JOYS OF MATERNITY

A WOMAN'S BEST HOPES REALIZED

Mrs. Potts Tells How Women Should Prepare for Motherhood

The darkest days of husband and wife are when they come to look for-ward to childless and lonely old age. Many a wife has found herself incapable of motherhood owing to a displacement of the womb or lack of strength in the generative organs.

Frequent backnohe and distressing pains, accompanied by offensive di charges and generally by irregular and scanty menstruction indicate a displacement or nerve degeneration of the womb and surrounding organs.

The question that troubles women is how can a woman who has some female trouble bear healthy children? Mrs. Anna Potts, of 510 Park Avenue, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

My Dear Mrs. Pinkhami-My Dear Mrs. Pinkham;—
During the early part of my married life I was delicate in health; both my husband and I were very anxious for a child to bless our home, but I had two miscarriages, and could not carry a child to maturity. A neighbor who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advised me to try it. I did so and soon felt that I was growing stronger, my headaches and backarhes left me. I had no more hearing along mains and became the mother of a strong, healthy child, the joy of our home. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is certainly a splendid remedy, and I wish every woman

DISTURBANCE IN THE THOUGHT WORLD.

The crisis through which Russia now passing is no more revolutions in its nature than is the commette now exercising the world of thouse All old theories are being overhaute Men are no longer satisfied with much mery in answer to the great, vital questions of life. They demand light and truth. They ask:—
Whence came 17
Why am I here?
Whither am I galant

Whither am I going?
with new emphasis.
Only twice in all the history of the world, so far as we know, have these questions been answered with a ational beneficence in keeping with he character of the gret Architect of he universe. First by the Savior of he world, and, second, by the Prophet ceeph Smith.

One hundred years ago the Prophet was born, and now, for the first time, has an attempt been made to epitomize the doctrines he advanced on the mysteries of evistance. The time the doctrines he advanced on the mysteries of existence. The time is opportune, both with regard to the memory of the Prophet, and to the present unrest in the thought world: for, as his teachings served to bring about the disturbance now existing, so they will lead the way to the new light that is rising apon the world.
