FRAGMENTS.

Heavy rains last night.
 A Bio thaw yesterday and to-day.
 Lots of mud and pools of water to-day.

Strong south wind all day Wednesday.

The appearance of the upper deep indicates more rain.

"MAY BLOSSOM" is the attraction at the Theatre this evening.

People's Party electors, read the call for a convention, in this evening's News.

"HAZEL KIRK" will be given as a matinee at the Theatre on Saturday afternoon.

THOMAS MARSHALL will be a passenger on the east-bound U. P. train to-morrow.

B. F. BROOKS and wife, of the city, started for Chicago this morning, over the D. & R. G.

There is a letter at this office from England, addressed to Wm. English, Salt Lake City.

GEN. R. S. DEMENT, surveyor general of Utah, left the D. & R. G. this morning, for Kansas City, to meet his family.

The recent downfall will saturate the ground and prepare the land to yield abundant crops to the husbandman in 1886. So mote it be.

The Sixth Ward will have a reunion of all the adults in the Ward to-morrow afternoon and evening. The little folks will be regaled on Saturday.

The hearing of the case of the People vs. B. Y. Hampton, on appeal to the Territorial Supreme Court, has been set for Thursday, Jan. 29th.

The Utah delegates to the Cattle Convention at Denver will leave over the narrow gauge on Monday. Most of the party will return via the Union Pacific.

A party of forty negroes left Pueblo to-day, via the D. & R. G., en route from Georgia to Los Angeles, Cal.; they will reach this city to-morrow evening.

Some weatherwise prophets prognosticate a dry summer this year, in consequence of the apparent early break up. Their predictions may prove fallacious.

The Governor has sent in several nominations to the Legislative Council, for Territorial officers. He evidently wants to foist upon the people the most offensive officers he can.

The Territorial Supreme Court, this morning, declined to hold court in the Federal court room in the Wasatch corner, owing to the building being considered insecure. A committee has been appointed to inspect the building, and report their conclusions.

BROTHER JOHN LANG, of Beaver County, was released from the Penitentiary this afternoon. In addition to serving three months' imprisonment for refusing to renounce a principle of his religion, he was required to remain 30 days for the fine imposed.

To-morrow Justice of the Peace Speirs is to show cause why he should not try Yearlan for his lewdness in a house of ill-fame! The fact that Yearlan is not a "Mormon" makes the result appear to be a foregone conclusion. The judges are to-morrow as Judge McBride put it, "will not stand the exposure," if the local officers have to be deprived of the power to act.

TWO-AND-A-HALF weeks' mail, after being snowed in on the Kansas Pacific; in a rain endeavor to get it through by that route and avoid the blockade on the U. P. arrived in this city last evening, and the papers for that period can now be had at Dwyer's. As samples of his late arrivals, he has placed upon our table Pack for the 9th and 13th last. Frank Leslie's Illustrated for the 9th, the Family Library monthly, part 41, and Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for February.

JOHN H. ALLMAN, one of those arrested yesterday for vagrancy, was brought before Justice Speirs this morning, and differed somewhat in his appearance from the grues tramp to which the people of this region have been accustomed. He was attired in a black suit, with stand-up collar, shirt studs and plug hat, and appeared perfectly at ease. He requested that the case be continued until to-morrow at 2 p. m., which was done, and bail fixed at $50, the bonds not yet being furnished. Allman has been engaged as a vendor of burglar alarms, and it is not improbable that something of importance to those who have suffered from burglars of late may be elicited before long.

FRANK STEWART, who was arrested yesterday, on a charge of vagrancy, was tried before Justice Speirs this morning. Stewart was released on December 29th last, from having served a term on the same charge, and the testimony of the prosecution in the case to-day was conclusive. The accused, however, told a story of having worked four days last week, saving word for a man named John Kelly, west of the D. & R. W. depot, for which he claimed to have received $10, the quantity of wood being fixed at five cords. The story was so improbable that the court was not impressed with the truth, and a continuance was had, that the defendant might have the benefit of Kelly's corroboration, if it could be found that such a man existed.

