MINER KILLED BY A CAVE-IN.

Struck by a Railway Train—First Alaska Execution—Supposed Desperado Caught.

Owing to the prevalence of winter, the public schools of California, Wash., have been closed by the city council, acting as a board of health.

Three men, who were arrested in the New Alameda mine, Cal., were killed in a cave Tuesday. It was estimated that a new excavation in California if it was safe for mining, when a cave in occurred and he was buried alive. A large number of men went to work immediately, but the unfortunate miner was dead when they reached him.

Three men named Eldred, Spaulding and Hodge, who live in Sacramento, Cal., were going down a mountain Tuesday morning to a two-wheeled wagon, and while crossing the railroad track the wagon was struck by a freight train and completely wrecked. One of the occupants, Chester W. Eldred, received injuries that may prove fatal. The others escaped with a few bruises.

George Deason, a rancher living at Angleton, Lower California, was found dead in his cabin Sunday morning by Fred Richardson. Richardson was on his way from San Quentin to San Antonio, intending to drag the horse for the bodies of the three sailors and bring off the cabin. Richardson, Richardson found Hodge dead on the floor, evidently having died not long before. The circumstances pointed to poisoning, but whether accidental or intentional Richardson could not tell.

Mrs. Carrie Clark, a widow 55 or 56 years of age, was found dead in her bed at Los Angeles, Cal., Sunday morning. She had been ill for some time, and was a victim of a fatal disease, which she was suffering from at the time of her death. Her death, however, was not a surprise to her friends, as she had been ill for some time.

The landlady and others who knew her, however, say the lady was in the habit of inhaling the deadly drug in order to relieve her from nervous headache.

The railroad is putting in new automatic brakes in Omaha on which trains of stock are being shipped. It is estimated that the cost of the new brakes will be about $100,000.

The cars as soon as possible after it has been received at the yards. There are four pairs of these cars and it will require eight men to be added to the crew to work them. There will be a day and night shift of one man each in charge of a car. This new method of working will be adopted in January 1.

Confined to the county jail at Caldwell, Idaho, is James H. Tate, the man who is believed to be one of the police who held up the River City stage a short time ago, relieving J. H. McCowan and others of their valuables. He is said to be a desperado, and the officers believe they made an important catch. Tate has an excellent reputation. He is said to be a desperado, and the officers believe they made an important catch.

He is believed to be the party who held up Jerry Kinsman, the Short Line conductor, at Caswell.

Denver, New Mexico, Headlight: The Mexican charged with the murder of the Marston Kider Henson, one of the Marston relatives a few weeks ago, was brought from the south last week and lodged in the jail. It will be remembered that the Kider was killed of two barrels of snakes. He found one of the barrels had been broken, and while waiting to catch the thieves, the thieves jumped over him and shot him in the head, and then burned what there was left. The turtles at once took the trail, and have succeeded in catching the men which they have good reason to believe are the murderers. A reporter was told that the fellows would all be shot at an early day.

Denver, New Mexico, Headlight: It has been too long the custom in Denver, when a marriage takes place, for the rich and community of society to repair to the place where the couple have been consummated, and to the place where the couple have been consummated, and to the place where the couple have been consummated.

Colonel William Bailey, of New York, representing an eastern syndicate, has purchased the Tacoma and Lake Park railway, extending to Lake Park, ten miles south of Tacoma, Wash. They will make it standard gauge, and will be completed in February. It will connect a fifty-mile extension, taking it nearly to Columbia pass. This extension will tap one of the richest timber and mineral belts in Washington. The district agent is to reach the Elbow river and build this side of Columbia pass, where coal veins have been known to exist for miles. It has been estimated that the railway will be worth $1,000,000 when completed. The syndicate has been estimated that the railway will be worth $1,000,000 when completed.

Medals

Two Gold
Three Silver

FIVE—that's the number of Medals taken in November by Goodyear Welt Shoemaking System at Mechanics' Fair, Boston.

People said it was the most complete working exhibit of Modern Shoemaking ever made.

The World's Fair at Chicago gave us a half-dozen medals. They'll be delivered, so they tell us, about February 1, 1896. A little later, but, added to those we have, they'll make it five.

Taking medals is "dead easy"; but, what is more to the purpose, the people are taking
