

THE DISTRICT COURT.

I. Suits of Civil Jury Cases Made
Up for Coming Week.

THREE STATES GRANTED DIVORCES.

The Park City离婚案 is being settled at last—Another of short-tried trials.

Chief Justice Merritt during the session just now heard a variety of small cases, taking up for the day, at least with the Park City訴訟 cases,
which were then submitted after being
settled by agreement of the parties.
The settlement plan for the party's cases, Judge Merritt said, is to give the parties full return to be ready to take up work in his own court next week.

Judge Merritt made the following selections of cases for trial during the week coming:

MURKIN, April 20.

C. F. Loughman, plaintiff, vs Niagara
Mining Co., defendant. Plaintiff claims $1,000 damages. Defendants counter-claim $100. Motion for summary judgment.

WALSH, April 20.

James Higgins vs. B. J. Hickey—P.
Dunn; M. C. McLean; Daniel
Hobson Jr.; W. R. Howard
et al.—Def. vs. Daniel Hobson Jr.;
W. R. Howard et al.

TRIMBLE, April 20.

Park City Miners Co. vs. Pacific
Furnace Co.—Plaintiff, Pacific
Furnace Co.; defendant.

George W. Pitman vs. D. W. L. H.
Hawkins, et al.—Def. vs. D. W. L. H.
Hawkins, et al.

BIGELOW, April 20.

J. H. Rasmussen vs. U. W. Armstrong
et al.—Def. vs. John Rasmussen, et al.

George W. Pitman vs. D. W. L. H.
Hawkins, et al.—Def. vs. D. W. L. H.
Hawkins, et al.

WHITEHORN, April 20.

National Bank of the Republic vs.
Wm. Smith et al.—Defendant was given plenty of time to present his case by submitting his notes.

John Johnson, a wealthy man residing in Park City, was sentenced to
imprisonment.

Fine National Bank of Oregon vs. J.
T. Brown et al.—Leave given to the plaintiff to amend.

L. C. Conner vs. C. H. Wastland et al.—Defendant, whose cross-examination was allowed,

crossed his fingers that he would be granted a new trial.

WHITEHORN, April 20.

John Johnson, a wealthy man residing in Park City, was sentenced to
imprisonment.

The report of Justice Johnson in the suit of A. H. Hodges vs. Ola Smith et al. was filed and approved. It stated no funds had come into the court from the defendant, and that all money received in the defense
was retained in the amount of $100.

John P. Andree vs. J. A. Martin, defendant, attorney's fee of $100.

J. H. Griggs et al. vs. George Tamm et al.—Defendant granted, was given $100 after trial.

SIXTEEN HUNDRED TWENTY.

Judge Merritt granted three divorce
and six separation cases, adjourning
court until the following Friday, April 27, to give the parties time to settle their affairs. They were as follows:

George Beale vs. John Shadley, on
the ground of failure to support
wife & child. The plaintiff
wishes to have her husband
sentenced to confinement.

John W. Hawkins vs. George L.
Hawkins and wife, the same grounds.

John W. Hawkins vs. John Shadley,
on the ground of failure to support
wife & child.

REACH THE END OF THIS.

The legal arguments in the conditional proceeding of the Ryan vs. Green company vs. F. McLaughlin & company, which have been made
to date, will probably be concluded, but not this month, by Judge Merritt.

George Beale vs. John Shadley, on
the ground of failure to support
wife & child. The plaintiff
wishes to have her husband
sentenced to confinement.

John W. Hawkins vs. George L.
Hawkins and wife, the same grounds.
