A SAD SPECTACLE.

Girl Goes Riding, Becomes Intoxicated and is Beaten by a Brutal Man.

With an ugly bruise on her face and in a state of intoxication, Miss Marie Wilson, a girl 19 years old, was picked up last night by the police. She said that she had gone for a drive with a young fellow whose name is sometimes Will Baker and sometimes W. E. Mitchell, and that besides getting her intoxicated and striking her, he had robbed her of a pair of diamond earrings and a gold watch. One of the earrings was found close to where the girl was picked up on the street.

Baker, or Mitchell, secured the ring in which they were driving early in the day from the Salt Lake Livery and Transfer company. When he did not return last evening, an employee of the livery was sent out to hunt for him and the girl. The outfit was located near the Salt Palace, and the employee brought it back to the livery, leaving the fellow and the girl, who were engaged in a quarrel nearby, to walk home. Shortly after this O. H. Walsh, driver of the 1202 Second street car, was passing and he saw the fellow strike the girl and run. The police were at once called and the girl was brought to the station. If the man Baker, or Mitchell, is caught it will be hard work with him.

JUNK MAN'S TROUBLES.

Rogowsky Thought He Had Been Shot at by Stranger.

Fred Rogowsky, the junk man who engaged in bloody battle with M. M. Gallagher a couple of days ago, is inclined to think that someone is on his trail and would fain put an end to his existence. Yesterday while he was quietly at work in his shop, something came crashing through the window. Rogowsky jumped up and ran to the police station.

"Somebody shot at me through my window," he told the sergeant breathlessly.

Investigation showed that the missile which had roused him from his labor was a stone of little greater proportions than a pebble. As Gallagher, who was the burner on him in his last fracas, is now in jail, it is evident that some other arch enemy of Rogowsky is trying to work his undoing.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Intruders Make a Bungle Some Endeavor to Enter Hewlett Residence.

An attempt was made last night to burglarize the residence of O. H. Hewlett, 125 east, Seventh South street, but it was a bunglesome effort and netted the intruders nothing. Mr. Hewlett had been out to Saltair during the evening, and when he returned, he found the screen in one of his front windows cut out and evidence of ineffectual attempts to pry the window open. The would-be burglars had evidently tried to make an entrance that way, and failing, had endeavored to get in through a rear upstairs window, the screen of which had also been cut.

Mr. Hewlett is inclined to think that some of the young hoodlums that infest the neighborhood had a hand in it, for he looked like the work of amateurs. He has offered a reward of $50 for the capture of the offenders. The police have also been notified, and it is hoped that whoever had a hand in it will be captured. If it is any of the hoodlums of the town they will not be lightly dealt with.

DEATH OF MRS. ACOMB.

Aged Lady of This City Succumbs to Dysentery.

Mary Acomb, of 528 West Sixth South, in this city died at her home at 11:10 last night of dysentery, after an illness of only two days. Deceased was 66 years of age, and has resided in Utah six years, having emigrated to Utah from Ellerton, Yorkshire, England. She came to Utah with her husband and one of her sons and a daughter. Since that time her son and her husband have died. She was the mother of eleven children, only one of whom is living, Miss Hannah Acomb.

Funeral services from the Sixth ward meeting house, Sunday at 2 p. m.

WILL PREVENT LOCKJAW.

Such the Virtues S. F. Atwood Claims For His Remedy.

S. A. Atwood of Kansas writes the "News" that he has a remedy which is an absolute preventive of lockjaw, and that it has been known to cure after the jaws have been set. The remedy is very simple as he prescribes it. All that is necessary is a mixture of soft soap, common lye soap, and pulverized chalk, just ordinary chalk, until it is of the consistency of griddle cake batter, and then apply it to the wound.

CONFERENCE CHANGE.

The One for Wayne Stake Postponed Until August 25th.

The following notice was issued from President Snow's office today:

The Wayne Conference, advertised to be held August 3rd and 4th next, is postponed until Sunday and Monday, August 25th and 26th.

LORRENZO SNOW.

SAYS THEY ROBBED HIM.

Ed Williams and J. E. Carpenter, the two alleged crooks who are now in jail on various charges, have another complaint lodged against them. W. J. Hewlett has appeared at police headquarters and identified them as having robbed him of $40 in a Second South street saloon, two or three nights ago. The cases against the men for criminal conspiracy and impersonating an officer will be tried Monday morning at 10 o'clock before Justice Dana Smith.

BURGLAR'S HASTY RETREAT.

Ben Fullmer, who lives at 556 South First West street, awoke at about 2 o'clock this morning and discovered a burglar in the act of taking a window screen out of its place. Mr. Fullmer quietly arose and, taking a chair with which to brain the thief, tip-toed over to the window to await the entrance. At this point the burglar struck a match, and espied Mr. Fullmer. He lost no time then in clearing fences and getting miles away from the spot which he would fain have robbed.

SPECIAL POLICEMAN ARRESTED.

R. L. Heninger, a special policeman employed at the Salt Palace, was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with obtaining goods under false pretenses. P. W. Miller is the complainant and he alleged that he advanced the defendant $20 on furniture, which, it was found, later did not belong to Heninger. The accused was arraigned before Judge Dana Smith yesterday afternoon. He entered a plea of not guilty, and furnished $100 bail for his appearance.

ABOUT THE ELKS' FAIR.

Contract for Building the Fence Awarded to Utah Lumber Company.

