

SOCIETY

SOCIAL NIGHT

One of the notably enjoyable affairs of the week was the lawn party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Savage on Tuesday night, the guests comprising chief members of the Twentieth ward club and a few others. Among the many pleasant features was a musical program given by the choir, and Mrs. Lennie S. Riter, Thula Stevens, William Foster, A. Crawford, W. H. Russell and George Margate, while other amusements were also enjoyed. Refreshments were served and a thoroughly pleasant time spent.

About 30 guests were entertained by Miss Florence Grant on Tuesday in honor of Miss Ethel Collins and Mrs. E. H. Grant. The rooms being bright with sunflowers and goldfishes and the tables being in the same colors. Miss Addie Hampton was prize winner and the guests were the Misses Marie Odell, Grace Bird and Mrs. George T. Odell, Mrs. John C. Daly, Mrs. William C. Drubel, Mrs. Fred Leonard, Mrs. Grant Hampton, Mrs. Robert Roy Hampton, Mrs. Nellie King, Mrs. Percy Brown, Mrs. Fred Sinclair, Mrs. Matthew Cullen, Miss Louise Lamson, Miss Agatha Berkhoel, Miss Beatrice O'Connor, Miss Susan Sawyer, Miss Mamie Sappington, Miss Dollie Davis, Miss Mercy Berkeley, Miss Traddie Patterson, Miss Phoebe Hardin, Miss Alice Fisher, Miss Alta Rawlins, Miss Helen Letchfield, Miss Winnie Lynn, Miss Jean Odell, Miss Della Richards and Miss Margaret Richmond.

Miss Mamie Hines whose marriage takes place in the near future was guest of honor at a card party given by Misses Helen Tomlinson and Margaret Williams, about 15 guests being present. Hearts were used as talles and other details carried out the bridal idea.

Mrs. W. E. Schuller and Mrs. F. E. Carlson were hostesses at a delightful evening party on Tuesday given in honor of Miss Lottie Marcroft, the grounds and house being brilliantly lit and illuminated and a feature of the event being a spoon shower for the bride-elect. About 40 guests were present.

Mrs. W. H. McIntyre gave a pleasant party today for her daughters, Margaret and Marion the hours being from 2 to 7.

Miss Beth Critchlow was entertained at cards this afternoon by Miss Jean Odell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Rich entertained at a delightful evening affair on Tuesday in honor of their guest, Mrs. F. E. Sweeney of Denver, the time being spent with music and games.

Mrs. Edward Moore gave a luncheon at the Manitous on Tuesday in honor of Miss Ethel Collins of Indiana, the decorations being in pink and green and covers laid for the following: Miss Collins, Mrs. Manley, Mrs. Drake, Keokuk, Iowa; Miss Bagley of San Francisco, Mrs. F. D. Rickford, Mrs. Charles Cain, Crismon, Miss Helen Buckingham, Miss Lella Stingley and Miss Agatha Berkhoel.

Miss Elizabeth Groo was among those who entertained for Miss Ella C. Putnam, her affair being a luncheon with sweet peas used in the decorations. The guests to meet Miss Putnam were Miss Louise Putnam, Mrs. Graham F. Putnam, Miss Causse, Mrs. Healey of New York, Mrs. Harry Hathaway, Mrs. J. H. Hooper, Mrs. Hux Thomas, Miss Thinsman and Miss Bodel.

One of the largest events of the week was the lawn party given by Miss Virginia Shannon on Tuesday night, flags, bonnets and colored lights being everywhere, and dancing enjoyed. The rooms were bright with flowers and palms, and punch was served from the porch.

Miss Judith Evans gave a morning party and luncheon on Wednesday in honor of her sister, Mrs. G. N. Auldbaugh of Omaha, among the pleasant features being a musical program furnished by Miss Esther Tuckerman Allen, Miss Ella Seckels and Miss Bessie Critcher. The other guests were Miss Ella Mantor, Miss Elizabeth Curtis, Miss Leitch Block, Mrs. A. J. Hosmer, Miss Bessie Snyder, Miss Helen Buckingham, Mrs. A. J. Gorham, Mrs. Oscar L. Cox, Mrs. William Cleland, Miss Louise Cleland, Mrs. A. J. Hosmer and Mrs. Critzer.

