborers with Mr. Campbell. These were men of erudition, and they took pains to a sist her in the study of the Scriptures, especially the prophesies of the old Testament. It is protable igainst the effects of financial' depres sion and a' the same time not deprive hem of any part of the just rewards of high: heir toil

The work of organizing the House then proceeded. THE MESSAGE TOMORROW. The Virginia Habeas Corpus.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 -A decision

It is said in a special to the New York was rendered by the United States World today that the President's mes-Virginia habeas corpus cases of Attorguage or indulging in a gratuitous as sumption regarding Mr. Cleveland. The inspiration which vitalized her since it is not at all likely that he will suppressed even under the most trying affairs. Perhaps the writer meant to say would receive so much more attention vier in the circuit, court, altiongh await the time of their redemption, ferred to is of course the tariff queswhen there will be a reunion of the tion. The country will not be able to by the eleventh amendment to the fed-eral constitution; that the U.S circuit court had, therefore, no authority to entertain such suits that in so doing prevent the officers of the state from discharging their duties under the laws of the state, Judge Bond She was the second in a family of shall come to this creation to take the decided action upon it, an injunction was acting without constitutional warrant and that the restraining order and all subsequent proceedproceedings under it, including the arrest and imprisonment of petitioners, were illegal aud without authority. The court therefore directs that the petitioners, Attorney-General The same dispatch also states that Ayers and Commonwealth's Attorneys Scott and McCabe, be at once discharged.

Senate and House of Representatives

tomorrow, and will be immediately

FO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS

The Organization of the Two House

of Congress Effected

Today,

The Senate and House Begin their

Proceedings Before Great

Gatherings.

Announcement that the President's Message will Discuss but

One Subject,

The U. S. Supreme Court Discharges the Virginia Habeas

Corpus Petition.

telegraphed throughout the country.

THE OPINION

will be cherished, so is she beloved in otherwise. This may perhaps be all which is that of the whicle court with of Judge Harthe exception that is necessary in reference to such In a sense she is with us yet. The subjects as are covered by those dividissents, sustains the State of Virginia at all points of his time was devoted to work she accomplished remains, and sions of the public service, but the and virtually declares that a state as a public business, and he was under the its fraits will multiply, as truth begets officers generally confine themselves so political sovereignty cannot be sued truth in an unceasing round. The strictly to matters pertaining entirely an action brought against her by nam nor coerced in federal courts either by the capacity of secretary, a species of employment for which her matural ca-paolitiles rendered her well adapted. The calldren, the young ladies, and the members of her set of all ages and the set of all ages all members of her sex of all ages, and concern and grave importance, and lishes distinction between 8 contracts made by individuals with a state, the latter class cannot be en-forced by the remedies used to enforce the former, that is, by suits in United States courts, and they are therefore without sanction except in noted for neglecting his duties, it is ments. In early youth she began writ- administering to the sick, the afflicted fair to presume that afl things of conso far as such sanction is given to sequence will receive full considerathem by honor and good faith of the contracting state. Such state tion at his hands. The message will be handed in to the state action.

ly, is dead.

MAY CONSENT

to be sued a its own court or in the federal courts for breach of contract but it may any time withdraw such consent and resume sovereignty and it cannot then be judicially coerced at Boys' Cassimere Knee Pants and the request of an individual.

The Liquor Dealers Probably LUTOBE. "Left." BROWN'S COTGH BALSAM WASHINGTON, Dec. 5 .- Justice Harlan is now reading the opinion of the and Tar Troches are invaluable in every family for Coughs, Colds and court in the Kansas prohibition cases. Sore Throat. Indications seem to be that the court BROWN'S ARNICA SALVE will sustain the right of a state under its "police powers," to every box warranted for Cuts.

suppress the manufacture of liquor and the inquor traffic within its limits urns, Bruises, Old Sores, Piles and re Eyes. - No cure no pay. without making any compensation to distiller or liquor dealer for the value of the property destroyed by such BROWN'S NARSAPARILLA has no equal. Stands alone as the Great Blood Purifyer and cure for Rheumstiam. All Wholesale Druggists sell Brown's Family Medicines. Lord Lyons Dead. Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, General LONDON, Dec. 5 .- Lord Lyons, whose Agents.

