

BURRELL BOYS PLEAD NOT GUILTY

Couple of Alleged Holdups Were Arraigned Before Judge Diehl
This Morning.

TWO CHARGES AGAINST ONE.

Edmund Must Answer to Assault With Deadly Weapon and Robbery—Both Were Nervous.

So far but two complaints have been filed against the Burrell brothers, the alleged hold ups arrested by Detectives Chase and Burt.

This morning they were arraigned in Judge Diehl's court.

Their names were given as Walter and Edmund Burrell, and the first complaint charges them with robbery.

The defendants entered pleas of not guilty and the court fixed their bonds at $1,000, which they were unable to give.

Edmund Burrell was then arraigned on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon, the complainant being J. P.
Kirk, the groceryman whom they robbed Saturday night. Burrell pleaded not guilty to this complaint and his hearing was set for Friday, Dec. 7 at 10 a. m.

The hearing in the robbery case was set for 3 p. m. of the same day.

The alleged robbers acted rather nervously, and continuously spoke to each other in an undertone.

After the arraignment they were handcuffed together and taken to the county jail by Deputy Sheriffs Smith and Cowan.

DAMAGE SUIT.

Thos. Perkins Fails to Get Money for Injuries.

Judge Stewart this afternoon dismissed the damage suit of Thomas Perkins against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company upon plaintiff's motion, and without prejudice.

The action was brought to recover $30,000 damages for injuries sustained by plaintiff near McCammon, Ida., while employed by the company.

The injury received by plaintiff consisted of the loss on one leg and severe bruises on the back and body of plaintiff.

AUTOMOBILE ATTACHED.

J. Donnan Revis Loses Machine on Suit of Foreclosure.

The decree of foreclosure of a chattel mortgage was rendered by Judge Stewart this afternoon in favor of plaintiff in the case of James Ingelbrecht against J. Donnan Revis and wife. The amount of the judgment is $445. Plaintiff is also allowed $100 as attorney's fees.

The property foreclosed is an automobile, a mortgage on which was given to secure the payment of a prom-issory note for $500.

The defendants failed to appear and their default was entered.

Ward Entertainments.

The Twentieth Ward.—The Twentieth ward amusement hall will have a concert of rare beauty last night. Hundreds of persons visited the opening of the three days' exposition of industry and fine arts. The display was most creditable in all respects, and the promoters of the hall have just occasion for pride in the fact that the Twentieth ward has which they have secured. These different booths were all well patronized and admired for their unique and original outlines and that which they offered to their patrons. Particularly brilliant were the Japanese, art and doll booths, while the striking picture according to the Twentieth ward has been long to remember. Then as to the society's log cabin its quaint and simple pioneer architecture, formed a decidedly pretty frame for the many useful articles that were sold or offered for sale. The kitchen and refreshment department did a rushing business and had many callers at their interesting branch of the affair. The fish pond had anglers galore, and the hall of relics was crowded by those who were exceedingly interested in the thousands of dollars' worth of rare relics that it contained. The contest for the most popular girl was given an impetus by the appearance of numerous new candidates last night.
The fair will close tomorrow evening.

The Mutual Improvement associations of the Fifth ward will give a high-class vocal and instrumental concert day evening, Dec. 2. The program, ment will accompany the professors and give musical instruction.

E. E. Jones, who has been absent for about two years, raiding in Southern California, is here on a visit. He will return after the holidays.

The death of Marion M. Johnson of Springville, at the age of 47 years, from nervous prostration, is reported here.
Mr. Johnson was a son of the late Bishop Aaron Johnson.

Judge Saxey is here from Spanish Park.

Three tramps were before Justice Noon, yesterday, charged with being drunk. They were fined $7 each and will serve seven days in the city jail.

TRIP WAS CUT SHORT.

Two Salt Lake Boys Started Out to See the World.

William Green and James Buck, aged 16 and 15 years respectively, ran away from their homes in Big Cottonwood yesterday and started for California.
They were apprehended in Ogden, however, by Chief of Police Browning, and will have to postpone their visit to the coast for awhile. Buck had been in California before, and he told his companion of the possibilities for young America in that sunny clime and induced Green to go with him.

When Mr. Green returned home last night he found that his boy had departed, and he immediately came to the city and notified Deputy Sheriff Axel Steele of the affair. The Ogden officials were at once communicated with, and this morning about 6 o'clock a message was received from Chief Browning stating that the boys had been found.
Deputy Sheriff Steele will go to Ogden after them this afternoon.

SAN PEDRO OFFICIALS.