Leading citizens in the several municipal wards are respectfully requested to take the initiative in carrying into effect these suggestions, relative to the primary meetings, that the voters may be properly notified of the time and place of holding the same, that the rights and liberties of the voters of the People's Party may be secured, and that the delegates chosen to the convention may be such as will best represent the interests of the people.

By order of the Municipal Central Committee of the People's Party,
 JAS. H. ANDERSON, Sec'y.
 Salt Lake City, January 21, 1886.

THE LEGISLATURE.

COUNCIL—JAN. 20.

As the City Hall clock struck the hour of seven, the President, E. J. Gaff, the opening ceremonies were attended to, after which the journal of Tuesday was read, amended and approved.

Mr. Tuttle presented a petition from the assessor and collector of Sanpete County, asking that the sum of $250.50 appropriated to cover the same amount of uncollected taxes from persons who had removed and others that could not be found. Referred to committee.

The President read a communication from the Governor, making the following nominations:

Auditor of Public Accounts—Arthur Pratt.
 Territorial Treasurer—Bolívar Roberts.
 Territorial Sup't of Schools—P. L. Williams.

The nominations were placed on file.

Messrs. Dement, Stayner, Carlton and Hollister acknowledged the courtesy of the freedom of the Council Chamber.

Mr. Grover reported from the judicial committee on the bill, No. 12, and C. F. No. 18, and recommended their passage. Placed on file for second reading.

Mr. Barton introduced a bill amending chap. 18, sec. 45, Session Laws of 1884, providing that non-secure franchise contained therein for two years shall work a forfeiture of the right of franchise.

The following bills were read a second time:

One to amend sec. 335, chap. 1, regulating the mode of procedure in criminal cases, providing for admission to bail of any person charged with an offense not punishable with death, as a matter of right.

A bill providing for the punishment of a misdemeanor was called up, and the rules were suspended while it was read a third time.

Mr. Barton moved that the bill be amended so as to read "any sum less than $300," passed, and read by its title.

The following bills then passed their third reading:

A bill amending Section 5, Chapter 25, Session Laws of 1884, relating to the peddling of products of the farm and garden; on motion of Mr. Hammond, it passed.

The bill defining the manner of determining disputed county boundaries to amend Mr. Taylor moved the reference defining a boundary line by two surveyors by striking out the words "or either of them." This bill was passed.

Taylor, Hammond and Grover, showing that the bill in its present form did not meet the object of it, it was referred back to the committee on counties. Adjourned till 2 p. m., Thursday.

HOUSE—JAN. 20.

The House convened at 7 o'clock p. m., with the Speaker in the chair, and the call showed that there was a quorum present.

The clerk read a message from the Council, stating that that body had appointed Councilors Sharp, Barton, Taylor, Shurfill and Tuttle a committee of conference.

A petition from Sheriff John W. Turner was presented, stating that during the Hopt trial for murder in 1885, on the 14th of December, he had been ordered to procure witnesses from a distance, there being no funds in the Territorial treasury for that purpose at the time. The total amount was $715.25, and the petitioner asked that this sum be reimbursed, although he made the request with much reluctance. The matter was referred to the committee on claims and public accounts.

Mr. King, from the committee on agriculture and irrigation, reported back the House bill on irrigation, and presented a bill to amend the same, and animated debate the report was adopted; but subsequently the vote to adopt was reconsidered, and the substitute was rejected. The original bill was then read a second and third time, and, under the suspension of the rules of the House, passed.

The chairman of the committee on live stock (Mr. Kimball) reported back unfavorably the House bill in relation to stock herding. The report was adopted.

Mr. Hatch reported two bills in relation to sexual crimes, which were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Baty asked to be released from acting on the committee of conference with the Council committee, and suggested that Mr. Thurman be appointed in his place. Rejected.

Mr. Cannon, from the committee on printing, said he requested to state that the printed report of the committee on Insane Asylum would be ready in one week.