Mrs. Arthur Buckhorn entertained at luncheon on Wednesday for Mrs. W. H. Meyers her decorations being pink and white and the guests being Mrs. W. H. Meyers, Mrs. Howard S. Brown, Mrs. J. A. Reeves, Mrs. J. B. Gordon, Mrs. Liebenthal, Mrs. Allen T. Sanford, Mrs. William McDonald, Miss Mary Van Houten, Mrs. Heber Burton and Mrs. Stella Hooper.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson entertained at a dozen friends at cards on Wednesday night, the contest being "500."

Mrs. C. C. Slade gave a morning card party on Thursday at her home in honor of Mrs. J. J. Pease of New Jersey.

Miss Florence Sears was hostess at a card party yesterday given in honor of Misses Julia Cullen and Helen Boudard.

Mrs. Ellsworth Daggett was among those who entertained at luncheon at the Country club on Wednesday, her guests numbering 14, and the decorations being in sweet peas.

One of the pleasant parties of the week was that of Miss Ivy Snyder on Wednesday, given in honor of Miss Mabel Beckner. Present besides Miss Beckner were Miss Abbie Love, Miss Jean Thorpe, Misses Pearl and Olive Shepard, Miss Edna Farnsworth, Miss Dorothy Thompson, Misses Julia and Jennie Williams, Miss Jennie Snyder, Miss Rennie of Oakland, Messrs. Fred Beckner, Roberts, A. M. Fellows, Russell Twining, J. C. Wood, Roy Wiley, John Beck, Ray and Blaine Boyman, Weir Cassidy, Howard Guthrie, Edwin Snyder and Mrs. Nellie Thorpe were the chaperones.

Miss Laura Sherman entertained at cards last night in honor of Miss Leta McMillan.

Miss Edna Shepherd gave a pretty afternoon affair yesterday in honor of Miss Mary Halloran, the rooms being decorated in yellow and many entertaining features being enjoyed. About 20 guests were entertained.

Miss McMillan was entertained at a luncheon at the Country club by Miss Gertrude McGrath on Thursday, the decorations being in pink asters and covers laid for 10 guests.

Miss McGrath entertained at a luncheon again today, her function being at the club house as before.

Miss Edith Sutherland was guest of honor at a luncheon on Thursday, given by Miss Julia Cullen, the details all being carried out in Indian idea, with Indian heads for place cards, Indian baskets for the flowers, and sun flowers and cattails for decorations, while a game of archery with Indian bows and arrows was played after luncheon, two Indian baskets being the prizes in the contest. Miss Jessie Home and Miss Sutherland were awarded the prizes and the guests were Miss Beth Critchlow, Miss Jean Odell, Miss Edna Farnsworth, Miss Eudora Daly, Miss Evelyn Daly, Miss Ida Legg, Miss Hollister Hancock, Miss Josephine Devereaux, Miss Margaret Ryan, Miss Agnes Ryan, Miss Susan Sawyer, Miss Stella Farnham, Miss Stella Cohn, Miss Elizabeth Weitz, Miss Helen Evans, Miss Flor-

COMING AND GOING

Misses Genieve and Glenn Douglas of Ogden, are in town for a few days, the guests of Miss Ethel Rogers.

The Misses Ivy Evans and Laura Parry have returned from Brighton, where they have spent the past two weeks with Miss Ely Geary.

The Misses Ely and Lybil Geary have been entertaining friends at the Geary cottage at Brighton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson are

MISS MATHILDE TOWNSEND.

QUAKERESS TO WED DUC DE ALBA.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Mathilde Townsend to Duc de Alba has not been made yet, but it is openly talked about not only in Homburg and Marlenbad, where both are well known, but also in London. Miss Townsend, a decidedly handsome girl, is the daughter of Mr. Lawrence Townsend of Pennsylvania, who was the American minister at Brussels from 1899 to 1906. Her mother, who is both smart and entertaining, is one of the cherished friends of Queen Alexandra and also of King Edward.

once Sears, Mrs. Charles W. Lawrence and Mrs. Fred U. Leonard.

