BETTER THAN GOLD.

Is good health, which may be preserved by the timely use of Compound Extract Sarsaparilla, Dandelion and Iodide of Potassium. This is not a patent medicine; its formula is published with each bottle. The leading physicians endorse it. Ask your druggists about its merits. It cures Scrofula, Chronic Rheumatism, and all skin diseases by purifying the blood and invigorating the liver. For Sale Everywhere.

Brown's Vegetable Liver Pills are prepared for curing Sick-headache, Constipation, Indigestion, and Tapped Liver. Now is the time to use them and prevent summer and fall sickness. They are superior to Eastern pills; a trial establishes them in every western family.

The great healer of the age is without a rival for curing Old Sores, Ulcers, Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Piles and Sores. For sale everywhere and on horses; fully warranted.

Brown's Blackberry and Ginger, tested and tried for 14 years, has never failed to cure the worst cases of Summer Complaint, Dysentery or any derangement of the stomach or bowels. Try it.

All of Brown's Family Remedies for sale at C. M. I. Drug Store, Goods, Pills & Co., Moore, Allen & Co., Salt Lake City, Utah. d 188 ft

CHIEF Jackson's Best Sweet Navy Tobacco. Always on the Alert. By observation we have learned that Gillet's Double Extracts are three to five times as strong as most others, and are finer, richer, and more delicious, and that Gillet's Cream Tartar Baking Powder is healthy, nutritious and economical. They have stood the test for over 15 years. We heartily recommend them to our friends. 17

For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaler's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It is being perfectly harmless, makes it as popular with men, women, and all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaler, and his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

HENRY SNELL Will Buy Grease of All Kinds at his Soap Factory, 19th Ward.

If pestered by an eruption, use Glenn's Sulphur Soap, the ruling specific for diseases, irritation and abrasions of the skin, and a most salutary beautifier of the complexion. This admirable article is an inexpensive substitute for sulphur baths, and is equally as effective in banishing unsightly eruptions, and relieving the pangs of rheumatism and gout. Redness and roughness, tan, freckles, pimples, and indeed every imperfection of the cuticle is entirely removed by it. It is avouched, by ladies who have used it, to be the most effective means of clearing and softening the skin that they have ever employed; its health-promoting properties are widely recognized by medical men, and evidence in its behalf, emanating from other and equally respectable sources, precludes any reasonable doubt as to the genuineness of its claims to public confidence. Clothing and linen from the sick room are disinfected by it, and it prevents contagion when the danger of absorption is feared. Sores and ulcers, that resist the operation of salves and lotions, are healed by it, and it soon restores the smaller eruptions caused by bruises and sprains. The opening of the pores, resulting from the wholesome stimulation of superficial blood vessels that it produces, is the effect best calculated to ease the circulation when overheated, and carry off those offensive granulations which disfigure the cuticle and render existence a state of martyrdom while they remain. Eruptions, ailments that ointments will not cure, are entirely eradicated by GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP.

Sold by Druggists. Price 25c. per cake. 1 Box (3 cakes) 75c. sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of price. C. N. Orlenden, Prop'r, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York.

EVENING NEWS.

Friday, August 1, 1879.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Fraternals.—S. A. Kerner, Esq., editor of the Ogden Junction, is in town, and called on us yesterday.

Thermometer.—The thermometer is getting reasonable; 92 deg. F in the shade was its record at 2 p.m. to-day.

Water Pipes.—Water pipes are being laid from the main, across the street to the building formerly used by Thomas Carter as a tobacco store.

D. A. and M. S.—The directors of the D. A. and M. Society are requested to meet at the City Hall at half past seven p.m. August 2nd, 1879. H. F. Folsom, Secretary.

Fireman Attention.—This evening, at 7:30 sharp, there will be a special meeting of the S. L. F. B. A. punctual attendance is requested, as business of importance is to be transacted.

R. H. HARDY, Sec'y.

Fish Drying.—The Dispatch says, in consequence of so much water being taken out of Ogden River, near Taylor's bridge, for irrigation purposes, hundreds of fish are drying daily in the river bed, the small quantity of water remaining being insufficient to support them.

Broken Cuir.—Not once, but the one which crosses Main Street at the north-east corner of the Temple Block, is in a bad condition. An extensive opening in the flange imperils the limbs of horses traveling in that direction. Where the man that mends the ways of the city?

Returned Missionary.—Elder Jesse Vincent, of South Jordan, who returned last evening from an eight months absence in Kentucky, as a minister of the Gospel, called upon us this morning. His labors have been reported from time to time, and have been quite successful. He returns honorably released, on account of the climate affecting his health injuriously.

THE MURDER OF JOSEPH STANDING.

ELDER HUGHES CLAWSON'S ACCOUNT.