Mr. Cannon presented a bill to establish a Territorial Reform School; read by title and referred to the committee on penitentiary and reform.

The clerk read a message from the Council, stating that it had passed a bill amending Section 5, of Chapter 25, of the Laws of Utah for 1884, relating to persons selling the products of their farms and gardens, and to persons carrying on business in an incorporated city.

Several messages from the Council relative to bills were read and referred after which the House adjourned till 2 p. m. Thursday.

COUNCIL—JAN. 21.

The Council was engaged this afternoon in considering the following:

The bill on insane asylum, introduced by Mr. Fredericksen to Johnson.

The bill on fish and game.

Reports from standing and special committees.

An amendment by Mr. Sharp to the University bill.

The civil procedure bill was made special order for to-morrow.

Three o'clock and then, yesterday, Jan. 20th, the 10th anniversary of the birth of Bishop E. K. Rankin, who has presided over the 16th Ward of this city for nearly 30 years. Last evening, unknown to the venerable Bishop, about 200 members of the ward assembled at the meeting house, where, in response to an urgent invitation to attend a meeting, the Bishop arrived some time afterward, and was completely surprised. An address of welcome, a poem specially composed by Brother H. W. W. depot, for which he claimed to have received $10, the quantity of wood being fixed at five cords. The story was so improbable that the court was not impressed with the truth, and a continuance was had, that the defendant might have the benefit of Kelly's corroboration, if it could be found that such a man existed.

The Coltin Examination.—The examination of Deputy H. F. Collin, for the shooting of Joseph W. McMurtin, was set for 2 o'clock this afternoon, but owing to the time taken by the arguments in the Hopt case before the Supreme Court, the hearing was continued until a later hour.

Improvements at Fort Douglas.—The dispatches announce that extensive improvements are to be made at the garrison at Fort Douglas, which will not be unwise news to the people of this region by any means, as that implies the circulation of a little more of the public funds in this region, for the purchase of material and payment of labor. Let the improvements go on.

The Hopt Case.—The appeal in the Hopt case was argued before the Territorial Supreme Court to-day. Messrs. Sheeks and Williams appearing for the appellant, and District Attorneys Dickson and Varian for the people. In Mr. Sheeks' argument, he pointed out what he considered were errors made by the Court below, and called the attention of the Court to the record, with a view to the ascertainment of the facts, where there were any errors, which would save the defendant's life for the time being.

A RECLUSE BURNED OUT.

FORGOTTEN TENT REDUCED TO ASHES—HIS WIFE RYLY BURNED WHILE HE WAS SAVING THE MANUSCRIPTS.

Some five or six years ago an eccentric man, by the name of John Forsgren, who had formerly lived in Sanpete and Utah counties, and had evidently become insane over religion, located upon a piece of vacant land in the Tenth Ward of this city, belonging to H. W. Lawrence, and annexing his intention of starting a new church. He erected a rude tent of huge dimensions for a habitation, and for a short time created some little interest in the neighborhood by the propagation of his vagaries. It was said that he was supported by the subscriptions of a number of Scandinavian girls who were out at service in the city and who, from a belief in the doctrines he taught, regularly turned over to him their earnings. What little following he obtained, however, appeared to be but short-lived, and for a number of years past he and his wife have lived like hermits, being seldom visited by one and almost as seldom leaving their rude habitation. He was regarded by the neighbors as a harmless kind of a crank, and was never interfered with except occasionally by mischievous urchins who took delight in tantalizing him. His wife did washing for some of the neighbors, and by this means earned a small pittance, which, with the product of their chickens and a pension from the Government, which he obtained for having served in the Mexican war, has apparently constituted their sole means of support.

