

EUROPE'S QUARREL.

The Powers Not Yet Agreed on a Collective Note to Greece.

Lord Salisbury's Position.

Italian Volunteers Arrive at Athens—The Admirals Contemplating Naval War on Ultimatum.

New York, March 2.—A special to the Herald from Constantinople says: All the rumors concerning the transmission of a collective note by the ambassadors accompanied by an ultimatum from here to Greece are premature. The ambassadors have not even received the terms in which this note is to be couched. Consequently, the opinion is that owing to the near approach of the Helles festival on Thursday, the collective note will not be made ready by Monday.

It is no longer doubted here that this note will be accepted by the Porte. Meanwhile it is hoped that Greece will not allow the note to be accepted by the Porte. The ambassadors continue to use all their efforts to prevent the note from being accepted. According to a dispatch received by the ambassadors' telegraph, the note is not yet ready.

A serious encounter took place at Wladivostok, five miles from Canine, between insurgents supported by Greek troops, and Russian troops. The Russian troops were victorious.

The blockade of the entire coast of Crete which is now maintained with great vigor to the foreign forces is very effective. The want of provisions is felt throughout the island. The inhabitants of Crete have asked for the removal of the blockade, thereby to provide themselves with provisions for use of the island. The Russian troops have asked for the removal of the blockade, thereby to provide themselves with provisions for use of the island.

A CHIEF BLUE BOOK. CANE, March 2.—A chief blue book has been received from the British government, dated February 1897, and containing a report on the situation in Crete.

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

As to the ability to stand punishment, Julian said: "Peter Mavro is the best soldier in the barracks, and he is the best soldier in the barracks."

SAFE IN WASHINGTON.

President-Elect McKinley Enters the National Capitol.

NO MILITARY DISPLAY FOR HIM.

Popular Demonstrations Along the Road—A Large Crowd at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President-elect McKinley and party arrived here in a special train about 11:15 a.m. and were driven to the White House. The President-elect took up his abode at the White House at the afternoon of March 4.

In accordance with McKinley's expressed wish there was no escort or display connected with his entry into the national capital. It had been arranged that a company of militia should have accompanied him up the Avenue, but the President-elect refused to accept of such a guard.

McKinley's first act this morning was to call on his mother in the adjacent house.

Breakfast over, McKinley started on a tour of the city, and was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. McKinley, and his daughter, Miss McKinley.

Before breakfast was reached the President-elect was surrounded by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

THE EUROPEAN CONCERT.

Disputed by the Allies and the Entente.

LONDON, March 1.—The Daily Chronicle says there is little doubt that the serious crisis in the concert of the powers is due, first, to lack of wisdom in the policy of the allies, and secondly to the wrath of Kaiser Wilhelm.

The Chronicle says, "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

Continuing the Chronicle says: "The policy of the allies is not only unwise, but it is also unwelcome to the Kaiser."

SAFE IN WASHINGTON.

President-Elect McKinley Enters the National Capitol.

NO MILITARY DISPLAY FOR HIM.

Popular Demonstrations Along the Road—A Large Crowd at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President-elect McKinley and party arrived here in a special train about 11:15 a.m. and were driven to the White House. The President-elect took up his abode at the White House at the afternoon of March 4.

In accordance with McKinley's expressed wish there was no escort or display connected with his entry into the national capital. It had been arranged that a company of militia should have accompanied him up the Avenue, but the President-elect refused to accept of such a guard.

McKinley's first act this morning was to call on his mother in the adjacent house.

Breakfast over, McKinley started on a tour of the city, and was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. McKinley, and his daughter, Miss McKinley.

Before breakfast was reached the President-elect was surrounded by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

SAFE IN WASHINGTON.

President-Elect McKinley Enters the National Capitol.

NO MILITARY DISPLAY FOR HIM.

Popular Demonstrations Along the Road—A Large Crowd at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President-elect McKinley and party arrived here in a special train about 11:15 a.m. and were driven to the White House. The President-elect took up his abode at the White House at the afternoon of March 4.

In accordance with McKinley's expressed wish there was no escort or display connected with his entry into the national capital. It had been arranged that a company of militia should have accompanied him up the Avenue, but the President-elect refused to accept of such a guard.

McKinley's first act this morning was to call on his mother in the adjacent house.

Breakfast over, McKinley started on a tour of the city, and was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. McKinley, and his daughter, Miss McKinley.

Before breakfast was reached the President-elect was surrounded by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

SAFE IN WASHINGTON.

President-Elect McKinley Enters the National Capitol.

NO MILITARY DISPLAY FOR HIM.

Popular Demonstrations Along the Road—A Large Crowd at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President-elect McKinley and party arrived here in a special train about 11:15 a.m. and were driven to the White House. The President-elect took up his abode at the White House at the afternoon of March 4.

In accordance with McKinley's expressed wish there was no escort or display connected with his entry into the national capital. It had been arranged that a company of militia should have accompanied him up the Avenue, but the President-elect refused to accept of such a guard.

McKinley's first act this morning was to call on his mother in the adjacent house.

Breakfast over, McKinley started on a tour of the city, and was accompanied by his wife, Mrs. McKinley, and his daughter, Miss McKinley.

Before breakfast was reached the President-elect was surrounded by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

At Baltimore the train stands and McKinley and party are met by a large crowd of people.

BROKE OUT OF JAIL.

Two Convicts Escape from the City Jail.

THEY ARE YOUNG BUT TOUGH.

Saved a Yale Football and Then Took Their Leave—The Police Are Not Furloughed.

Again the insecurity of the city jail as a place of safe keeping for criminals has been demonstrated. This time two birds have flown, where to no one knows, other than that they appear to have made good their escape, and have, through the intervention of a Yale football player, secured a safe passage to the city jail, coupled with about three hours' systematic and determined escape.

The break-away occurred during the night of the 28th, at a time when all good people are supposed to be sleeping the sleep of the just. It was a dark, moonless night, and the jail was empty, except for the two convicts, who were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.

The convicts, who were in the cell, were in the cell, and the Yale football player, who was in the cell, was in the cell.