E. W. Gillett and Assistants Arrive
From Los Angeles Today.

A party of Salt Lake Route officials arrived in Salt Lake this morning from Los Angeles in the persons of E. W.
Gillett, general freight and passenger agent, T. C. Beck, assistant passenger agent, and Mr. W. F. Gleason. They will remain in Salt Lake for a few days, going over the local traffic situation.

Mr. Gillett reports splendid passenger business at the California end of the line, with lots of work for all hands getting ready for the opening of the line early next year.

GOVERNOR BACHELDER HERE.

Governor Nahum J. Bachelder of New Hampshire, who has been visiting California, and is now on his way home, stopped over a short time this morning and drove around the city. He also called upon Governor-elect John C. Cutler.

BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

Visit of the Governor to Fort Douglas A Noteworthy Function.

The visit of the governor to Fort Douglas yesterday afternoon, and the reception given him and his staff, are considered the most noteworthy affair of the kind ever to have occurred at the post. Everything was full dress, and the amount of gold lace glittering in the ambient atmosphere suggested a presidential reception. Capt. Frank ter, being over the local traffic situation.

These individuals are believed by the police to be members of an organized band of shoplifters, which has its headquarters in Chicago. The gang has delegates in all large cities and the goods are shipped east as they accumulate.

In order to offset the work of just such people, all the leading stores here have employed spotters; in one case an old-time city police detective has been engaged, to break up the work of the thieves.

It is on the cards that there will be some developments within the next few days. Already have several distressed women been caught redhanded in the act of purloining articles from several stores, but the incidents have been hushed up, owing to the social standing of the parties involved.

KILLED BY AN ENGINE.

An Old Man Run Over at Bingham Junction While Gathering Coal.

(Special to the "News.")

Bingham Junction, Dec. 4.—At noon today a man whose name is either Swenson or Nelson was run over and killed by a switch engine of the Rio Grande Western Railroad. The victim was an old man, apparently between 65 and 70 years of age, and resides between this place and Murray. At the time of the accident he was gathering coal on the track, about two blocks from the Bingham station, and was struck by the engine, which came up from behind. It is thought that he must have been suffering from deafness, or else misjudged the nearness of the train.

"SHEENY ANN" IS EXPECTED HERE.

Notorious Woman Shoplifter Said To be on Her Way to Salt Lake.

ONE OF A TAKING QUARTET.

All Four Members of Notorious Chicago Gang Due Here to Do Some Shopping.

John Moore and his accomplished sister, Helen Moore, alias "Sheeny Ann," after a brief visit in Denver are said to be en route for Salt Lake and San Francisco. They will spend a few days in this city "doing" Christmas shopping. Edward Wilson and Bella Davis, two other clever and talented people, are expected to arrive in this city, if they have not already done so.

All four, who have a large circle of official acquaintances in the east, and who are going to the coast "for their health," prefer to travel incognito and shun the members of the press who would be pleased to give them a passing paragraph. They are not seeking any undue notice. While all are endowed with taking personalities they are of Davis, for instance, has a cute little contrivance which she is seriously thinking of getting patented under the name of the "Commuter's Friend, or the Automatic Parcel Carrier."

Whenever you see Bella stooping down in a crowded store (which you will not in all probability) she is not tying up a troublesome shoe lace, although she may appear to be so doing —she is simply hanging a stolen article on to one of the numerous little hooks that are fastened to an ingenious harness attached to her garters.

Helen's methods are different. First and foremost Helen is what is termed a "good-looker." She is tall and possessed of considerable charms. While her pal engages the attention of the store clerk Helen cleverly abstracts rare laces, jewelry, neckties, fancy vests and other things to hide them in her voluminous skirt waist train. She does not look like a thief, and her work, and incidentally the articles, by sheer dash and bluff.

Both Helen and Bella are also provided with huge pocket skirts and an array of hooks around the waist upon which goods can be hung without impeding the movement of the wearer.

The Moore girls are dark and of a Jewish cast of countenance, while Miss Davis is a pretty little blue-eyed woman with an expression of baby-like innocence which makes it almost impossible to suspect her of wrong doing.

John Moore and Wilson have been extensively in New York, New Orleans, San Francisco and all the large cities of the country and are familiar with the inside of the prisons in many places. Wilson was in New York a few years ago when it was searched by the police of that city.

These individuals are believed by the
band of shoplifters, which has its head-
late.

have employed spotters; in one case an
engaged, to break up the work of the thieves.

LANDERS, THE HEALER.

man of science, on his last tour of the m., evenings 7 to 8 p. m.