Last evening the high wind which prevailed threatened their frail habitation, and the old man went outside to tighten the cords and strengthen the stakes which supported it, and while so engaged a strong gust lifted the side of the tent and in a moment it collapsed, upsetting in its fall the lamp, which set fire to the combustible fabric, and in less time than it takes to tell it, the whole thing was ablaze. With a shout of warning, for his wife to get out, he rushed to the place where the box containing his manuscript, which he regards as sacred and sets great store by, was located, and succeeded in dragging it from the flames, getting his face and hands somewhat burned in doing so. In the meantime Mrs. J. J. Jones, one of the nearest neighbors, arrived upon the scene and began to search for Mrs. Forsgren, who was soon discovered beneath the burning tent, where she had been caught while vainly attempting to escape, and after some difficulty succeeded in rescuing her, though in a badly burned condition. Had it not been for Mrs. J. J. Jones who was certainly have been burned to death. As it is, her face and arms are covered with blisters, and it will be a long time before she can recover.

The unfortunate pair were immediately removed to the residence of Wm. E. Wentworth, where everything that kindness, careful nursing and skillful treatment could do to alleviate their suffering was done, the family of Brother Wentworth sitting all night waiting upon them.

Mr. Forsgren estimates his loss at $1,400, though no person from looking at his domicile would ever have imagined that its contents were as valuable as the value of the manuscript already mentioned.

The destitute condition to which the unfortunate man and woman have been reduced calls for active and substantial sympathy, and we trust that all who sympathize with the poor and distressed should be forgotten or call forth only commiseration when trouble comes upon a fellow creature such as has befallen them, and those who are able should extend a helping hand as they themselves would desire if similarly situated.

Heavy Snow Storm.—Brother Rees K. Lewellyn of Fountain Green writes from that place under date of 18th that a heavy snow storm had prevailed there for two days, covering the ground with a coat 18 inches in depth on the level, and piling up heavy drifts to the divide between Sanpete and Juab Counties.

Trustees' Association.—The committee appointed by the Trustees' Association of Salt Lake County, will please meet at the 14th District School Room, Friday evening, at 7 o'clock.

The Trustees' Association will meet at the same place on Saturday next, at 12 o'clock, when the Trustees who have not received their warrant for the School Appropriation, if present, will be able to do so.

The Governor Nominates.—His Excellency the Governor has sent a communication to the Legislative Council notifying it that, by virtue of the authority in him vested by law, he has nominated Arthur Pratt to be Auditor of Public Accounts; Bolívar Roberts to be Treasurer, and Parley L. Williams to be Territorial Superintendent of Public Schools. Whether or not the august body to whom this important communication is addressed will concur, time will determine.

Teacher's Association.—The Salt Lake County Teachers' Association will hold its regular meeting in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Room, at 11 a. m. next Saturday.

The programme will be as follows:

1.—Lecture on drawing. Professor Martin Lenzi.

2.—Lecture on orthography. Mr. Louis Howell.

3.—Hints on good books. Mr. Jos. Hyrum Parry.

4.—To what extent should play be allowed in the school room at noon and recess? Messrs. W. Woolley and J. W. Shipley, and Misses Elizabeth Bowman and Kate Schneider.

5.—Continuation of the discussion on moral training.

6.—Criticism, Miss Emma Finch.

Again at Liberty.—Brother John Lang, of Beaver, who has served a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary for cohabiting with his wives and refusing to make provision as to his future conduct, was to-day released from duress, and, again breathes the air of freedom. He was sentenced on the 29th of September last, after having pled guilty, to three months' imprisonment and to pay a fine of $500, and costs of trial. His term of imprisonment, however, only counted from the 5th of October, the day upon which he was placed in the "Pen," and after the elapse of good behavior it expired on the 24th of December. He was not able to pay the fine and costs assessed against him, he remained, imprisoned another month.

He was released at 1 p. m. to-day, brought to the city in the penitentiary wagon, and taken before Commissioner McKay, where he was required to make oath that he possessed no property over what the law exempted from attachment, after which he was discharged. He says his health has been excellent during his incarceration, and he has nothing to complain of on the score of ill-treatment.

The brethren now in the penitentiary are all well except Brother John Keddington, who is suffering from a severe cold, and a severe attack of rheumatism, which is the effect of cold, and Father Gale, who has been rather feeble ever since he entered the "Pen."