Mrs. Windsor V. Rice was hostess at a delightful affair yesterday, given in honor of Mrs. Helen Southwell, the rooms being bright with flowers and a number of intimate friends assisting.

An interesting event of next week will be the piano recital to be given on Thursday by Miss Mary Olive Gray presenting her pupil, Miss Ella Gray, assisted by herself as accompanist and Mrs. Marie Gerans, vocalist. The hour is at 8:15, and the event takes place at the Congregational church.

Great interest was taken in the fair and bazaar given at the Emery-Holmes today, and a handsome sum was netted for the Infants' Home on I street.

Miss Addie Zane was hostess at a delightful affair yesterday in honor of Miss Leta McMillan.

On Monday Mrs. W. O. Clelland gave a tea in honor of her sister, Miss Louise Clelland, the rooms being decorated with a profusion of sweet peas and golden glow and a floral guessing game enjoyed, the prizes going to Mrs. Gertrude O. Perkins and Miss Judith Evans. Mrs. A. J. Gorham assisted the hostess and 20 guests were entertained.

Six guests were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. J. G. Sawyer on Wednesday to meet Mrs. O'Neill of Chicago, the table being decorated in red with asters and smilax.

Mrs. E. M. Allison was hostess at a morning bridge party on Thursday, followed by luncheon, the decorations being in goldfishes, and the prize in the contest being won by Mrs. W. W. Armstrong. The guests were: Mrs. Sutherland, Mrs. C. L. Turle, Mrs. Fred Hale, Mrs. Frank Swindler, Mrs. E. M. Miller of Kansas City, Mrs. W. H. Dale.

Miss Sawyer was guest of honor at a pretty luncheon on Wednesday given by Miss Mamie Sappington.

Mrs. Ella Squires entertained informally on Thursday evening for Mr. George Barratt. Present besides Mr. Barratt, were the Misses Frazier, Candland, Martha O'Connor, Anna Rogers, Ethel Rogers, Ruby Wright, Kate Squires, Mrs. Irene S. Williams, Mrs. Sydney Smith, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Squires and Messrs. Clyde Squires, Harold Squires and Lawrence Squires.

A party of young people left on Monday last and spent a delightful week in Logan canyon, returning to Ogden for the dance on Saturday night. The party, chaperoned by Mrs. Smith, included the following: Miss Ray Campbell of Salt Lake; Misses Genieve Thatcher, Julia Nibley, Afton Thatcher and Elva Ellaron, of Ogden; Messrs. Clyde Squires, Roy Chamberlain and Serge Campbell of Salt Lake; Mr. Frank Chamberlain of Ogden, and Messrs. Lewis Caine and George Miller of Logan.

Mrs. Melvin H. Soules will entertain next Wednesday for Miss Leta McMillan.

Mrs. W. P. Kiser will entertain at a luncheon at the Country club Thursday, Sept. 6, for Miss Leta McMillan and the Misses Lyster of Chicago.

Mrs. A. C. Ewing and Mrs. W. C. Alexander will entertain at a bridge tea on Tuesday at the Kenyon.

Tuesday, the anniversary of her natal day, Mrs. Stephen H. Love delightfully entertained at her elegant new home near Wandamere. The afternoon was spent in conversing and viewing the beautiful home after which a delicious dinner was served. The decorations were ferns and daffodils, and been spending some weeks at the Spaulding summer home.

Miss Helena Critzer is in the east visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Mann have returned home from Portland and Seaside, after spending the summer months.

Misses Hattie and Ida Flygare have returned from the east.

Mrs. Tom Carter left Monday afternoon for Long Beach, where she will spend the winter with her sister.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Franken and Miss Franken have returned from a trip through Yellowstone National park.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hansen are now at home to their friends at 145 east Second South street.

C. O. Whittemore returned Sunday from Ocean Park, Cal. Mrs. Whittemore and their son and daughter will be home about the middle of the month.