serious illness was announced recent For cleansing and healing foul and indolent Ulcers, Sores and Abscesses and removing bad odors arising there-from, and for sloughing, contused and lacerated wounds, Darbys Prophylac-tic Find is precentled tic Fluid is unequalled. bassador, Hung Suen, has arrived here.

are between them. China Advices

SAN FRANCISCO, D. C. 5 -Tae steamer San Pablo arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama this morving.

carry the LARGEST and MOSI which about eight hundred Supreme Court this afternoon in the were destroyed and the total loss COFFINS, CASKETS, amounted to $700 COU.

wealth's attorneys Scott land McCabe, who were imprisoned by order of Judge thand, of the U. S. circuit court, for hond, of the U. S. circuit court, for Undertaker's Goods in Utah, Wholesale and Retail, at IMMENSELY REDUCED PRICES imperial assistance. The Queen's jublice was celebrated in Hougkong November 9th. The so LOT2 and GRAVES furnished in an Semetery in the City. All orders filled day ir night in the shortest time possible. decorations were very elaborate and thousands of visitors were in the city to witness the ceremonies. A correspondent in Tien Tsin states that the Emperor of Caina, Laving ascertained that Corea will no longer Office and Waterooms Never Closed. 21 & 23 S. West Temple St. P. O. Bex 354. Telephone 351. forward its annual tribute to China, has issued a decree in which he sets in reality a suit against the state of forth that with a view to causing a LEGAL NOTICE.

COMPLETE STOCK of

---- AND ----

arising out of China's claims to suze-In the Probate Court, in and for the Count, of Sait Lake, Territory of Utah. aiaity rights over the pealnsula kingdom, Corea is declared an independent stite and the receipt of any further tribute is prohibited. In the matter of the Estate of Frans Bromander, Deceased.

The Japan Gazette states that rumors Order appointing time and place for settle ment of final account and to hear petition for distribution. and in issning a restraining order to are again in circulation in Tokio to the ffect that a change in the Japanese cabinet will be announced before the ON READING AND FILING THE close of the year. | 219

> Special Notices. Don't Trifle with any Throat or Lung Disease. If you have a Cough or Cold, or the children are threatened with Croup or Whooping Cough, use Acker's English Remedy and prevent further trouble. It is a positive cure, and we guarantee it. Price 10 and 50 cents. For Sale at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store.

UNQUESTIONABLY The best Bargains in Ladles' Kid

Gloves are those offered by F AUER-BACH & BRO., at 50c and $1 a pair. HIGH COLORED PLUSHES, At $1,00 a yard at F. AURRBACH & BRO'S

One Price Establishment. Babies That are fretful, peevish, cross, or troubled with Windy Colic, Teething

Territory of Utah, County of Sait Lake, | st. Pains, or Stomach Disorders, can be relieved at once by using Acker's Baby Soother. It contains no Opium or Morphine, hence is safe. Price 25 cents. Sold by

Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. CHILD'S JERSEY SUITS School Suits cheaper than ever at F. ATERBACH & BRO'S

in my office. In witness whereof, I have here rnto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, this 17th day of November, A. D. [SEAL.] One Price House. JOHN C. CUTLER, Probate Clerk did

> AWRENCE, OSTROM & CO.'S Famous "Belle of Bourbon" IS DEATH TO

ALARIA, CHILLS AND FEVER, TIPHOID FEVER, INDIGENTION, DISPRESIA, SURGICAL FRVERS, BLOOD POISONING, CONSUMPTION, CLEEPLE-SNRSS OB INSOMNIA,

1

HAND MADE

AND NON-ASSIMILATION OF FOOD. 19 YEARS OLD.

QUEENSWARE, CHINA AND GLASSWARE.

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Notions and Hosie Complete Stock. Ladies,' Misses' & Children's Wraps at GREATLY REDUCED PRICES.

Boots, Shoes and Rubber Goods, Hats, /Caps and Clothing, Carpets, Rugs and Liaoleums.

cessation of the political difficulties

Lower than were ever offered in Utah.

