Death of Mrs. Raymond of Plain City -Young Girls Arrested in Wine Rooms - Accident.

A sensational divorce suit was filed in the second district court today by Mrs. Eliza Warren, the well known milliner, against W. C. Warren, a prominent citizen of this city. The allegations in the complaint are that the plaintiff and defendant were married n England in 1872, and have since that time been living as man and wife. That for more than one year past the defor more than one year past the de-fendant has treated the plaintiff in a cruel manner, and has called her vite names and cursed her. The complaint further alleges that he has failed to provide her with the necessities of life, and is addicted to drinking and when under the influence of liquor would come home and treat the plaintiff in a cruel manner, The plaintiff asks for a decree of divorce, and for cost of suit and such other relief as to the court may seem just and equitable. The plaintiff is proprietress of Ogden's leading millinery establishment and a very highly respected lady. The defendant was quite wealthy at one time, and conducted a large real estate business here in Ogden for a number of years. A restraining order was issued and served on the defendant by Deputy

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM :- I was always a healthy girl until about a year ago when I caught a severe cold coming home from a party. For months after that I was very irregular and suffered severe pains for a day or two. I lost flesh and strength, and became alarmed. My mother procured a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me, and I began to take it faithfully. I soon found that my general health improved, and within a couple of months I became regular to a day, and suffered no further pain, and several of my friends have been helped through its use since." - ELIZABETH HESSELMAN, 129 First St., Neenah, Wis.