Miss Aline McMillan has returned from a visit of a month with Mrs. S. C. Adams of Denver.

M. M. and Waldemar Young are back from a week's stay with the Le Grand Young family at their camp on the Weber.

Mrs. Fred Hornung has returned from a stay of some two months in the east, and is again at home in the Miller flats.

Miss Emma Lucy Gates will be home today from a stay of some time with friends at Brighton.

Miss Bob Ellerbeck has returned to Stanford where she is taking up her junior year in college work.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read are touring Yellowstone park and will not return till about the middle of September.

Mrs. T. W. Partridge and family are back from a stay of some weeks at Castilla Springs.

Mr. John Reed of Denver is in the city from the northwest, where she has spent the past six weeks, and is a guest of Mrs. Harry Ganz.

Mrs. O. J. Salisbury and her daughter Miss Louise McCormick and baby, will return from Lake Tahoe today.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pixley Blyth will return from their trip to the back from their wedding trip and are at No. 1 Louise flats. Mrs. Blyth will be at home Thursdays after Sept. 15.

Mrs. Samuel A. King has returned from the Bagley farm, where she has spent the summer, and is at home at 60 west Sixth South.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scarff of Chicago are at home at the Keith apartments during their stay in the city.

Mrs. A. B. Witcher and young son have returned from a few days at Woods Cross.

Miss Winnifred Dyer has returned after a visit of two months with the Calvin family in San Francisco.

Mrs. James Deltrich of Spokane is in town for a three month's visit with her mother, Mrs. Elijah Sells.

Mrs. R. B. Young and her daughter, Miss Luella Young, returned from a month's stay in California.

Miss Cella Sharp has returned from the Le Grand Young camp on the Weber river, where she has been a guest.

Mrs. Paul F. Nolan has arrived from British Columbia, and is with her mother, Mrs. A. G. Pitts, at 265 East Sixth South street, for a visit.

Mrs. Robert S. Scannell has returned from Provo canyon, where she spent the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson have returned from their wedding trip and for the present are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCready.

Col. and Mrs. E. F. Holmes leave today for New York and will shortly sail for a tour of Europe and Egypt.

Judge and Mrs. Henry P. Henderson are home from a stay of ten days in Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Daynes and daughters have returned from their mountain home at the "Old Arm Chair," where they have been for the last six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cannon have announced the engagement of their daughter, Zannie, to Horace W. Sherman of Lincoln, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wilscomb announce the engagement of their daughter Leone to Arthur J. Skidmore, the marriage to take place Oct. 6.

Mrs. I. H. Brown announces the engagement of her daughter, Lorene, to Mr. Oliver W. Harvey, of Kansas City, the wedding to take place in October.

An interesting affair of the week was the marriage of Miss Elinor C. Putnam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Putnam, and Rev. J. K. Bodel, the ceremony being performed at the St. Mark's cathedral, with Bishop Spaulding and Dean Brewster officiating, and a breakfast being served later at the home of the bride, Mrs. Putnam and Miss Louise Putnam were the bride's attendants, and Dr. J. T. Keith best man, while the bride's brother, Grant P. Putnam, gave the bride away. Rev. and Mrs. Bodel have gone to Montrose, Col., to reside.

The Ladies' Minstrels of the First ward gave a good entertainment Thursday evening at the Grand opera house.

Charles Goates of Lehi, is visiting in Ogden this week with friends.

Mrs. Perkins and children went east this week. Her sons William and George will remain in school preparing to enter Harvard college.

The Weber club gave another of their enjoyable balls Thursday evening at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon.

At the Third ward meeting house Tuesday evening the young ladies of the ward sprung a surprise on Bishop's Counselor Gilbert Torgerson, who recently returned home from a mission to Sweden. They invited him to visit their meeting to speak to them, which he did, but after the meeting he was escorted to the hall by all of the young ladies, where they had prepared delicious refreshments, and a couple of hours were spent at music and dancing, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Misses May Young and Mamie Salmon of Provo, are spending a week in Ogden with friends.

