George E. Hill, Jr., of Rigby, Idaho, vice president of the Western Retail Lumbermen's association, which covers the five states of Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho and Utah, arrived from the north yesterday. He is in the city to attend the big meeting of the Utah lum-tend the big meeting of the Utah lum-bermen which convenes at the Wilson hotel this afternoon. Mr. Hill reports castern Idaho, and par-ticularly what is termed the upper Snake river valley, as having enjoyed the most prosperous year in the country's history. Irrigation water has been pienufu, and all crops have yielded tremendoussy. In fact, there has not been near sufficient men to harvest the crops. The acreage planted to sugar beets was so large, and the Jap-anese labor so scarce that many acres of beets were not properly cultivated, and us a consequence yielded but little. One cause of this was the greater part of the land planted to beets this year was al-falfa land, plowed for the first time last spring and much of the alfalfa grew up again among the beets, and chocked them out.

Another trouble with castern Idaho is that it has developed clear beyond the present capacity of the rairoads to han-die the traffic. The people are crying for coal now and cannot get it. Shippers nave been greatly hampered this fail in ob-taining cars to move out the produce. Hundreds of cars of potatoes have this season been shipped from eastern Idaho to Kansus, Texas. Colorado and other continguous states. Wheat is also being shipped to Texas. Mr. Hill reports, however, that the rail road map of Idaho promises to undergo a considerable change in the mear future. The Burlington and the Northwestern sur-veyors are now cross-sectioning their former surveys down the South Fork of Sanke river, which is the entry pass through the mountains into that country. They seem to be racing against each other in odder to Becure the route. There is ample business in the upper Sanke river valey now to warrant another eastern ina building in there. The J. J. Hill interests are already building down the north bank of the Co-lumbia, from Lowiston, Idaho, to Port-and, and about 500 miles of road will con-pact with the Burlington's Gurnsey line and the Columbia river road thus giving the Burlington a coast line without build-ing any very great amount of road. The Northwestern line has long had its eve on western Wyoning and Idaho, and nat-urally does not which the shut out of the Northwestern line has long had its eve on western Wyoning and Idaho, which is an-Another trouble with eastern Idaho is

Mr. Hill is enthuislastic in say-ing that he is confident that a new trutk line will build through Idaho within two years, and will pass very close to Rigby, as two surveys already made touch this town on the south.
