

Fri. 24.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, John B. Johnson, of East Mill Creek, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $150 for unl. coh.

Sat. 25.—John Andrews, of Logan, and Nels C. Andersen, of Hyrum, arrested on charges of unl. coh.—George Parker Dykes, once a prominent Elder in the Church, died at Zenos, Maricopa Co., Arizona.

Sun. 26.—Judge Kane decided against the land jumpers in Salt Lake City.—Charles Allen Burke, of the Pioneers of 1847, died at Minersville, Beaver Co.—Henry Beckstead, of South Jordan, released from the Utah Pen.—Dan Jones, of Salt Lake County, Marcus Funk and John Tanner, of Washington, Washington Co., and Dr. Higgins, of St. George, were arrested on charges of unl. coh.

Mon. 27.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Edward Cox, of the Sixteenth Ward, sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $50 and costs for unl. coh.—John Thorp, of Logan, arrested for breaking the Edmunds law.—By a terrible boiler explosion on board the steamer Julia, at South Vallejo, Cal., about thirty persons were killed.

Tu. 28.—The city council of Salt Lake City decided to present a portion of the corporation lands on Arsenal Hill to the Territory for State Buildings.

Wed. 29.—Gov. West, Mayor Armstrong and a committee from the Legislature and City Council selected a site for the erection of State Buildings on Arsenal Hill, to be known in future as Capitol Hill.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Olaus Johnson, of Union, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, $50 fine and costs, and B. H. Schettler to six months, $300 fine and costs for unl. coh.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Soren N. Sorenson was sentenced to four months, $50 fine and cost and Chr. L. Thorp to four months, $100 and cost, for unl. coh.—J. A. Marebant, of Peoa, Isaac Middle, of Marion, William Blood, of Kaysville, and J. M. Fisher, of East Mill Creek, were released from the Utah Pen., having served their terms for breaking the Edmunds law.—A general strike of the employes on the Atlantic and Pacific Ry., took place.

MARCH.

Great overflow of the river Elbe, in Germany, made 75,000 people homeless; many perished.—Inundations in Hungary destroyed thirty-nine villages.—Advices from China stated that one hundred thousand people were drowned by Yellow River inundations, and over a million driven into other districts. Thousands also perished by earthquakes.—Earthquakes in Yunnan, Asia, destroyed towns and shipping; four thousand people perished.

Thurs. 1.—Thomas Pierpont, of Salt Lake City, was sentenced in the Third District Court to six months' imprisonment in the Utah Pen., and to pay a fine of $300 and costs for unl. coh.—The French schooner Fleur de la Mer foundered off island of Cayenne; 60 people drowned.

Sat. 3.—William J. Jenkins, of West Jordan, arrested on a charge of unl. coh., and placed under $1,000 bonds.—Hyrum H. Evans and John Harwood released from the Utah Pen.

Sun. 4.—Aaron Hardy, of Moroni, released from the Utah Pen.—Dr. William Bredemeyer, confined in the County Jail, Salt Lake City, ate again, after fasting eighteen days.—A fire at a bull fight in Celaya, Mexico, caused the loss of eighteen lives.

Mon. 5.—Elder John B. Johnson died in the Utah Pen., where he was confined for conscience sake.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Charles H. Bassett, who promised to live with his legal wife, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs of court for unl. coh.—After a lengthy trial in the same court, Neal Mulloy was adjudged guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of George J. Hughes, at Park City, Aug. 1, 1887; next day he was sentenced to 12 years' imprisonment in the Utah Pen.—Elder Andrew Hintze died in Big Cottonwood.

Tu. 6.—The city council of Salt Lake City decided to offer the Tenth Ward Square to the Territory for fair grounds. The Territory accepted of it on the 9th.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Samuel Allred was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and William M. Allred to six months, $100 and costs for unl. coh.—Robert Stewart, a brakeman, was crushed to death between railway cars at the Utah Central Ry., depot at Salt Lake City.—John Penman released from the Utah Pen., having served out a sentence of two years for polygamy and three months for unl. coh.

Wed. 7.—John Oborn released from the Utah Pen.

Thurs. 8.—John L. Andersen released from the Utah Pen.

Fri. 9.—Emperor William I, of Germany, died at Berlin, nearly 91 years of age. The following day his son Frederick William succeeded him on the throne under the name of Frederick III.

Sat. 10.—The Utah Legislature closed its session. The most important measures which became law were the bills providing for the bonding of the Territory to the amount of $150,000, for the establishment of a Reform School, to be located in Weber County; for the establishment and maintenance of an Agricultural college in Cache County; the bills establishing uniformity in county and municipal governments, and the bill appropriating means for the completion of the Deseret University, including a department for the deaf mutes. The municipal authorities of Salt Lake City, having given to the Territory a beautiful site for capitol grounds, on Arsenal Hill, an appropriation was made for its improvement. For the purpose of locating permanent fair buildings on the Tenth Ward Square, (also tendered the Territory by Salt Lake City), an appropriation of $20,000 was made by the Legislature.—In the First District Court, at Provo, C. C. N. Dorius, of Ephraim was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, $100 fine and costs, W. T. Reed to three months, $300 and costs, Joseph S. Jones to six months, $100 and costs and John J. Walser to six months and costs, for unl. coh.

Sun. 11.—James C. Watson and Charles Burgess, of Salt Lake City, released from the Utah Pen.