Mrs. W. A. Middleton gave a dinner Thursday evening at her home, 640 Twenty-second street, in honor of Mrs. Hodge of Kansas, who is visiting in Ogden. Covers were laid for 20. The tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers.

Miss Sara Herbert, of Salina, and

PROVO.

Miss Ethel Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smart, of this city, and Mrs. Charles Lobb, of Salt Lake, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop E. D. Partridge officiating. A large number of guests were present to extend congratulations and good wishes to the happy couple, and enjoy the usual wedding festivities, including a sumptuous wedding dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lobb will reside in Salt Lake.

Miss Sara Herbert, of Salina, and

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

As the rolling snowball that grows with every increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, for over fifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

That's evidence conclusive that the peculiarly rich flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, please, and that's why we say you will like it.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

LOGAN.

Logan, Aug. 31.—Mrs. P. A. Yoder was hostess at an afternoon party on Friday last. The guest of honor being Mrs. R. W. Clark, who, with her husband, while the bride's brother, Grant P. Putnam, gave the bride away. Rev. and Mrs. Bodel have gone to Montrose, Col., to reside.

their employees at the Provo Lake resort Monday. A banquet was spread at which over eighty sat down. Bathing, boating and dancing were indulged in.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peay are spending a couple of weeks at the Lake Resort.

Mrs. Oliver Bailey, Mrs. J. W. McAdam and Mrs. May Bailey spent Sunday with friends in Eureka.

Miss Mina Houston spent the latter part of the week with friends in Provo.

Mrs. John Stewart came down from North Fork for a few days this week.

Miss Birdie Cluff spent a couple of days with friends in Salt Lake.

Mr. W. E. Stoker has moved his family down to the Provo Lake Resort for a week.

Miss Zella Farrer is at her post in the Farrer Bros. Co. store, after a two weeks' vacation, spent visiting friends in Eureka.

Mrs. J. N. Christensen visited her daughter, Mrs. H. B. Crandall, in Salt Lake this week.

Postmaster and Mrs. John Peters of American Fork visited relatives in Provo Wednesday.

The many friends of Miss Beale Preston will be pleased to learn of her marriage to Mr. Mosiah Evans of Lehi, which was solemnized in Salt Lake Wednesday. Both are well and favorably known in this city, and have a host of friends to wish them happiness and prosperity through life.

Mrs. Eliza Nelson left Wednesday to spend a few days in Provo canyon.

Dr. and Mrs. Smart of Springfield were Provo visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. J. E. Armsted visited friends in Eureka Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Farrer and family are camped at the Provo Lake Resort.

Mr. Alma Hulsh of Payson was a visitor in our city Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Irwin of Colorado Spring, Colo., announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Grace Dequita, to Mr. Ralph Murray Kellogg, of this city, which was solemnized at the bride's home Aug. 18.

The I. O. O. F. and Rebecca lodges surprised Mr. Ralph Archibald at his home Tuesday evening. A pleasant social evening was passed.

Mr. J. C. Allred of the forest reserve, spent Tuesday in Salt Lake.

LOGAN.

Logan, Aug. 31.—Mrs. P. A. Yoder was hostess at an afternoon party on Friday last. The guest of honor being Mrs. R. W. Clark, who, with her husband, while the bride's brother, Grant P. Putnam, gave the bride away. Rev. and Mrs. Bodel have gone to Montrose, Col., to reside.

The Ladies' Minstrels of the First ward gave a good entertainment Thursday evening at the Grand opera house.

Charles Goates of Lehi, is visiting in Ogden this week with friends.

Mrs. Perkins and children went east this week. Her sons William and George will remain in school preparing to enter Harvard college.

The Weber club gave another of their enjoyable balls Thursday evening at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon.

At the Third ward meeting house Tuesday evening the young ladies of the ward sprung a surprise on Bishop's Counselor Gilbert Torgerson, who recently returned home from a mission to Sweden. They invited him to visit their meeting to speak to them, which he did, but after the meeting he was escorted to the hall by all of the young ladies, where they had prepared delicious refreshments, and a couple of hours were spent at music and dancing, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Misses May Young and Mamie Salmon of Provo, are spending a week in Ogden with friends.

