LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Swedish Lutherns will hold Assemblies Day services at 7:45 this evening.

There will be vocal and instrumental music in the Assembly hall at Friday night's convention.

An exhibit of school work was held today in the Franklin school, and will continue on tomorrow.

It is estimated that 150 telephones will be used in Beatty, Rhyolite, Bullfrog and Gold Center by July 1.

The St. Mark's Hospital Training School for Nurses will hold graduating exercises this evening at the cathedral.

The state land board has set aside for the present the bids in the matter of the Forty-ninth district schoolhouse, until the bond question is cleared up.

There was an officers' school last night at the state armory, but only about half of the officers of the local part of the Guard were in attendance.

The police have their hands full watching owners of teams who persist in hitching to hydrants in violation of the ordinance. There is a little fine of $10 attached to this.

James H. Anderson, J. R. Swenson and Willard Snow have been appointed by the county commissioners as delegates from this county to the state good roads convention.

Mary Bennett has been committed to the state mental hospital by Judge Armstrong after examination as to her sanity by County Physician Whitney and Dr. Osterman.

This is examination week at the Salt Lake Collegiate Institute and Gordon academy. The Baccalaureate sermon of the Collegiate Institute will be preached next Sunday evening by Rev. Dr. Endon.

The notorious Sam Grice was arraigned this morning on the charge of burglary. He entered a plea of not guilty, and the case was set for preliminary hearing next Tuesday. In default of $500 bail, Sam was committed to the county jail.

Prof. Swenson will put 20 men into the field next week getting the machinery for drilling into the Strawberry valley, and preparing the camp for occupancy. The work of engineers is expected from Washington in a short time.

Local physicians remark that on Decoration day, there are no casualties; but on the Fourth of July, look out, several doctors may be called to attend to stick close to home on the Fourth, ready to respond immediately to any emergency.

Prof. Richard Lyman went to Provo today to deliver an address to the graduates of the school. Dr. Lyman Chamberlain, also of the University of Utah, will go to Park City on Friday, where he will address the high school alumni.

A wily woman grafter is abroad in the land. She secures entrance to houses by giving the impression that she is inspecting the premises for the state board of health, and then tries to work the people there for $15 for a medical book worth many dollars less.

Nathan Wilkes, a 16-year-old boy, is in jail on the charge of stealing chickens. The young man has previously been before the juvenile court and it is understood that he failed to report to Judge Brown when ordered to do so, and this time it is likely to go hard with him.

Prof. Swenson and his staff of engineers have returned from the Strawberry valley, whither they took the machinery that had been lying at the depot until the snow got out of the way. They expected active construction of the dam will begin this fall, and see the outlook for water there is exceptionally good.

The services at the Fort Douglas cemetery on Tuesday were conducted by Reynolds Circle No. 1 of the Ladies of the G. A. R., who also decorated the 25 graves. Post Department Commander Burns read Lincoln's Gettysburg address, and a run detail from the post fired three shots, and a bugler blew taps.

Salt Lake county has some real estate for sale in this city and the commissioners have authorized County Clerk Eldridge to advertise the same. The property to be sold is 8x10 rods on the corner of Second South and Second West streets just west of the county jail. The sale of that much of the lot will leave enough for full use.

The Real Estate association took up the matter of a North Bench drive at yesterday afternoon's meeting, the idea being to make of this drive a continuation of the fine macadamized road recently built on the military reservation. The association also decided to hold its annual outing on the 25th inst., but where, in yet to be agreed upon. The drive matter will be vigorously pushed.

Governor Outler says that until General Park returns from Denver, nothing will be done in the matter of the failure of the National Guard to turn out on Decoration day. The adjutant general, the acting brigade commander, and the battery commander decline to talk for publication, leaving the matter in the hands of the governor. But when General Park returns there will be something done.

A Texan who is after a government office in that state writes a friend in this city that he understands "Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives at Washington, is from Utah, and he would be pleased for the friend to use his influence with the speaker. As "Uncle Joe" represents the 25th congressional district of Illinois, and probably has never been in Utah, this request can hardly be complied with.

Dr. Theodore S. Palmer of the department of agriculture at Washington is in the city today enroute to Portland. He is connected with the fish and game division of the department, and called to see State Fish and
