Man Drowned .- On Tuesday afternoon, while Mr. William Casper was at work on Big Cottonwood Creek, he discovered the body of a man floating down the stream. He made an attempt to take it out of the water, but was unable to do so, owing to the strength of the curfaultless complexion. Sallowness, rent, which carried it down swiftly. Another Quisance. The loading nuisance is now in a fair way for being abated, there having been a visible improvement on the streets in that regard yesterday. There is another that requires attention; fast driving. There is quite a num-ber of persons that drive through the streets at a speed and with a recklessness that leads one to suppose that, because they can own a Anderson & Aired S A fast horse, or hire one from a livery stable, they are "somebody in par-ticular."