Mrs. W. A. Middleton gave a dinner Thursday evening at her home, 640 Twenty-second street, in honor of Mrs. Hodge of Kansas, who is visiting in Ogden. Covers were laid for 20. The tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers.

Miss Sara Herbert, of Salina, and

PROVO.

Miss Ethel Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smart, of this city, and Mrs. Charles Lobb, of Salt Lake, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop E. D. Partridge officiating. A large number of guests were present to extend congratulations and good wishes to the happy couple, and enjoy the usual wedding festivities, including a sumptuous wedding dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lobb will reside in Salt Lake.

Miss Sara Herbert, of Salina, and

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

As the rolling snowball that grows with every increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, for over fifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

That's evidence conclusive that the peculiarly rich flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, please, and that's why we say you will like it.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

LOGAN.

Logan, Aug. 31.—Mrs. P. A. Yoder was hostess at an afternoon party on Friday last. The guest of honor being Mrs. R. W. Clark, who, with her husband, while the bride's brother, Grant P. Putnam, gave the bride away. Rev. and Mrs. Bodel have gone to Montrose, Col., to reside.

The Ladies' Minstrels of the First ward gave a good entertainment Thursday evening at the Grand opera house.

Charles Goates of Lehi, is visiting in Ogden this week with friends.

Mrs. Perkins and children went east this week. Her sons William and George will remain in school preparing to enter Harvard college.

The Weber club gave another of their enjoyable balls Thursday evening at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon.

At the Third ward meeting house Tuesday evening the young ladies of the ward sprung a surprise on Bishop's Counselor Gilbert Torgerson, who recently returned home from a mission to Sweden. They invited him to visit their meeting to speak to them, which he did, but after the meeting he was escorted to the hall by all of the young ladies, where they had prepared delicious refreshments, and a couple of hours were spent at music and dancing, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Misses May Young and Mamie Salmon of Provo, are spending a week in Ogden with friends.

Mrs. W. A. Middleton gave a dinner Thursday evening at her home, 640 Twenty-second street, in honor of Mrs. Hodge of Kansas, who is visiting in Ogden. Covers were laid for 20. The tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers.

Miss Sara Herbert, of Salina, and

PROVO.

Miss Ethel Smart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smart, of this city, and Mrs. Charles Lobb, of Salt Lake, were married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Bishop E. D. Partridge officiating. A large number of guests were present to extend congratulations and good wishes to the happy couple, and enjoy the usual wedding festivities, including a sumptuous wedding dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Lobb will reside in Salt Lake.

Miss Sara Herbert, of Salina, and

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

As the rolling snowball that grows with every increasing volume with each succeeding revolution, has been the history of Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate, for over fifty years. Year after year the demand for it has increased by greater and still greater bounds, necessitating frequent increase in factory capacity.

That's evidence conclusive that the peculiarly rich flavor, which is preserved by the Ghirardelli process of preparation, please, and that's why we say you will like it.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

LOGAN.

Logan, Aug. 31.—Mrs. P. A. Yoder was hostess at an afternoon party on Friday last. The guest of honor being Mrs. R. W. Clark, who, with her husband, while the bride's brother, Grant P. Putnam, gave the bride away. Rev. and Mrs. Bodel have gone to Montrose, Col., to reside.

The Ladies' Minstrels of the First ward gave a good entertainment Thursday evening at the Grand opera house.

Charles Goates of Lehi, is visiting in Ogden this week with friends.

Mrs. Perkins and children went east this week. Her sons William and George will remain in school preparing to enter Harvard college.

The Weber club gave another of their enjoyable balls Thursday evening at the Hermitage in Ogden canyon.

At the Third ward meeting house Tuesday evening the young ladies of the ward sprung a surprise on Bishop's Counselor Gilbert Torgerson, who recently returned home from a mission to Sweden. They invited him to visit their meeting to speak to them, which he did, but after the meeting he was escorted to the hall by all of the young ladies, where they had prepared delicious refreshments, and a couple of hours were spent at music and dancing, which was greatly enjoyed by all present.