CITY'S WATER PROBLEM.

Real Estate Association and Citizens' Committee Consider it at Length.

The special joint council and citizens' committee appointed to prepare an address to the taxpayers in support of the city council's plan for solving the much vexed water supply problem, held its first meeting yesterday afternoon, in the office of Attorney F. S. Richards.
Those present were O. J. Salisbury, George A. Whitaker, W. Mont Ferry, Nephi L. Morris, John Clark, Mayor R.
P. Morris, Councilmen Wells, Dean and Fensterom, A. J. Davis was unable to attend, and President Hewlett of the council is out of town. Mayor Morris, State Engineer A. F. Doremus and Attorney F. S. Richards were chosen a sub-committee to draw up the address, with John E. Hansen as secretary. The sub-committee will meet this evening, in Judge Richards' office to begin active work.

Among the suggestions offered yesterday was one by Councilman Dean, who urged that the Big Cottonwood conduit be brought directly to the city and not made to connect with the Pa-rley's canyon conduit. He held that the longer conduit could be constructed for the same sum, and that as the carrying capacity of Parley's conduit was limited it would be better to have the new conduit independent of the old one. The idea was to bring the water to the city on as high a level as possible, to water the whole stretch east and southeast of Fort Douglas, the entire east bench down as far as Mill creek, which may later become a part of the city. Moreover, this high line conduit would relieve the demands on the high line supply, and "dry" there the rub." After considering the matter for three hours, the association adjourned without taking action, but decided to meet against Dec. 10 to try and do something. However, the association did go on record as opposed to purchase of water meters by the city. An encouraging report as to the financial status of the real estate bureau of information was read, and it was decided to continue the canvass for subscriptions.

WOULD SOONER FIGHT THAN ACT.

Jim Jeffries, champion pugilist of the world, arrived in Salt Lake today, and tonight will begin his engagement at the Grand theater in "David Crockett."

The sporting editor of the "News" saw Jeffries at the Kenyon hotel, and found the big brawler in excellent spirits.

To the question, "Which do you like the better, acting or fighting?" he said: "Fighting for mine every time! I do not profess to be a great actor. In "David Crockett" I try to be natural, and all after the way, I give a little exhibition of sparring with Joe Kennedy. There is nothing about this that the most sensitive person could object to."

Jeffries was asked about the statement that he had agreed to meet Jack Johnson, the colored man. He said: "There is nothing in it. He would not draw, and besides, I have already stated emphatically that I would never engage in a championship battle with a negro, and I mean it."

When asked what he thought of the outcome of the Corbett-Nelson fight Jeffries said:

"The result did not surprise me in the least. This man Nelson is a tough, strong young fellow, and has a license to beat any of the little men."

Jeff was asked what he thought about the present heavyweights, and how long he would probably hold the championship.

"This man Sandy Ferguson, who is a strong, rugged man, seems to be about the best in the business today. While Johnson is a good man, I will not fight him and that is all there is to it," said the champion.

"Well," said Jeff, "in my position as the present heavyweight champion of the world it would hardly be right of me to speak of future champions, as I realize that I cannot be champion always. I cannot fail to realize that if I stay in the business long enough some husky young fellow will come along and take my measure. But just at present I am ready to meet any white man in the world, bar none."

Of the superiority of the fighter of the present day over those of the time of the celebrated John L. Sullivan, I think there is no doubt, as the fighter of today is faster and more severe in his boxing ability. Matches with old-time fighters show that modern boxers know the vulnerable points better than the pugilists of bygone years."

Jeffries is accompanied by his wife and Billy Delaney, the man who has been "handled" many world's champions.
After the engagement at the Grand they will go to Denver, and then east.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The storm area that made its appearance over the Pacific northwest, has lengthened out into a long trough, extends from British Columbia, southward to northern Texas, with its lowest pressure about Salt Lake. The storm has diminished greatly in energy during the past 24 hours and now appears to be devoid of all the characteristics of a storm area, as clear weather prevails throughout the territory under its immediate influence. The "high" noted over Missouri has continued its rapid eastward movement and is now passing beyond the range of observation over the Atlantic coast. High pressure overlies the central Pacific coast region.

Light rains have been quite general along the northern Pacific coast and the Northern plateau. Snow is reported from the east side of the coast and continues westward, and over northern New England, and rain along the Gulf coast. Rain was falling this morning at Victoria and snow at Pithers.

Temperatures were decidedly lower over the Atlantic coast states and the Upper Mississippi valley; elsewhere no marked changes occurred except in portions of the Middle plateau.