We had a call this morning from Elder Hughes Clawson, who arrived home last evening with the body of his murdered companion, Elder Joseph Standing. The public are already in possession of various accounts of the assassination, but the narrative of Elder Clawson, who was present when the murder was committed, and narrowly escaped a similar fate himself, will no doubt prove interesting to those who desire to know the whole truth. From what can be learned, the horrid act was instigated by the preaching of three "Christian" ministers, two Methodist and one Baptist, who, jealous of the increasing success attending the labors of the Mormon missionaries in that region, had in the heat of their holy passion let fall remarks which were seized upon by the ignorant perpetrators of the act as an incitement to their wicked deed. Corroborative evidence of this is furnished in the fact that one of the band of assassins was a Baptist deacon, by name Benjamin Clark. We will now give the substance of the affair as related to us. Elders Standing and Clawson had been staying at the house of Mr. Henry Holston, about three miles from Vernal's station, Whitfield County, Ga., who, though not a member of the Church, was very friendly to the cause, and they had been through the forest to the house of a Latter-day Saint, a mile and a half away, and about 10:30 a.m. were returning to Mr. Holston's, just previous to leaving to attend a conference at Rome. Before reaching the house, three horsemen came up, meeting them, and ordering them to halt, began signalling to others behind and shouting, "We've got them, we've got them." The Elders, on being accosted by the horsemen, during which the latter were joined by nine others on foot, armed to the teeth with clubs, pistols and guns, asked for the warrant of their arrest, and by what authority they were apprehended. They were informed that they would know all soon enough, and despite expostulation were hurried off away further from the house deeper into the woods. On the way the party were met by a young lady, Miss Mollie Hamlin, who, it transpired, had seen the gang pass by their house in the morning and had been sent to warn the young men of their approach. Some of the men accosted her with: "We've got you brethren, and we'll attend to you hereafter." While going along, Ben Clark, the Baptist deacon referred to, struck Elder Clawson with his fist in the back of the head from behind. The latter staggered and nearly fell, but recovering himself cast one look at his cowardly assailant and continued his way. His self control exasperated Clark, who soon afterward raised his cudgel to strike again, but was prevented by his companions. The Elders were told that it was the intention of their captors to give them a "sound thrashing," and were repeatedly asked of the whereabouts of President Morgan, if he was in Salt Lake and when he intended returning to Georgia. In response to a remark by Brother Clawson, that he was under the impression that the United States was a country of religious liberty, one of the mob said: "There is no law in Georgia for Mormons, and the Government is against you."

Stopping beside a spring to rest, three men on horseback left the main party for the purpose of finding a more secluded place for the punishment of the Elders, and one of the mob said: "Gentlemen, I am captain of this party and I want you to understand that if after to-day you ever come back to this part of the country, we will hang you up by the neck." The others also abused the brethren in the vilest language. About 30 minutes after the halt, the three horsemen returned, and riding up exclaimed: "Follow us."

It was at this juncture that Elder Standing, by some means, secured a pistol from one of the party, and thoughts of former threats of death and of the cruel torture to which they were about to be subjected rushing through his mind, he arose to his feet, and leveling the weapon at the horsemen, exclaimed: "Surrender." As quick as thought, one of the mob seated on the left of Elder Standing, arose and fired into his face. The ball entered just above the left eye, putting it out, and made its exit about an inch above the forehead. He reeled twice and fell with scarcely a groan. All eyes were then turned on Elder Clawson, who glanced quickly around to take in the situation, when one of the men, thinking he intended to escape or offer resistance said, "Shoot that man." Thinking his last moment had come as he gazed into the muzzles of the twelve weapons, Elder Clawson folded his arms and quietly said "shoot." His coolness and resignation again staggered the cowardly crew and they lowered their guns. Brother Clawson then turned his attention to his companion and while he was examining the wound one of the men drew near and said "Well, he shot himself, didn't he?" Seeing the necessity of caution, the Elder replied "I don't know."

Others took up the ingenious subterfuge and endeavored to persuade him that his brother had accidentally killed himself while bringing his weapon into position. He remained silent, not caring to reply that he had witnessed the act, and that Elder Standing had had his weapon already pointed away from himself when he was shot. He was allowed to go to Holston's house for assistance, Elder S. J. J. already having breathed his last, and on reaching there, asked Mr. H. to take care of the body while he went to Caloosa Springs after the corner. About 5 miles from the place, he met several of the assassins, who asked him where he was going. He pointed west, and thinking he was leaving the country, they offered him no opposition, but rode quickly away.

Arriving at his destination, Elder Clawson telegraphed to Governor Colquitt, of Georgia, to the Prosecuting Attorney of Whitfield County, and to President Morgan at Salt Lake.