Mon. 12.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, James S. Brown, of the Seventeenth Ward, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, $100 fine and costs for unl. coh.—Nathan Hanson, of North Point, and James Loynd, of Farmington, released from the Utah Pen.—An unusually severe snowstorm swept over the Eastern and Middle States doing much damage to property, blockading railroads and causing much suffering and distress.

Tu. 13.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Thomas Allsop, of Sandy, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, $50 fine and costs for unl. coh.—Lars Jacobsen, of Provo, and William Yates, of Lehi, released from the Utah Pen.

Wed. 14.—A. Norton and E. Wright, of Brigham City, Box Elder Co., arrested on charges of unl. coh.—John T. Lambert, of Spring City, released from the Utah Pen.

Thurs. 15.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Ephraim Briggs, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $25 and costs for unl. coh.—After trial in the same court, the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree against John Taylor for the killing of a miner in Bingham Canyon, July 3, 1887. On the 19th he was sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.—John W. Hess, of Farmington, arrested on a charge of unl. coh.

Fri. 16.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Bengt Larsen was sentenced to six months' imprisonment, $50 and costs for unl. coh.—John A. Blood, a young man, committed suicide by shooting himself at American Fork, Utah Co.—In the U. S. Congress, Senator Butler offered a bill for the admission of Utah into the Union as a State; it was referred to the committee on Territories.

Sat. 17.—A train on the Atlantic and Gulf Ry., in Georgia, went through a trestle; 28 killed, 34 injured.

Sun. 18.—A prolonged strike on the Santa Fe Ry. was ended.

Mon. 19.—John Woods, of Tooele, Tooele

Co., and Thomas H. Smart, of Union, Salt Lake Co., released from the Utah Pen., having served their terms for unl. coh.

Tu. 20.—Elder Erastus W. Snow, son of Apostle Erastus Snow, died in Salt Lake City.—D. Spillsbury, of Toquerville, arrested at Silver Reef, on a charge of unl. coh.

Wed. 21.—Prest. A. K. Thurber, President of the Sevier Stake of Zion, died at Ephraim, Sanpete Co.—Joseph Clark, of Provo, and George Wilding, of Salt Lake City, released from the Utah Pen., where they had served terms for unl. coh.—The dead body of D. B. Sohl was found near the Jordan River, Salt Lake City.—George W. Cass, a prominent engineer, died in New York.

Thurs. 22.—James Smith, of Provo, released from the Utah Pen., having served his term for unl. coh.—John E. A. Wing, a young compositor, shot himself with suicidal intent in City Creek Canyon, Salt Lake City. He died next day.

Fri. 23.—Chief Justice M. R. Waite, died at Washington, D. C.—The Driving Park grounds at Ogden granted to the Reform School.—John Bergen released from the Utah Pen.

Sat. 24.—In the First District Court, at Provo, Thomas Harding was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and costs; Robert T. King to six months; George Farnsworth to pay a fine of $200; Henry Hamilton to six months, $100 fine and costs; L. Leveridge to six months, $50 and costs; James Lattimer to six months, $300 and costs; Levi Curtis to six months, $100 and costs; James G. Higginson to six months; James Luceford to six months, $50 and costs; Joshua Adams to six months, $100 and costs; Karl G. Mueser to pay a fine of $300 and costs; H. G. Boyle to six months, $100 and costs, and Thomas R. Cutler (in whose case a new trial was granted and he admitted to bail) to six months, $300 and costs; all for breaking the Edmunds law.—James Hendrickson, a member of the Mormon Battalion, died in Star Valley, Wyo., aged 65 years and four months.

Sun. 25.—William A. Bringhurst, of Toquerville, Dr. Silas G. Higgins, of St. George, Marcus Funk and John Tanner, of Washington, and Hyrum S. Church, of Panguitch, who had been sentenced in the Second District Court at Beaver to six months' imprisonment, $300 fine and costs, each, the day previous, for transgression of the Edmunds law, were imprisoned in the Utah Pen.—E. F. Willman, of Leadville, Colo., committed suicide in Salt Lake City.

Mon. 26.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, Alexander Burt was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in the Pen., and to pay costs of suit, for unl. coh.—Joseph W. Ridges released from the Utah Pen.—The Senate committee on Territories, to whom was referred the Utah State constitution and accompanying memorials, reported unfavorably for Utah's admission into the Union, and was discharged from its further consideration.

Tu. 27.—William Burdett, a laborer, accidentally killed at Ogden.—James E. Mitchell, of Riverdale, Weber Co., arrested on a charge of unl. coh.—O. F. Herron, of Pleasant Grove, released from the Utah Pen.

Wed. 28.—Levi Savage, of Toquerville, and John Cottam, of Salt Lake City, released from the Utah Pen.

Fri. 30.—Joseph C. Perry, of Brighton, and John P. Wright, of Mill Creek, released from the Utah Pen.

Sat. 31.—In the Third District Court, Salt Lake City, William R. Smith, Prest. of the Davis Stake of Zion, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $300 and costs for breaking the Edmunds law.

APRIL.

Mon. 2.—Moroni F. Sheets, a witness in the Church suits before the Territorial Supreme Court, was adjudged guilty of contempt of court for refusing to answer certain questions in relation to Church property, and imprisoned in the penitentiary. He appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States.—Peter Andersen, of Huntsville, Weber Co., arrested on a charge of unl. coh.—F. F. Hansen released from the Utah Pen.

Tu. 3.—John Durrant, of American Fork, and Soren Jacobsen, of Bountiful, Davis