ing the entrymen where to file. Dist. Atty. Heney began his address shortly before noon and presented a powerful argument on behalf of the government's side. He declared the guilt of the defendants to be absolute-by establached and absolutely established, and eloquently declared the associations of Williamson, with the various predicaments in which the tes-timony places him, to be ample evi-dence of his complicity in the conspir-Acy. At the conclusion of Mr. Heney's ar-gument, Judge De Haven ruled that sufficient evidence of an incriminating nature had been produced by the prosenature had been produced by the prose-cution to warrant the case going to the jury, and that the defense could not at this time attack the validity of the indictments. He therefore ordered the defense to proceed. Judge Bennett stated that the defense was not ready and requested a continuance until to-morrow morning, when the introduction of evidence will begin.