An inquest was held over the body the same night, when beside Elder Clawson's testimony, the evidence of those who had seen the mob in the vicinity and recognized them, was adduced. Examination of the body showed that besides the first shot, the flanks had stabbed the body repeatedly and fired a charge of shot into his left cheek. The following is the verdict of the coroner's jury on the event, published in the Independent Headlight, Dalton, Ga., on the 28th ult: "We the jury sitting upon inquest over the dead body of Joseph Standing, having heard all the evidence in the premises, and having made examination of the dead body, find that the deceased came to his death by gun and pistol shot, or both, inflicted upon the head and neck of the deceased, said wounds consisting of 20 shots or more from guns or pistols in the hands of David D. Nations, Jasper N. Nations, A. S. Smith, David Smith, Ben. Clark, Wm. Nations, Andrew Bradley, James Fawcett, Hugh Blair, Jos. Nations, Jefferson Hunter and Mark McClure, and in view of the above stated facts we, the jury, do hereby recommend that the coroner of said county do issue a warrant for the arrest of the above-named parties forthwith.

Brother Clawson says the general sentiment of all good citizens in the neighborhood of the place where the horrid deed was perpetrated, is one of abhorrence for the murderers and sympathy for the deceased.

After seeing to the encasing of the body, Elder Clawson started with it for home, and arrived last night, as stated, having been met at the Ogden depot by the Y. M. M. I. A. of that place and escorted to the Utah Central train, and on the arrival here being received by a large multitude at the depot. The body was taken to Sexton Taylor's, to prepare it for the funeral on Sunday morning.

Elder Standing would have been 25 years of age on the 5th of October.

Sabbath School Notice.

Owing to the funeral services of Elder Joseph Standing, which are to take place on Sunday morning, August 3rd, there will be no Sabbath schools held on that day in this Stake of Zion, in order that the children and others may have an opportunity of attending the obsequies.

GEORGE GODDARD, Stake Supt.

Deserets to the West.—Some time this month, the Deseret Base Ball Club intend visiting San Francisco in a professional capacity. It is understood that Manager Harris will have the direction of the affair but we have not yet learned whether it will be a public excursion.

From the North.—We had a call this morning from Bishop E. L. Austin, of Liberty, Bear Lake County, who arrived in the city last evening, and will return in a day or two to his home. The crops up there were good, and plenty of water obtainable, which was a great advantage. Stock was looking well, though hay was short, not over a quarter of an acre crop being promised. The general health was good.

Meteorological.—Sergeant John Craig, of the United States Signal Corps, sends us the following meteorological summary for the month of July, 1879: Monthly mean barometer (reduced to sea level) 29.904; monthly mean barometer (for temp. and inst. error) 29.874; monthly mean temperature 78.4; highest temperature, 97° on the 29th; lowest temperature, 55° on the 3rd; monthly rainfall (inches) 0.07 inch; prevailing direction of wind, northwest; elevation of instruments above sea level 4,382.25 feet. In no month of July for five years past has the heat been so great as during the one just ended.

The Thief Found.—The public will remember the case of one John W. Lillard, arrested on suspicion of having committed a burglary and stolen some jewelry, a razor and other things from the house of Mr. John B. Hawkins, of Nephi, at the time of the Fireman's excursion. He was examined before Justice Pyper on the 11th ult., and the missing property not being found on his person he could not be convicted on the charge, but having other valuables with him he was tried and found guilty of stealing from a watchmaker's shop on Commercial Street, and has since been working out his sentence. A clue has now been obtained by which the robbery at Nephi may be fastened upon him, and he was brought before Justice Pyper this morning to answer to the charge. Soon after the robbery and when Lillard was under arrest as the suspected party, a searching party from Nephi walked up the track north, to see if he had not dropped the stolen property while aboard the train for this city, he having been seen to take off his hat as if in the act of dropping something from it while on the return. The search then proved fruitless, but soon afterward a little boy by the name of Kinney accidentally found a red handkerchief containing some watches and other jewelry, by the side of the track, about four miles north of Nephi. The child took the bundle home and Mr. Hawkins was informed of the discovery. He identified the property as that which he had lost, but found the razor still missing. Coming to the city on business this morning, he informed Justice Pyper of the occurrence. A number of razors were shown Mr. Hawkins, but none answered the description of the one he had lost, until one was presented to him which Lillard had, a day or two ago, sold to the jailor, Mr. Sam Rogers. This Mr. Hawkins immediately recognized as his own. On this evidence Lillard was again brought into court, and waiting an examination, was bound over to await the action of the grand jury of the First District Court.

OUR SUMMER GOODS

WE MUST GO. To make room for New Fall Goods Shortly to Arrive.

Past experience has taught us that in this age of fast changing Styles and Fashions, it is better to sell goods subject to Season or Fashion at less than cost, than to carry them over at an expense of storage, insurance, &c., &c., only to find next season that new styles compel their sale at a loss anyway, and rather than blind the public by offering Calicoes at less than cost, we offer the following
