TALOGAN, Feb. 8.

The body of Lotin Rice who eras buried in a showellde in Pro-ridence, Dry Callon last night, was bound about 11 o'clock this morn-ing, lifeless, Both legs was bro-cen, and the head mashed: Hi-iwo brothers were caught in the same slide and narrophy econged the fate of Lorin, as one way buried and had his arm shove the snow. The other brother who turn-ed up against a tree saw the arm, dug him out and saved his life. Mr. Zera Snow was next called for. In responding he stated that the fact of his being called to the rostrum in that meeting was an indication of the character of the sentiments of these composing it. His position was well-known, having been plainly defined last Fall, when he took a stand for R. N. Baskin as against Geo. Q. Cannon