The Elks Carnival committee have awarded the contract for the building of the fence for the enclosure of West Temple from Second South West to Third West, south from West Temple to Main and West Second South, to the Utah Lumber Co., 60,000 square feet of lumber will be used for the enclosure. Dr. W. F. Beer has been appointed chairman of the parade committee. The parade during the carnival week will feature a parade of the Elks, which will take place on Sept. 19th. All fraternal organizations will be asked to participate. All Utah volunteers and National guardsmen and merchants will be asked to make a display with floats and all Elks of Salt Lake Lodge No. 55, and visiting Elks will participate in the parade on that day. Boyd Park, the jeweler, has donated a hundred dollar prize to the Elks' fair. The lady suggesting the most appropriate name for the Elks' live elk, which is to be christened on Sept. 20th, Elks' day. A committee of three leading citizens, not Elks, will select the name. The next few days to decide who in their opinion of the guessers has suggested the most appropriate name. The guessing contest is for ladies only. Contest closes Sept. 20th at 5 p. m. Capt. F. P. Stoll, director general carnival, will leave for Butte Street Fair and Carnival, which takes place in that city on July 16th to 25th. He goes to Butte City to look over the Elks' show of one hundred and twenty people, which attraction the Elks' carnival committee recently contracted for.

AT THE RESORTS.

The Epworth Leaguers have made it unanimous at Saltair today.

The International Association of Machinists, as far as the local lodges are concerned, are out at Laegon today. An interesting program in a feature of the outing and a handsome list of prizes is offered the various contestants.

The committee in charge of the M. I. A. excursion to Saltair on Thursday is working hard to make the day a success in every sense of the word. By tonight there will be steamers attached to the street cars and similar advertising notices will be placed outside all the meeting houses in Salt Lake State.

The M. I. A. outing in the past has been characterized by a immense gathering of the young people, and it is to the fact that next week all previous records will be broken. Among other features connected with the reunion will be continuous music which will be furnished on that day by Christensen's orchestra and Held's band alternately. The committee in charge of the excursion is comprised of J. West, chairman, Lewis Wells, Matt Thomas, Elmer Caldwell and other well known workers in M. I. A. circles.

Since the Epworth Leaguers came to Saltair, the young man had his hand full of trouble. Not only had he settled the beer question that the house were upon him. Yesterday he received a wire from down the line to come to a railroad where he was to be to town and would be there thirty-five seats on the afternoon train out to the beach. Ever willing to please Mr. Batesman adjourned to the depot and started on his journey. The train was packed and he especially saw if there was any reserving to be done he would have to do it with the business of a shot gun. As such a move was made, a rain cloud loomed over the mild expostulations of the belated travelers when they arrived on the scene too late to take the train. To add to his sorrows, just three minutes before the train started, a message came from an uptown restaurant to the effect that a party of tourists were laying in supplies, and would be so kind as to hold the train for five minutes.

Mr. Leib, the curly man out at Saltair, told a story here to put in the Leaguers which is too good to keep. Yesterday a small party stormed his stand out at the beach and proceeded to overhurl his stock of goods. With a yell of "heave ho," the party of the ladies in the party said "If I spend twenty-five cents for this photo I will not be able to take a bath in the lake. I want this picture and I would like to go in the lake."

Leib arose to the occasion like a true diplomat, and with a sweet smile said: "Well, Madame, you know which you want."

Needless to say he sold the picture.

The Cambrian Society will migrate in force to Saltair on Wednesday. Special rates will be given on the railroads from all Utah points.

The Jordan Stake M. I. A. holds its outing at Laegon on Monday.

The trapeze act over the lake at Calder's Park every evening has proved to be a great drawing card.

The Salt Palace is entertaining heavy crowds every night since the warm spell set in. Close upon 5,000 people flocked to that cool retreat last evening.

The employees of the Z. C. M. I. will give their annual outing to Laegon on Wednesday afternoon. The various committees are working hard to make the outing a success. Among the attractions promised is a road race, shooting match, baseball game, a general program of athletic sports and a dancing contest. A number of handsome prizes will be donated on this occasion to the lucky winners.

GROVOT, WYOMING.

Frost Retards Crops—The Fourth in Jackson's Hole.

Special Correspondence.

Grovot, Uinta Co., Wyo., July 7.—The long spell of cold weather which lasted all the month of June, greatly retarded the growth of vegetation. The warm wave struck here on July 5th, but the night of the 6th was like winter, freezing quite hard.

The celebrations were held in Jackson's hole country, on the 4th. Grovot people went up to Jackson's Hole, some twenty miles north of this place. A very sociable time was had at Mr. C. J. Allen's new hotel. The day was spent in horse and foot racing, etc. In the evening a dance was given in the new hotel, where a lively time was had. James H. May Ed. Sheffield and Mrs. Shives furnished the music.

The tourist season will soon begin. In fact some are already here to get in the season. We anticipate a very many hunters and pleasure seekers this fall. Haying will soon begin. The wild hay is nearly ready for cutting. Timothy looks well considering it made little growth during June. Alfalfa is not doing well, too much frost. The hay crop as a whole, it is feared, will be ruined by having them bound. The valley is still settling up. Quite a number of new settlers moved in this spring and quite a colony is expected from the west. Still we have room for more, with water and timber almost limitless.

Two large outfits from Star Valley passed through here within the last ten days, going to Big Horn basin.
