Thatcher, Graham Co., Arizona, April 13.-Yesterday, Sunday, April 12, Mrs. Eliza Ann Alired was lovingly laid to rest. The old assembly hall was crowded to overflowing with sympa-thetic friends. The choir rendered beautiful and appropriate selections. The speakers were Bishop Wm. A. Moody, Patriarch Phileman C, Mer-rill and Samuel Claridge, Bishop Welker, President Andrew Kimball, Wm. D. Johnson. "O My Father" was sung by Miss Laura Wolsey and the choir. and interspersed between the speakers "Nearer My God to Thee" and "God be with you till we meet again" were rendered by the choir, also "I know that my way is protected," and the closing piece was "Then say not 1 journey The speakers dwelt upon the noble life of the diseased and of the splendid family of which she is a member. There were many strangers. present, old friends of President Christopher Layton, the deceased's father, and his family. Six brothers of the Six brothers of the leceased were pallbearers. There were fully 70 vehicles following her to the grave, 17 of which were filled with im-mediate relatives. The choir sang "Till the Resurrection Day," and Claridge dedicated the grave, and Father "Strike while the iron is hot." The iron is always hot for the man who knows how to advertise. He hits so hard and so often in the same place that he keeps the iron hot. He doesn't hit one big blow and then sit down to wait for the iron to coal off in order to feel the dent.
