EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, - December 19, 1876.

A CIVIL WAR.

When man and wife engage in strife,
How mournful is the sight!
And when hard blows succeed hard words,
How wretched is their plight.

A scene like this the other night
Disgraced a certain house;
An irate husband sought to give
Chastisement to his spouse.

But she opposed her lord's attempt,
And with a good stout broom
She quickly hit him on the head
A sounding "crack of doom,"

She threw him down upon the floor,
Where he did loudly groan,
And then, like Queen Victoria,
She sat upon the throne.

His head upon the oaken boards
Unsparingly she jammed;
He went into the fight a lion,
But came out strangely "lambed."

Danish Troubles.

COPENHAGEN, 18.—The final debate in the Rigsdag, on the finance bill, occurred to-day. The speakers were virulent and abounded in personal recriminations. The select committee to whom the bill was referred, had stricken out or largely reduced every item demanded by the government, and had incorporated personal insults against several ministers. The radicals have a large majority in the Chamber. The Government journals advise the King to close the session, which would be the third dissolution since this agitation commenced, and provide for the state expenses by means of provisional grants under his signature in council. The radicals urge resistance to the collection of taxes, if necessary, by force. The situation is the most critical since 1848.

WINNIPEG, 18.—Recent Toronto specials concerning the ravages of small-pox, near Lake Winnepeg, grossly misrepresent the situation. The Icelandic settlement is isolated, and in a population of 2,500 Icelanders and 300 Indians there have been only 80 deaths, and but five deaths in the last two weeks. For a month past there has been a strict quarantine of the infested districts. No panic or interruption of trade.

LONDON, 18.—A terrible colliery explosion occurred, to-day, in South Wales, in the company's pit near Newport. Seven bodies have been recovered, and many of the miners, taken out alive, are seriously, and some fatally, injured.

Correspondence.

A Dream—Relics of War—Preaching—Branch Organized—Opposition—Good Prospects, Etc.

HAYWOOD VALLEY,
Dec. 4, 1876.

Editor Deseret News:

I left the State Indiana on the 22d of September last, in answer to a call to preach in this locality, and in fulfillment of a desire to visit this country.

Previous to joining the Church of Jesus Christ, and while boarding at Sister Heywood's, in the 17th Ward. I dreamed that President B. Young requested me to go to Rome, Ga., and I would, in the vicinity of the town, find something that would confirm me in my belief of the Gospel. At breakfast next morning I related the dream, more in a spirit of joking and humor than anything else, but I could see Sister H. placed a different construction upon it.

On my arrival in Illinois, I received a letter, forwarded to me, but written to Brother George Teasdale, requesting some one to come here and preach. A gentleman, whose acquaintance I made while in Indiana, gladly advanced me the requisite amount of money to bring me here, and lo I find my dream literally fulfilled, after ten years of time elapsing; for if I stood in need of any more convincing proof of the divine nature of this work I have had it.

On my way to this point I travelled through the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, part of Alabama and North Georgia, and almost on a line with the route travelled by the armies during the late war. The evidences of their work had not entirely disappeared—lines of fortifications, old forts, weed grown and dismantled, long lines of white tombstones, ranging through the National Cemetries at Louisville, Nashville, Murfreesboro, Chattanooga, and Mission Ridge; forest trees that yet retain the evidence of cruel war in broken limbs and shattered trunks; towns that once were filled with men and animals, directed and led by the finest military talent the century has produced, now lie dead and lifeless, with only lone chimneys, that seem to stand sentinel over the desolation around them, a people not yet recovered from the terrible scourge of war, and looking forward with dread to the future.

Surrounded by such scenes, my mind reverted to the prophecy of the great Latter-day prophet, Joseph Smith, who, almost half a century ago, predicted that a terrible war would come on the nation, dividing the North against the South, terminating in the death and misery of many souls, and the Southern States should call upon Great Britain for assistance—that the slaves should rise up against their masters and be marshalled and disciplined for war; and before me I had the evidence of the literal ulfillment of the prophecy.

In the present political tangle do we not see the shadow of the cloud that shall soon cover the land, and is the situation any more cheering in the East? On my arrival here I found a church building open for me to preach in, appointments were made and many came out to hear, some having already heard our Elders preach, and, thereby being led to investigate, had minds open to conviction. The result so far has been an organization of a branch of seventeen members, who, with their families, in all numbering about fifty souls, purpose emigrating the coming season. The opposition has been bitter, as it usually is, relying upon misrepresentation and lies to counteract the truth, but the honest in heart obey the commandments and realize the blessings of Israel's God.

We have a good church building, controlled entirely by the Saints, and hold regular meetings on the Sabbath day. Next Thursday is fast day, which we purpose observing. The Saints who have come into the "bonds of the covenant" realize and testify to the truth of the work with an earnestness that does my heart good. Our prospects are good for many more additions and a good work.

Trusting we have the prayers of the righteous in our behalf,

Very respectfully,

J. MORGAN.

F. AUERBACH & BRO.

TO CALIFORNIA.

We don't give this for un fait accomplis, but it is very strongly rumored that Cedar Rapids is to be the half-way station between Chicago and Council Bluffs.

If this is to be, and some experiments have been made to that end, we suppose it is on account of the superior condition of the road. A trip on the steel railed and well ballasted road, is not any more now, if as much, wear and, tear on the employes and machinery to a train, from Chicago to Cedar Rapids, 218 miles, as it was on the iron rails from Chicago to Clinton, 138 miles, in the olden time.

It is not necessary for us to say that the C. & N. W. R'y is a first-class road in every particular, that it rides as easy as sitting in a "rocking chair," that its coaches are parlors, that its employes are the most polite and affable gentlemen the traveling public can meet or will meet in a lifetime of travel—the esprit de corps of the employes, if we may so say, is at a high standard; we say we need not say this in a newspaper, it is self-evident to every traveler on the road. But in the future these are to be increased; we suppose the speed will be increased; if possible, the superb trains will be more superb; there is to be no train more complete, either for comfort or safety, leave the world's commercial metropolis for the GOLDEN GATE, THAN THE GREAT TRAINS ON THE CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY—THE ONLY COMPANY RUNNING OUT OF CHICAGO THAT HAS A ROAD SO RELIABLE THAT THEY ARE NOT AFRAID TO RUN AT ANY SPEED CAPABLE OF BEING ATTAINED BY ENGINES OF THE MOST IMPROVED CONSTRUCTION, RUN WITH THE HAND OF IRON NERVE, AND A HEAD OF BRAINS, WITHOUT ANY FEAR OF ACCIDENT OR INCONVENIENCE.

Every employe on the road feels a personal interest in the North-Western Railway; it's the "clipper" road in the West, and so far as anything he can do it will continue so to be.

THIS IS THE TRANS-CONTINENTAL LINE FROM THE GREAT LAKES TO THE GREAT MISSOURI RIVER.

The old time traveler speaks in high glee of the "ease and comfort" of these days of steel in contrast with the pioneer days of this pioneer road in the days of iron. The comforts of travel on the North-Western Railway are in every traveler's mouth from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It must be a proud compliment to the efficient management, and that is the reason every officer or employe feels so happy and obliging.

It is with pride we mention these things, and join the general shout along the line. Hurrah for the "OLD RELIABLE."—Cedar Rapids Republican, Aug. 14, 1876.
