

The valuation of $7000 on personal property assessed against D. M. Steele was confirmed.

Alice Arnold's request for a reduction in the valuation of her property in the Twelfth Ward, $1500, was denied.

The valuation of $12,000 of O. P. Arnold's lot in the Twelfth Ward, was confirmed.

F. D. L. Arnold's request for a reduction in the valuation of her lot, $5150, met the same fate.

Clute's valuation of $3,600 on Ed Martin's lot in the Eleventh Ward, was allowed to stand.

The taxes on Mrs. E. S. McGorman, amounting to $4.20, were remitted because she was an invalid.

Robert Wright's taxes, amounting to $3, were remitted.

The valuation of $13,500 on the property of Mary C. Whitney, in the Eighteenth Ward, was reduced to $10,500, because the canal passed through the property.

The tax against Mrs. C. A. Halverson was reduced from $10.60 to $5.60.

The tax on W. T. Cahoon's property in the Twelfth ward was remitted on account of Mr. Cahoon's age.

The valuation of $28,100 on the property of the estate of L. E. Riter, on the corner of Third East and Fourth South streets, was confirmed.

The valuation of $40,000 on the personal property of the Salt Lake Abstract company was reduced to $30,000.

The question as to Commercial Alley, belonging to the Brigham Young estate, was discussed for some time, and it was finally decided to abate the tax provided the owners give a guarantee that the street should be kept perpetually open to the public.

The board declined to remit the tax of $1.20 against L. E. Shell.

The valuation on the property of Mrs. L. Penrose on Fifth South Street was confirmed.

The valuation on the property of L. E. Penrose in the Eleventh Ward was confirmed.

The valuation of $5500 on the property of William Van Dyke, in the Nineteenth Ward, was reduced to $1500 on account of an error in assessing.

Five dollars was taken off the tax of M. D. Thomas, of the Fifteenth Ward.

The board remitted the tax against John Gunn, $2.80.

The tax on $3,200 worth of the property of Caroline Larson in the Nineteenth Ward, was remitted, as the woman was insane.

The property belonging to the estate of John Platts, in the Nineteenth Ward, was reduced from $21,000 to $16,000.

The valuation of $4,700 on Mrs. E. Tremayne's property on South Temple Street was confirmed.

The valuation of $7,500 on Mrs. Sarah Taylor's property in the Tenth Ward was confirmed.

The valuation of $3,300 on Betsy Whitaker's lot was confirmed.

The board refused to reduce Mrs. Jessie Murphy's taxes $15.

Richard Rogers' tax, $4.80 was remitted.

G. F. Parrott asked to be relieved from paying taxes on his property in the Nineteenth Ward, valued at $3,600. The request was denied.

The board declined to remit any part of Mrs. C. P. Peterson's taxes, amounting to $24.80.

Mrs. C. W. Player's request for a remission of her tax, $6.40, was denied.

Margaret H. Haslam's request to be relieved from paying her taxes, amounting to $14.80 was refused.

Annie Mulholland's tax of $3.40 was remitted.

Mrs. Julia Croxall's request for a remission of her tax, $6, was granted.

The board refused to remit the tax of Mrs. Julia Raleigh, of the Nineteenth Ward, amounting to $5.40.

The tax of William Wheeler, of the Second Ward, was reduced from $8.80 to $3.80, because he was a cripple.

The tax of Mrs. S. A. G. Whipple was reduced from $18 to $13.

Five dollars of the tax assessed against John Page, Sr., of the Fifth Ward, amounting to $7.80, was remitted.

The valuation of $6800 on the property of George Shepherd, of the Nineteenth Ward, was confirmed.

The tax of Mary A. Holding, of the Seventh Ward, $36, was reduced to $30.

The tax of Mrs. J. Page, Jr., $7.40, was remitted.

The tax of Mrs. C. Bretcher, amounting to $3.80, was reduced to $5.

The valuation of $8000 on the property of Switzgaba was reduced to $4750.

The valuation of $2400 on Mrs. Harne's property on Pear Street was reduced to $1500.

The valuation of $3500 on James Willett's property on M Street was confirmed.

Clute's valuation of $9550 on John Squires property in the Twentieth Ward, was confirmed.

The valuation on the property of the estate of Mrs. Conrad on South Temple street $23,200 was confirmed.

The valuation of $3600 on the property of John Lawrence, in the Sixteenth Ward, was confirmed.

The valuation of $2900 on the property of Peter Shugreen, in the Sixteenth Ward, was reduced to $1500.

The valuation of $4000 on T. Sleights property in the Nineteenth Ward, was reduced to $3100.

The board then adjourned.

The board of equalization met promptly at 7.30 Wednesday, September 10th, with Mayor Scott in the chair.

J. R. Walker's objection to the valuation of $188,850 on various pieces of property owned by him was overruled and the assessor's figures sustained.

Mr. Clute then stated that in assessing Mr. Walker's property, he supposed that the portion of the Walker corner used by the Union National bank was owned by the bank and it was not assessed. Since then he had discovered that J. R.

Walker owned the property and he asked that he be assessed on twenty-four feet at a valuation of $1,200 per foot. The correction was made and the board gave Mr. Walker an Irish dividend.

Assessor Clute's valuation of $238,000 on the property owned by M. H. Walker was sustained.

The valuation of $39,000 on the property owned by the estate of J. M. Williamson, was reduced to $25,000.

The tax assessed against H. P. Mason, on $6,500 cash was abated.

Mrs. S. M. Simmons' request to be relieved from paying taxes amounting to $13.20 was refused.

The valuation of $5,600 on the property of E. M. Wetzel, of the Sixth Ward, was confirmed.

The tax of Mrs. Ann Cowley, of the Nineteenth Ward, amounting to $2.80 was remitted.

The tax on the home of the widow of General Maxwell was remitted.

The valuation of $17,500 on J. B. Young's Commercial street property, was confirmed. The valuation of $22,400 on Mr. Young's residence, on Fourth East street, was reduced to $14,600. The valuation of $20,600 on Mr. Young's First South street property was confirmed.

J. B. Dane's tax of $5.60 was remitted.

The tax assessed against B. W. Rolf, amounting to $11.80, was reduced to $10.60.

Five dollars was remitted of the tax assessed against Eliza Harvey, of the Nineteenth Ward, amounting to $11.80, on account of widowhood.

The assessment against J. W. Fox, Jr., on $5000 cash was abated.

William Leggett was relieved from paying his tax of $4 on account of old age.

The assessment against J. B. Hamilton, on $1000 cash was abated.

Five dollars was taken off the tax of Mrs. Helen Thirkill, amounting to $20, on account of widowhood.

The valuation of $3600 on the property of Sarah L. Brown was confirmed.

W. A. Needham's request to be relieved from paying taxes on $8000 cash, because he had invested the money in property and was assessed on the same, came up, and Mr. Clute suggested that all such money cases be referred to a committee for investigation.

Councilman Parsons made a motion to that effect, which was carried, and Councilmen Parsons, Wolstenholm and Pendleton were appointed as such committee.

The valuation of $12,400 on W. B. Dongall's Commercial Street property was confirmed.

The assessment of $2,800 on Sarah Barton's property on I Street was confirmed.

The tax of $8 assessed against Mrs. Huntington, of the Sixteenth Ward, was reduced to $5.

Five dollars was taken off the tax assessed against Mary Robbins, of the Eighteenth Ward.

The tax of Niels S. Larson, of the Twenty-first Ward, was reduced from $14.70 to $9.70 on account of Mr. Larson being blind.